LOCAL MATTERS

Prohibition Convention.—The Prohibition Convention of the First Congressional District will meet in Harper's Hall, at Hurlock, Md., Sept. 11th, inst. The delegates and alternates from Kent are: M. A. Toulson, C. B. Krusen, F. H. Bottomly, J. R. Jarrell, L. W. Ford, G. W. Covington, J. H. Weist, Thomas Rasin.

Celebrated 18th Birthday.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Parsons, of near Hanesville, entertained a large company of friends on Tuesday evening in honor of the 18th birthday of their daughter, Miss Martha. More than one hundred guests were present, and a sumptuous spread was served. Miss Martha was the recipient of numerous presents and well wishes from her friends and guests.

Virginia Got a Ducking.—Miss Virginia Jones, the interesting little daughter of Prof. and Mrs. J. S. W. Jones, of the college fell overboard from the wall along Front street on Monday. Virginia and her sister, Margaret, were playing along the wall, while her father and Dr. Micou were working around the latter's launch. Virginia fell in water up to her chin. She grabbed the wall and held on manfully while Margaret screamed to the professors. The gentlemen rushed to the little girl's rescue, pulled her ashore and took her to the home of Mrs. R. H. Collins, where she was provided with dry clothing.

Milk Station Begins Operation.—The Milk Stations at Worton, Kennedyville and Massey are getting under way. 4500 pounds of milk were received at Kennedyville on Monday for which $1.40 per hundred pounds was paid. The Worton station opened on Thursday. The company will pay $1.40 per 100 lbs. during September, from $1.45 to $1.50 in October, $1.60 in November and $1.70 per hundred in December. If these stations prove successful, and they have the capital behind them to guarantee their success, there will be many more dairy farms in Kent shortly than there are at present.

Money in Good Poultry.

A well-known poultry raiser in Chestertown has a flock of 35 hens which from Dec. 1 to Sept. 1, nine months, have laid 3832 eggs. $69.75 worth of eggs and young chickens have been sold, the feed has cost $44.47, a net profit of $25.28. Besides this there are 65 halfgrown pullets and cockerels which were raised on the above amount of feed. Counting the profit on eggs sold and the young stock at market price 50 cents, there is a clear profit of $57.78 for the nine months. Besides the satisfaction of having fresh eggs and good fried chicken whenever you want them, there is money in keeping good poultry. It is but fair to say that the entire flock of young chickens numbered over 100 all but 65 having been eaten and sold, and the raiser dosen't care very much for fried chicken either.

Mr. C. N. Robinson, the hustling and accommodating tailor, has rented Mr. Alwyn M. Culp's new property on Cross street, where he will enlarge his business, and conduct it on a broader scale.

Every little bit added to what you've got, makes a little bit more. Just so with the little showers. If we can't get the big rains, the little showers will help.

It is reported that a well-known young man not a thousand miles from Chestertown is considering purchasing Stam's Hall, and opening a first-class drug store on the corner.

Town teams have been busy during the week hauling coal to the paper mill, and Superintendent Quantz has gone to Missouri to purchase a number of mules. It is hoped that the mill will be ready to open by October 1.

Dr. G. Allen Jarman, of Chestertown, and Mr. G. E. Noland, of Tolchester, were members of the advisory board of the Maryland State Fair and Agricultural Society of Baltimore county, whose fair was held at Timonium this week.

One farmer in Queen Anne's county is reported to have nearly his whole farm down in tomatoes. He has gotten one good picking this week, and it is feared that his season is ended. The weather has been so dry that his vines have simply burnt up.

All the outbuildings on the Trenchard farm, in Queen Annes county, near South East creek, were destroyed by fire about seven o'clock Thursday evening, entailing a loss of about $1,600 to $1,800. The farm is owned by Mr. Curtis E. Crane, of Chestertown. The buildings were insured for $1000.

Mr. Walter U. Lusby contemplates erecting several additional bugalows on his Tolchester farm during the coming year. These pretty bungalows are ideal places for summer camping and Mr. Lusby has already had more requests for reservations for next season than he can comply with.

Deputy postmaster R. Snowden Thomas and Mr. Charles Strong caught 17 fine rock on Swan Point Bar on Thursday of last week. There were seven other boats within a short radius of Mr. Strong's boat, but the occupants of all of them caught only five rock.

Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard has secured from the authorities of the college permission to use the grass sod from the ground upon which the new gymnasium is to stand. He has had a force of workmen at work removing the sod and transplanting it on his beautiful grounds at his home near the river.

Mr. F. S. Maslin, a well-known grocer of Havre de Grace, who every year, makes a specialty of Kent county peaches, sold this season nearly 2500 baskets of prime fruit from his store in eleven days. Mr. Maslin we believe has been getting his peaches from Messrs. Joseph R. Usilton and Romie Skirven.

Mr. Frank Jarman, who is pitching for the Portsmouth, Ohio, State League team, which is in the lead for the pennant, pitched against his old team mates, the Chillecothe team, on Monday and let them down with six hits, the score being 6 to 4 in favor of Portsmouth.

Civil service examinations for this district will be held at Baltimore, Sept. 11 and Oct. 16, and at Salisbury same dates. Information relative to these examinations can be had from R. Frank Elburn, at Chestertown postoffice. Mr. Elburn is the local secretary, Board of Civil Service examiners for the Fourth district.

Mr. Obe Manson's horse became frightened at Mr. John Bennett's auto milk truck on Queen street last Saturday morning. Mr. Manson is a cripple and gets about on crutches. He was thrown from his dearborn and sustained a fracture of one arm besides other bruises. Dr. H. G. Simpers set the fracture, which will keep Mr. Manson housed for sometime.

Mr. William Hendricks, one of our prominent farmers, living near Kennedyville, met with a painful accident last Friday afternoon. Mr. Hendricks was driving a load of tomatoes on the State road when one of his mules got frightened. Mr. Hendricks started to jump from the wagon when he struck his hip against the rigging, fracturing a bone in his hip socket. The doctor set the fracture and we are glad to state that Mr. Hendricks is doing well.

Mrs. George Hudson has purchased of the owner, Mr. D. B. McMenamin, his fine mare, Gladys E. at a good price. Mrs. Hudson has one of the finest horses in the county, and Gladys will have a splendid home. She was delivered to her new owner on Wednesday evening, and 'tis needless to say that Gladys' going created much sorrow in the McMenamin family where she had been a great pet for years. She was sold through an advertisement inserted only once in the TRANSCRIPT by her owner.

Mr. J. F. Thompson, agent for the celebrated Ford car, is preparing to erect a fine garage, paint and automobile repair shop on his lot facing on High street. The garage which will face on High street, will be a handsome brick two story structure 37 feet front by 135 feet deep. It will be fitted up with office, show room and storage on the first floor, while Mr. Thompson is not certain as to what use will be made of the second floor. Entrance will be on High street. On the rear of the lot facing on Cannon street a large automobile paint and repair shop will be erected when all kinds of repairing and painting will be done by skilled workmen. The work of clearing the lot has begun, but no contracts have been given for the work yet.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

CARNETT—GEMMILL.

As announced exclusively by the TRANSCRIPT last Saturday, Miss Alice Gemmill, formerly of this county, but now of Philadelphia, and Dr. John Berton Carnett, a well-known surgeon of Philadelphia, were married in I. U. Church, near Worton last Saturday at noon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. S. Hepburn, the rector in the presence of the families and a few close friends. After the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Carnett and the bridal party returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks on Washington avenue where they were entertained at luncheon. They took the afternoon train for a wedding tour and their future home.

Mrs. Alphonzo Rasin has issued announcements of the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth, to Mr. Don Trego Falls on Saturday last, August 31st, in Philadelphia. The bride is a sister of Mr. A. Parks Rasin, cashier of the People's Bank here, and is well-known in the town and county. The editors of the TRANSCRIPT beg to adknowledge the receipt of an announcement from Mrs. Rasin.
