LOCAL MATTERS

Lost Wad of Money.—Mr. Enoch Pleasanton, keeper of Chester cemetery, had the misfortune to lose $56 last Saturday. Mr. Pleasanton is unable to account for the loss of the money unless it dropped out of his pocket while he was at work in the cemetery. He has not recovered the money.

Registration This Year.—Registration of voters will be later this year than usual, all three days of the sitting of registers being in October, while heretofore the first day has been in September. The days for registration will be October 1 and 8 and for revision only October 15. The hours will be from 8 A. M. to 7 P. M. Copies of the amended election laws have been received by the election supervisors and can be secured from John C. Davis, president of the board.

Oyster tonging season opens on Monday, Sept. 2. If reports are correct, bivalves are in good condition and the season will be a profitable one.

Mr. Frank Jarman left yesterday morning for Portsmouth, Ohio, to join the team of that city, which is leading the Ohio State League.

Tomato boats, large and small, are making daily trips out of the river and all the canneries along the railroad are running.

There is an important change in the Tolchester schedule in this issue. No more late boats. Look up the adv.

Church Hill baseball team defeated Chestertown on Ford's Field last Thursday afternoon by the score of 4 to 3. It was a hotly contested game and was witnessed by a large crowd of rooters.

St. Michaels is to have a handsome new hotel to accommodate from 400 to 500 guests. It is to be on a lot adjoining Kirby's Marine railway, and will command a beautiful view of the harbor and Miles river.

The rains of the past week have been greatly beneficial to pasture lands, corn, tomatoes, late potatoes and other growing crops, and prospects for our farmers are materially brighter than they were two weeks ago.

The Baltimore American of Thursday stated that Motor Boat Inspector, Dryden, had fined one motorboat owner here $100 for not having a stern light, and another owner at Newnam's wharf $450 for not having sufficient equipments.

The Supervisors of Election met on Thursday and made the appointments of judges and cierks of election and made a partial selection of the places of registration. The lists will be published next week.

Mr. Robert Ayres, book-keeper in the People's Bank, has resigned. He will engage in out-of-doors work, probably farming. The resignation takes effect Sept. 15th and there are a number of applicants for the vacancy.

Mr. A. C. Loud shipped 523 baskets of fine peaches to Baltimore in one day last week. The preacher helped to pick the lot, and you can just bet they were not only good peaches, but Mr. Loud got good prices.

Mr. Jacob Wilbur and one of Mr. John Gale Usilton's sons caught several dozen fine perch and rock at Deep Point in Chester river on Thursday. A party of Chestertown gentleman caught 20 dozen perch and rock at Betterton on Thursday. The quartet of fishermen had their pictures taken and they are dandies.

The estate of the late Edwin R. Hoffman, of Baltimore, uncle of Mr. Walter B. Strong, of Lankford, and of Mrs. Lillian Strong, of this town, has been appraised at $217,257.

The races at Tolchester on Tuesday and Wednesday promise to be the best in the history of the association. There will be four races each day, and each class has filled exceptionally well. The entries are published in another column.

While Minner's thresher was at work Thursday of last week on Cash Corner farm, owned by Wm. B. Davis, near Cecilton, it took fire and was burned, with about 2,000 bushels of wheat belonging to Mr. Davis.

Mr. Albert Godwin brought us a sample of his fine Miracle wheat on Tuesday. The wheat is fine and in splendid condition. Mr. Godwin is selling it for seed wheat. It produced 24 bushels per acre this season.

The Rev. H. W. Robinson, of Shrewsbury, has been enjoying a visit from his brother, Mr. R. H. Robinson, who is manager of the Canada Life Assurance Co., at Hamilton, Ontario. Pressure of business made the visit all too short, for the brothers had not met for over twenty years.

The Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton held its summer meeting at Shrewsbury on Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 20th and 21st. Fine weather and the well-known hospitality of the old parish helped to increase the attendance which was very good throughout the whole session. The first service was held on Tuesday night, when the dean, Rev. W. A. Coale, preached. On Wednesday the Holy Communion was celebrated and the Rev. Dr. Sharpe delivered the sermon. After service a bountiful lunch was served under the old oaks on the church lawn and enjoyed by all present. A short service was held in the afternoon and the Rev. S. S. Hepburn delivered an address on missions laying special stress in the obligations of giving liberally to Diocesan Missions.

There will be no service at Wesley Chapel to-morrow (Sunday) except Sunday school at 9 A. M., as the pastor is away on his vacation.

Grange Notes.

Fairlee Grange No. 249, realizing most deeply the great loss it has sustained in the death of its worthy chaplain, Bro. Washington G. Skirven, desires to place upon record this tribute of its appreciation of his good work in the grange.

As a granger, he was ever prompt and faithful in his attendance, when his health would permit. As a neighbor, he was kind and faithful to minister to those in trouble and sorrow.

As a friend, he was kind, sincere and true and ever maintained a well-balanced christian character.

The passing from us of such a useful life is an irreparable loss to Fairlee Grange.

Therefore, it is resolved, that we extend to our sadly bereaved sister, his devoted wife, our most heart-felt and fraternal sympathy and request a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow and the county papers and that a page of the minute book be set apart in which to inscribe this memorial of our love and esteem.

SARAH C. COREY,
L. M. C. SMYTH.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

HUDSON—THOMAS.

Mr. Tilghman Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Hudson, of Worton, and Miss Mollie Thomas, of Baltimore, were quietly married in Wilmington, Del., on Wednesday by Rev. W. F. Cockran. Mr. Hudson was to have been married in that city by his pastor, Rev. G. A. Morris, but the latter missed the train, getting as far as Catt's corner in time to see the train pull out of Worton Station, and incidentally the parson missed his fee. Bro. Morris, however, telegraphed to Wilmington and made arrangements for the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson returned to Kent on Wednesday evening. They will reside in Fairlee for the balance of this year.

Our Advertisers.

A queer month to sell overcoats, we think, but the best time of the year as long as they are sold at such prices as Bordley & Sons are offering. They were fortunate enough to get Mr. Hoffecker's line at bankrupt sale and can sell at nearly ½ price. Read their add in this issue.

The big annual mid-summer clearance sale of everything in Vansant & Newsome's store begins to-day and continues until Sept. 7. Read their prices on what they have to offer and go get some of the many bargains.

GOOD school shoes at C. C. Jones' shoe store. Get the children equipped before school starts.

Read W. R. Newnam's special advertisement on page 5 of this issue. He is offering a number of pianos of fine make at bargain prices. This offer is good for only a short time. Take advantage of it while it lasts.

Let Mr. C. N. Robinson, the tailor, freshen up your suit or dress. He knows exactly how to do it and can give you a splendid job. Cleaning and pressing a specialty.

Mr. C. Kent Lambert's plumbing shop is ready for your inspection. He is thoroughly equipped to do all kinds of sanitary plumbing and will cheerfully furnish you estimates.

IN MEMORIAM.

COLISON.—On August 13, 1912, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. James A. Pearman, 2117 E. Lombard street, Baltimore, Md., Martha H., age 83 years, 3 months, widow of Wm. H. Colison.

The golden gates were open wide;
A gentle voice said "come,"
And angels from the other side
Welcomed our mother home.

Though to-day we are filled with mourning,
Mercy is still on the throne;
With thy smiles of love returning,
We can sing, "Thy Will be Done."

—BY HER DAUGHTERS.

Interment was at Wesley Chapel, Kent county, Md., Friday, August 16, 1912.

HOPE H. BARROLL AND L. W. BARROLL, Attorneys.

ORDER NISI.

HOPE H. BARROLL, Assignee.
vs.
JOHN P. COCHRAN, et. al.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.

No. 1821.

ORDERED, this 22d day of August, 1912, by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the sale of the mortgaged real estate mentioned in these proceedings made and reported by Hope H. Barroll, assignee and trustee, under and by virtue of the power of sale in a mortgage, from John P. Cochran and wife to John V. Craven, dated June 15th 1905, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 25th day of October next;—provided, a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 23d day of September, next.

The report states the amount of sales to be $10,000.00.
