THE GRIM REAPER.

MRS. ALFRED L. BENJAMIN.

Mrs. Helen Benjamin, wife of Mr. Alfred L. Benjamin, died suddenly at her home on Cross street at six o'clock on Wednesday evening of heart failure, aged 68 years. The deceased was the daughter of the late Thomas Carroll, and was born in Chestertown, where she had lived all her life. She was a lady of most excellent character, and while she lived a very retired life, she had a host of friends, whose confidence and esteem she enjoyed to the fullest extent. Besides her husband she leaves four children—Mrs. Jesse G. Duyer and William T. Benjamin, of Chestertown; Mrs. Ward Smith, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. John Benjamin, of Philadelphia. Funeral services were held from her late residence on Cross street yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Wm. S. Carroll, Daniel P. Cox, Earle and Leslie Duyer and William T. and John Benjamin. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MISS JULIANA TILGHMAN PACA.

Miss Juliana Tilghman Paca, daughter of the late John Philemon Paca, died Tuesday of neuritis at Wye Hall, Wye Island, Queen Anne's county, the historic home of the Pacas of generations ago. She was 48 years of age. Miss Paca was the great-great-great granddaughter of William Paca, Provincial Governor of Maryland, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence from this Commonwealth. It was to Wye House that he retired from public life, the estate being then one of the finest in this conntry. Miss Paca lived most of her life in Baltimore. In the spring just passed she and her brother, William B. Paca, repurchased the old Wye homestead, which had gone out of the hands of the family, and they made it their permanent residence. The deceased has relatives in this county.

Pomona Items.

Rev. Robert Kirby will preach at Mowbray M. E. Church Sunday evening, August 4. Miss Mabel Townsend will lead the Epworth League at 7 o'clock.

Preaching by pastor at Bond Church 11 A. M., Sunday school 9.45 A. M. Everybody welcome at these services. Come and worship with us. Cool church, good singing, short sermons.

Mowbray M. E. Sunday school held their annual picnic on the church lawn Wednesday, the 31st. The attendance was a record-breaker in the history of picnics. Dinner was served promptly at 12 o'clock, and it was all that the most exact and fastidious could desire. It is needless to say ample justice was done to it. After dinner a ball game was played beween the married men and single men of the Ushers Union. The batteries were: Married—Arthur Legg, p; P. Harry Goodman, c; Charles Kirby, p. Single men—Randolph Legg, p; Paul Vansant, p, and Hunter Robinson, c. There was some concern felt for the pastor, for he was the first man to face the pitcher, but when he knocked a two base hit the first time up, it was evident that he had not forgot how to play ball. There was a number of good plays on both sides, and the game was enjoyed by all. E. Y. O'Meara was the umpire. The score—married men, 15; singlemen, 8. After the game ice cream and cake were served by the ladies, and there was enough of it to delight the heart of every small boy on the lawn. Other games were played after this, and everybody voted it the best picnic ever.

Bond M. E. Sunday school will hold their picnic on Wednesday, August 7th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Slagle at Quaker Neck wharf.

The sermons preached by Rev. T. N. Given at Bond and Mowbray M. E. Churches were very much enjoyed.

Rev. Robert Kirby, of Hickman, Del., is home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ricker, of Eddystone, Pa., have returned home after a very pleasant vacation at the paronage. Mrs. Ricker delighted the folks at Mowbray Church with a solo, she being a member of the choir of the Eddystone M. E. Church.

Rev. and Mrs. T. N. Given were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hadaway during their visit to Pomona.

Paul Vansant, of the U. S. Navy, is home on a ten days furlough. The navy is agreeing with him.

Hon. Jas. H. Baker has been indisposed for several days.

Mrs. E. Y. O'Meara has been under the doctor's care for several weeks.

Wm. White, of the Cliff's, has been very sick. At this time he is somewhat improved. Dr. Dodd is in attendance.

Brass Band Enthusiasm.

MESSRS. EDITORS—In our neighboring towns we have bands that have from fifteen to thirty members and as a rule they play good music. The question is why can't Chestertown have a good band? It is generally thought that we have not the material to do the work with, but according to our mind this is not the trouble. There are several reasons for this. We have visited several of our neighboring towns and this is what we find, take Centreville for instance, the town furnishes a room, lights and heat, free of charge, and when they are called upon to play they are well paid for their trouble they have to go through to render good music and are encouraged by everybody. This is only one of the many towns that we know that give the support to such a needed institution.

With very little inquiry you may earn what the Chestertown boys have for their expenses and how many engagements they get to make a little something out of it to keep things going. Let every citizen take hold and push and encourage their home band and we are sure they will be paid for their trouble, for music is something most everybody likes, and by your help we will be able to give you a little taste of this. We would love to have all the new members we can get. A MEMBER.

Women, Motoring Alone, Here From South Carolina.

Coming into Baltimore with two broken springs after making the trip alone from Anderson, S. C., in a four-passenger touring car, Mrs. L. G. Holman and Mrs. R. Beaty are stopping at the Caswell.

"We can fix any little trouble like a blowout," they said. "It has to be something serious like a broken axle to stop us."

"Weren't you frightened?"

"No because we had a gun with us." It was a little .22 caliber revolver.

"One man charged us 15 cents for a pail of water to put in the car, but that was the only bad treatment that we encountered on the whole trip. The worst piece of road was between Baltimore and Frederick and on the trip we crossed the Blue Ridge mountains."—Baltimore News.

The ladies reached Chestertown in safety on Wednesday, and are enjoying daily runs in the town and vicinity. They are the guests of Mrs. Holleman's mother's, Mrs. S. A. Copper.
