EASTON PACKET.

THE subscriber returns his grateful acknowledgements to the public for the encouragement he has heretofore received, in running his Packet from Easton to Baltimore; and informs them he has again commenced running as usual. Starting from Easton Point on Wednesday, at 10 o'clock, and from Baltimore at the same hour, on Saturday, in every week, during the season—as the strictest attention will be paid to give general satisfaction, he hopes for a continuance of past favors.—Freights and passages will be as usual. But it is expected that passengers will pay their bills before leaving the vessel, otherwise their trunks, bundles, &c. will be detained until settlement.

As there is considerable trouble and risk attached to the receiving, carrying, and paying money to and from different persons, all those in future who employ him in this way, (except merchants for whom he is in the constant habit of doing business) will be charged one per cent. on all money so received, carried, or paid away—and all money collected by him from orders, or otherwise will be subject to a discount or commission of two and a half per cent. as a compensation for his trouble and expence, in collecting the same.—Also those who send to Baltimore for articles of any kind, and do not remit the amount and freight of such articles, must not expect them to be delivered until the same is fully and finally settled for; as it is impossible for him to advance money to fill up the multiplicity of orders frequently committed to his charge.

Queen's-Town, and Baltimore PACKET.

THE subscriber returns his most sincere acknowledgments to the Public generally, for the many favors he has received since he commenced running his Packet; and begs leave to inform that he will continue to run regularly, and solicits a continuance. His first trip was on Wednesday, the 8th instant leaving Queen's-Town precisely at nine o'clock every Wednesday morning, and Baltimore the same hour every Saturday, during the season.

The superior accommodations of his Packet, having sixteen births, the short distance between this and the city of Baltimore, will, he trusts, claim a preference for this route; and he pledges himself to give every personal attention to dispatch and accommodation, which an undertaking of this kind requires.

Good Bargains.

THE subscriber offers for sale, that elegant horse SPECULATOR—he is a bright bay, of the Hunter breed, trots, paces and canters, and has proved to be as sure a foal getter, as any horse on the continent. Talbot and Queen-Ann's counties can produce colts of Speculator's get, as bony, stout and well made, agreeably to the mares, as scarcely can be equalled.

If Speculator be not sold, he will stand at the Trappe and St. Michael's, and pass through Easton twice a week. Any person desirous of taking him on shares for the season, will please to call at Mr. RUE's TAVERN, on TUESDAYS.

Also for Sale—A handsome Jersey fashioned CARRIAGE, with a good pair of horses, and a good set of harness. The above property will be sold for cash, or on a credit of sixty days—provided, the security is approved of.
