LOCAL MATTERS

SALE RECORD.

SATURDAY AUGUST 3rd.—Public auction of the harness and store goods of the late John F. Howard, on Court street by Hope H. Barroll executor.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 7—Samuel G. Caldwell will have a large public sale of about 100 head of horses, mules and colts on his farm, near Galena.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 8—Sale of the large and valuable personalty of the late W. G. Skirven, on Tulip Forest farm, near Fairlee. Mr. Lewin U. Skirven, as agent, has due authority to make this sale, having been authorized by the widow of the deceased, Mrs. M. E. Skirven, in whose name all this property is recorded, to act as her agent. The sale will posstively take place, and all goods sold as advertised. Mrs. Skirven's sale of household goods appears in this issue. Sale begins at 10.30 A. M. instead of at eleven as formerly advertised. Ladies are requested to be present.

THURSDAY AUGUST 8th.—Sale of a lot of horses, mules, cattle and farm implements of John McC. Rochester, near I. B. Queen Anne's county.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14—Sale of William T. Crow's desirable personalty on the Bosee farm in Morgnec.

MONDAY AUGUST 12th.—Sale of fine personalty of Max Price on "the Gunneries farm" near Still Pond.

TUESDAY AUGUST 20th.—Sale of the fine John P. Cochran farm, near Galena, by Hope H. Barroll, assignee.

MONDAY, AUGUST 22—Public sale of desirable personalty of Mrs. Rachel E. Durham on the J. F. M. Woodall farm near Massey.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 19th—Public Sale of large and valuable personalty of Mr. Eugene M. Bonwell, on his home farm near Betterton.

TUESDAY AUGUST 20th, 1912.—Administrator's sale of stock, farm implements, etc., by Wm. H. Alderson on the "James Budd farm," between Cecilton and Fredericktown, Md. George W. Padley, auctioneer.

TUESDAY AUGUST 27th.—Public sale of 30 head horses and 40 cows and farming implements by William Peacock, on the William Knight farm between the Bohemia bridge and Cecilton, about 2 miles north of Cecilton. George W. Padley, auctioneer.

Isn't This Going Some?—Kent county's road engineer appeared before the Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday and asked the board to have a telephone installed in his bed room in the hotel and connect it with the one in his office. The board promptly denied the luxury. Isn't that going some?

Strawboard Mill May Resume.—We were advised by a gentleman who is in a position to know yesterday that there is a strong prospect that the strawboard mill will shortly resume operation under the management of the present owners, the American Strawboard Company. It is hoped that everything can be gotten in readiness by the middle of September. Farmers who have straw for sale are asked to protect it.

Chautauqua Meeting.—A meeting of the executive committee of the Chautauqua, the Ladies' Chautauqua Club and all those who subscribed for next year's Chautauqua tickets are requested to meet in Stam's Hall on Friday evening next, August 9th, at 7.30 o'clock to discuss plans and make necesssry arrangements for securing the Chautauqua next year. Three hundred and fifty tickets have been subscribed, and the subscribers as well as all those interested are urged to be at this most important meeting next Friday evening. Three hundred and fifty more tickets are needed to secure the Chautauqua next year, and something must be done to get these tickets.

Strange Disease Killing Horses.—A strange disease which has baffled the skill of some of our veterinarians is killing and seriously affecting the horses around Betterton. The disease affects the animal pretty much the same as spinal meningitis, and by some it is thought to be that disease. The horse loses control of its limbs, falls to the ground and finally dies. Among those who have either lost horses or which are badly affected are Messrs. Harry Crew, Harry Redding, Herman Crew, James T. Ireland, Arthur Brice, Jesse Coleman, Irving Robinson and Tom Cotton, colored. The farmers are considrably alarmed for the safety of their horses, and are taking every precaution to prevent the disease.

Serious Affair at Locust Grove.—As we go to press Sheriff McKee notifies us of a serious if not fatal affray near Locust Grove in which a white man by the name of Mace was probably fatally wounded. The sheriff and State's Attorney Vickers left here at two o'clock in an automobile for the scene of the crime. Neither the sheriff nor the State's Attorney knew any of the particulars, and we were unable to get them by phone as the line was out of service.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

HUEY—NOBLE.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Bethel Methodist Episcopal Church, near Federalsburg on Thursday at noon, when Miss Elsie Rosalie Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Maddox Noble, became the bride of Mr. William Robert Huey, book-keeper in the Third National Bank of Chestertown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Sharp, of the Seaford M. E. Church, only the immediate families and a few friends of the couple being present. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage, to the strains of the wedding march skillfully rendered by Miss Gretchen Warren, of Cambridge. She wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin draped with point d'espirt and carried a ritual bound in white. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Bertha Noble, who wore pale yellow chiffin over messaline. Mr. I. F. Huey, of Seaford, Del., brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were all college class-mates and intimate friends of the groom from Chestertown. They were: Messrs. B. Blackiston Wroth, Thomas W. Eliason, Jr., Conlyn Noland, and T. Kemp Bordley.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Huey left for a short wedding trip. They have rented and will occupy the residence on High street vacated this week by Mr. and Mrs. J. Cordray Loud. The presents were numerous and handsome. Cashier and Mrs. W. B. Copper, Miss Palmer Carroll, of Chestertown and Miss Huey, of Massey, attended the wedding, making the trip to Federalsburg in autos.
