Kennedyville Items.

Our people are wishing for rain, but the drouth continues.

A fire damaging some of the outbuildings of Mr. John Archibald, on Monday morning, about nine o'clock, created quite a good deal of excitement in the community, and by the quick use of the phone a large number of the people of the vicinity were soon on hand, and with a bucket brigade the fire was quickly under control.

Beginning with Monday of this week the farmers of the neighborhood who have been patronizing the Kennedyville creamery, run under the superintendency of Mr. Howard Clendaniel, are now shipping their milk to the Wills, Jones, McEwen Co., of Philadelphia, at $1.40 per hundred pounds. Mr. Clendaniel, former proprietor of the said creamery, is superintending the business at this point for the above named company, and the creamery building is being used for the purpose of packing the milk in one hundred pound cans, furnished by the company. Twenty hundred pounds was the amount of the first shipment, which left Monday afternoon by express, to be placed in a refrigerator car at Massey station. The people of our village, who keep no cows are becoming a little concerned as to where they are to get their milk and butter if all the milk is to be shipped to the great cities.

The above-named firm shipped a very large carload of ice to Kennedyville last week, almost enough to fill the ice house of Mr. Howard Clendaniel, to be used in packing their milk.

A few of the farmers of the county are losing their hogs from cholera, while others are using the serum treatment as a preventive.

The pastor of the M. P. Church, Mr. Mullineaux, was called between ten and eleven o'clock, after he had retired on Wednesday evening of the past week, by a young couple to get married. The groom reported to the parson that he had talked with some one at the phone in the early evening whom he took to be the preacher, and reported that he would be on hand at 9.30. It must have been that some one at some part of the line was "jollying" the young man, as the clergyman reports that he did not get to speak to the contracting party after he was called, as "central" reported he had left the station. However, the young couple—guess who—were sent off from the Kennedyville parsonage near the hour of eleven at night, in the happy bonds of holy matrimony.

Miss Hannah Bell, of Chestertown, spent a few days in Kennedyville and vicinity the latter part of the past week and over Sunday with friends.

Mrs. F. C. Miller, after a visit of three weeks to Frederick county, Pen Mar and Pennsylvania returned home last week.

The many warm friends of Mrs. Elias Othoson regret very much her indisposition, and the necessity for a trip to Baltimore for treatment, but most sincerely hope she may soon be entirely relieved and restored to her usual health.

Services for the M. P. Church next Sunday, Sept. 8th, will be as follows: Sunday School, 9.30; Sermon by the pastor, 10.30, topic, "The King's Fragrant Garments". Song service and 20 minute sermon in the evening, beginning at 7.30. All cordially invited.

Mr. Mullineaux and wife made a trip to Baltimore last Friday, the former calling at the Dr. Everhart Hospital to see Mr. W. M. Clendaniel, who for the past three weeks has been at said institution for treatment. Mr. Clendaniel is doing splendidly, and will be at home with his family sometime this week.

BETTERTON.

The last and closing week of August was one of the best of the season. There have been more guests registered at the hotels and cottages than ever before in previous years. The little "Eastern Sho" resort at the head of the beautiful Chesapeake is a popular abode for Northerners, and when August arrives they come with it and are loath to leave when the month is ended.

The cool weather of the week made the crowd forsake the beach and participate in the dancing, skating, bowling and other indoor amusements. Fishing for perch and rock has been good all the week. Capts. William, Clarence and John Crew have been daily engaged, and have made catches of from 20 to 30 dozen perch and some fine rock each day. Colonel Goode and Israel Rosenfeld, of Baltimore, caught 20 dozen perch and 13 rock on Thursday. Dr. Thomas, of Baltimore, caught a large bunch on Friday.

The Lowrie Hunting and Fishing Club, of Pittsburg, which has been encamped on Stonton camp grounds since August 10, struck camp Saturday and left for their homes.

The lawn of the Maryland House was the scene of a delightful watermelon party on Saturday evening.

Everyone received a good portion of watermelon and thought they had never tasted finer melons, but the folks had scarcely finished eating when the fun began, the young men took an active part in this and wet faces and wet clothes told the tale when all gathered once more in the house.

Those present were: Mrs. William C. Young, Mrs. A. N. Blakeney, Miss Ella Paul, Miss Helen Pfaff, Miss Rosa Peltz, Miss Ella Peltz, Mr. Gilbert Blakeney, Mr. Willie Young, Mr. James A. Clark, Mr. Carl Peltz, Mr. Willie Peltz, Mr. and Mrs. James Yearley, Miss Miriam Yearley, Mr. Edward Yearley, all of Baltimore, Md.; T. Edward Bartlett, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. Harry Clendaniel, of Kennedyville, Md.; Mrs. M. J. Jones, of Earleville, Md.; Mrs. C. F. Jess, Mrs. M. A. Tull, Misses Grace and Myrtle Tull and Mr. George Jess, of Baltimore, Md.

Mr. Edward Bartlett, Gilbert Blakeney and Willie Young were managers of the party.

Galena Items.

Miss Fanny Wood is visiting her sister in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Prettyman and little daughter, Louise, are visiting Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Prettyman, of Harrington, Del.

Misses Edna and Sadie Ford are spending a week with their uncle, Mr. George Ford, of Earleville.

Mr. Price Roe, of Massey spent last week with his sister, Mrs. Andrew Woodall.

Miss Agnes Jarman, of Cecil county, visited Miss Eva McCauley, last week.

A number of people in town are wondering whether the couple who visited the Magistrate's office late Sunday evening really came for a wedding or were out auto riding for fun.

Judging from the number of loaded wagons passing through town, both the tomato cannery, of Lambson, and the corn cannery, of Fredericktown, must be having a good canning season.

Messrs. S. T. and S. G. Caldwell spent Saturday at Chesapeake City.

A large number of young people from town and vicinity went on last Wednesday's excursion to Tolchester Beach.

Mr. Thos. Brockson, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Walter Hadley, returned on Monday to his home in Philadelphia.

Miss May Irving, of Queen Annes county, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Duhamell, of Earleville, spent the week end at the home of their sister, Mrs. Theodore Dempsey.

Perhaps some of the folks who attended the show here on Saturday evening are wondering if it is just wise to pass up such questions as "Who stole the watermelons."

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Framer, of Philadelphia, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Caldwell, near town.

All the little folks and most of the older ones, also, are glad to hear that they have been given two more weeks of vacation.

Misses Virginia and Clara Dukes, of Centreville, visited Mrs. Jno. Merchant last week.

Miss Sara Pennington is visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore this week.

Mr. Wm. Starr who has been quite sick is much better at this writing and able to be about the store again.

Epworth League Cabinet has called a special meeting this week to plan some social times for the young people.

Miss Abbie Wood has been quite ill for the past week, but is better at this time and able to sit up again.

The Stewards and Trustees of Olivet M. E. Church have received word that Rev. Alfred Smith, of Wilmington, will probably occupy the parsonage for the remainder of the conference year and take charge of the work here. Mr. Smith has many friends here and would be gladly welcomed should he accept the charge.

Miss Jennie Bowers has resigned her position as teacher of Lamhson School and accepted a position in Howard county near Annapolis Junction.

A number of our young people met at the home of Miss Lucy Ford last Thursday evening and went in a body to the home of Mrs. Walter Hadley. The occasion was a surprise party to the daughter, Miss Bertie Brockson, Thursday being her twentieth birthday. Every one had a good time and wished the young lady "many more birthdays."

TO TEACH LOVE OF FARM.

Washington Expert Starts Movement in Maryland.

Many grain merchants and local transportation officials gathered in the board room of the Chamber of Commerce Friday afternoon to hear Dr. O. H. Benson, of the Agricultural Department, Washington, tell the advantages to follow keeping boys and girls on the farm.

Dr. Benson is a special agent of the department for the formation of boys' and girls' agricultural clubs throughout the country. He made it clear that the future productiveness of the farms depended on the interest of the present young generation in farm work.

He suggested that the work in Maryland be started in Baltimore county, which is rich enough and, he thought, progressive enough to give early encouragement to beginners in experimental farming. Moreover, he thought the industrial school at Sparks Station, on the Northern Central, would be a good basis for such helpful work as may be needed at the start.

The meeting was called at the instance of the crop improvement committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of which J. Collin Vincent is chairman. The scheme was indorsed by H. S. Lippincott, agricultural agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in a brief address. Letters indorsing it were read from President E. Stanley Gary, of the Board of Trade; George H. Campbell, assistant to President Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and Austin Gallagher, industrial agent of the Western Maryland Railway.

Traffic Manager Herbert Sheridan, of the Chamber of Commerce, says immediate steps will be taken to put the views of Dr. Benson into effect in Maryland.
