War Department, July 10, 1810.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT separate proposals will be received at the office of the Secretary for the Department of War, until 12 o'clock at noon of the first Monday in October next, for the supply of all rations that may be required for the use of the United States, from the first day of June 1811 inclusive, to the first day of June 1812, within the states, territories and districts following, viz.

1st. At Niagara, Detroit, Michilimackinac, Fort Wayne, Chicago and in their immediate vicinities, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched, or recruited, within the territory of Michigan.

2d. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched, or recruited within the states of Kentucky and Tennessee.

3d. At Belle Fontaine, Fort Osage and Belle Vue and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Ohio and the Illinois, Indiana and Louisiana territories, except Fort Wayne and Chikago and their immediate vicinities.

4th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the Mississippi and Orleans territories.

Proposals will be received at the same time for supplying rations within the districts aforesaid, for two years, commencing on the first day of June, 1811.

5th. At any place or places where troop are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the district of Maine and state of New Hampshire.

6th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Vermont.

7th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Massachusetts, the town of Springfield excepted.

8th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the states of Connecticut and Rhode Island.

9th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of N. York, Niagara and its dependencies excepted.

10th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of New Jersey.

11th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Pennsylvania.

12th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the states of Maryland, Delaware, and the District of Columbia.

13th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of Virginia.

14th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of North Carolina.

15th. At any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the state of South Carolina.

16th. At Ocmulgee Old Fields, and at any place or places where troops are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the limits of the state of Georgia.

17th. Proposals will also be received as aforesaid, for the supply of all rations which may be required by the United States, for the troops which are or may be stationed, marched, or recruited within the town of Springfield in the state of Massachusetts: and for the armorers and other persons employed in the United States armory at that place, from the 1st day of June 1811, inclusive, to the 1st day of June 1812.

A ration to consist of one pound and one quarter of beef, or three quarters of a pound of pork, eighteen ounces of bread or flour, one gill of rum, whiskey or brandy, and at the rate of two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap, and one pound and a half of candles to every hundred rations. The prices of the several component parts of the ration shall be specified, but the United States reserve the right of making such alterations in the price of the component parts of the ration aforesaid as shall make the price of each part thereof bear a just proportion to the proposed price of the whole ration. The rations to be furnished in such quantities, that there shall at all times, during the term of the proposed contract, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimackinac, Detroit, Fort Osage and Belle Vue, Chikago, for six months in advance; and at each of the ports on the western waters, for at least three months in advance, of good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all & every of the commandants of fortified places or posts, to call for at seasons when the same can be transported, or at any time in case of urgency, such supplies of like provisions in advance as in the discretion of the commandant shall be deemed proper.

It is understood that the contractor is to be at the expence and risk of issuing the supplies to the troops; and that all losses sustained by the depredations of the enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States shall be paid by the United States at the price of the articles captured or destroyed as aforesaid, on the deposition of two or more persons of creditable characters, and the certificate of a commissioned officer, stating the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.

The privilege is understood to be reserved to the United States, of requiring that none of the supplies, which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts, shall be issued, until the supplies which have been or may be furnished under the contracts now in force, have been consumed; and that a supply in advance may be always required at any of the fixed posts on the sea board, or Indian frontier, not exceeding three months.

W. EUSTIS.

The Editors of the newspapers who are authorised to publish the laws of the United States are requested to publish the foregoing advertisement twice a week for four successive weeks.

July 17, 1810.

In Queen-Ann's County Court,

May Term, 1810.

ON application of Samuel Dixon, of Queen Ann's county, by petition in writing to the judges of Queen Ann's county court, praying the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplementary acts thereto, on the terms mentioned in said acts; a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said acts, being annexed to his said petition, and the said Samuel Dixon being brought into court by the sheriff, and having satisfied the said court by competent testimony, that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland, immediately preceding the time of his application; having also stated in his said petition, that he is now in actual confinement, and not on account of any breach of the peace, or for the non-payment of any fine or penalty for the breach of the laws of this state, or of the United States; and having produced the certificate of the sheriff of Queen Ann's county, to that effect—and having prayed to be discharged from confinement on the terms prescribed in the said acts, and he having also given bond, with security approved of by the said court, as directed by the said acts of assembly, for his personal appearance in Queen Ann's county court, before the judges thereof, in Centreville, on the Saturday next after the third Monday of October next, and at such other time or times as the said court shall appoint, to answer such allegations as may be made against him by his creditors relative to his said application, and he having taken the oath directed by the said act, to deliver up all his property for the benefit of his creditors.—It is therefore hereby adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said Samuel Dixon be discharged from his confinement aforesaid, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed in the town of Easton, three months before the said Saturday next after the third Monday of October next, being the day appointed by the said court, and continued four successive weeks, and also by causing a copy hereof to be set up at the court house door of the county aforesaid, three months before the said day, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the time and place aforesaid, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon of the same day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, or to shew cause if any they have, why the said Sam'l. Dixon should not have the benefit of the said acts.—A true copy.

Attest, SAML. T. WRIGHT, Clk.
of Queen Ann's county court.

Centreville, June 20, 1810. 4

Notice is hereby given,

To all my Creditors,

TO meet at Centreville, on the first Saturday after the third Monday of October term next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee, and to propose interrogatories.

SAMUEL DIXON.

July 17, 1810. 4

Notice.

ON application made to me the subscriber, one of the associate judges of the fourth judicial district, in the recess of Caroline county court, by William Boon, of the said county, now in actual imprisonment for debt, by his petition in writing, praying the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto; a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by competent testimony, that he has resided for two years last past in the state of Maryland, and he having given sufficient security for his appearance in Caroline county court, before the judges thereof, on the Saturday next after the second Monday in October, at the court house in the town of Denton, to answer such allegations as may be made against him relative to his said application, and having taken the oath directed by the act of assembly, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five—I do therefore order and adjudge, that the said William Boon be discharged from his imprisonment aforesaid, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers in the town of Easton, three months before the day appointed as aforesaid, and continued for four successive weeks, and also a copy thereof to be set up at the court house, and a copy at one of the taverns at Denton, three months before the said day, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court at the time and place aforesaid, between the hours of nine in the morning and two in the afternoon of the same day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for the benefit of the said acts of assembly. Given under my hand this 5th day of April, anno domini 1810.

JOHN DONE.

True copy.

THOS. RICHARDSON, Clk.

Talbot County, to wit:

I HEREBY certify that Woolman Porter of said county, brought before me (as a stray, trespassing on his enclosures) a Bay Gelding, about eleven years old, and about fourteen hands high—has two small spots on each side of his back, supposed to have been made by a saddle; his mane hogg'd, and his tail bob'd, and two old shoes on his two fore feet.——Given under hand of me, one of the Justices of the Peace, in and for said county.

PETER DENNY.

The owner of said horse is desired to prove his property, pay charges, and take him away.

WOOLMAN PORTER.

July 17, 1810. 3q

In Queen Ann's County Court,

May Term, 1810.

ON application of William Nelson, of Queen Ann's county, by petition in writing, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said William Nelson having satisfied the court by competent testimony, that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland, immediately preceding the time of his application; having also stated in his petition, that he is now in actual confinement, and not on account of any breach of the peace, or for the non-payment of any fine or penalty for the breach of the laws of this state, or of the United States; and having produced the certificate of the sheriff of Queen Ann's county to that effect, and having prayed to be discharged from confinement on the terms prescribed in the said acts, and he having also given security for his personal appearance at the next county court, to answer any allegations that may be made against him by his creditors—It is hereby adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said William Nelson be discharged from confinement, and by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Baltimore Evening Post, Easton Star, and also setting up a copy at the court house door of this county, once a week for four weeks successively, three months prior to the first Saturday of October term next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the court house in Centreville, at twelve o'clock of the said day for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and shew cause, if any they have, why the said William Nelson should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors.—Attest,

SAML. T. WRIGHT, Clk.
Queen Ann's county court.

July 17, 1810. 4—83q

Notice.

ON application made to me the subscriber, an associate Judge of the fourth judicial district of Maryland, in the recess of Dorchester county court, by Thomas Hicks, of the said county, now in actual imprisonment for debt, praying the benefit of the act of assembly, for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain the same, being annexed to his petition, and I being satisfied by competent testimony, that he has resided for two years last past, in the state of Maryland, and he having given sufficient security for his appearance in Dorchester county court, before the Judges thereof, on the Saturday next, after the fourth Monday in October next, at the court house in the Town of Cambridge, to answer such allegations as may be made against him relative to his said application, and having taken the oath directed by the act of assembly, entitled, "an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed November session, eighteen hundred and five. I do therefore order and adjudge that the said Thomas Hicks be discharged from his imprisonment aforesaid, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers in the city of Baltimore, in one such paper at Easton, and one such paper at Dover or Wilmington, in the state of Delaware, the said notice to be published three months before the time as above appointed, and to be continued in each of the said papers four successive weeks, and also by having a copy set up at the court house door in Cambridge, in three months before the day appointed, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the time and place aforesaid, between the hours of ten in the morning, and two in the afternoon of the same day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, or to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Thomas Hicks should not have the benefit of the said acts of assembly. Given under my hand this third day of January, Anno Domini 1810.

JOHN DONE.

True copy, Test, H. DICKINSON, Clk.

July 17. 1810. 4—82q

Queen Ann's County, to wit:

ON application to me in writing, as chief judge of the second judicial district of Maryland, by James O'Bryan, of Queen Ann's county, in the recess of Queen Ann's county court, praying the benefit of the act of assembly, passed November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and the supplements thereto, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can at present ascertain them, being annexed to his petition—and being satisfied by competent testimony that he has resided within the State of Maryland the two years preceding his application—and being also satisfied that the said James O'Bryan is actually confined for debt only; I do hereby order that the body of the said James O'Bryan be discharged from imprisonment, and that he appear before Queen Ann's county court on the first Saturday of October term next, to answer such interrogatories as may be propounded to him by his creditors, and also to deliver up his property to a trustee, for the benefit of his creditors. And I do further order that the said James O'Bryan, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star, once a week for four weeks successively, give three months previous notice to his creditors to appear before Queen Ann's county court, on the first Saturday of October term next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit. Given under my hand this 28th day of April, 1810.

RD. T. EARLE.

July 17, 1810. 4

In Queen Ann's County Court,

May Term, 1810.

ON application of George W. Riley, of Queen Ann's county, by petition in writing to the judges of Queen Ann's county court, praying the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplementary acts thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts; a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said acts, being annexed to his said petition, and the said George W. Riley being brought into court here by the sheriff on a writ of habeas corpus issued at his instance by order of the said court for that purpose, and having satisfied the said court by competent testimony, that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland, immediately preceding the time of his application; having also stated in his said petition that he is now in actual confinement, and not on account of any breach of the peace, or for the non-payment of any fine or penalty for the breach of the laws of this state, or of the United States, and having produced the certificate of the sheriff of Queen Ann's county to that effect, and having prayed to be discharged from confinement on the terms prescribed in the said acts—and he having also given bond with sufficient security, as directed by the said act of assembly, for his personal appearance in Queen Ann's county court, before the judges thereof, at Centreville, on the first Saturday next after the third Monday of October next, and at such other time or times as the said court shall appoint, to answer such allegations as may be made against him by his creditors relative to his said application, and he having taken in open court, the oath directed by the said act, to deliver up all his property for the benefit of his creditors, &c.—It is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said George W. Riley be discharged from his confinement aforesaid, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspaper printed in the town of Easton, three months before the said first Saturday next after the third Monday of October next, being the day appointed by the said court, and continued four successive weeks, and also by causing a copy hereof to be set up at the court house door of the said county, three months before the said day, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the time and place aforesaid, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon of the same day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, or to shew cause, if any they have, why the said George W. Riley should not have the benefit of the said acts.

A true copy. Attest,

SAML. T. WRIGHT, Clk.
of Queen Ann's county court.

Centreville, June 20, 1810. 4

Notice is hereby given,

To all my Creditors,

TO meet at Centreville on the first Saturday after the third Monday of October Term next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee, and to propose interrogatories.

GEORGE W. RILEY.

July 17, 1810. 4

Queen Ann's County, ss.

ON application to me the subscriber, as one of the associate judges of the second judicial district of the State of Maryland, in the recess of Queen Ann's county court, by James Nicholson, of said county, praying the benefit of the several acts of Assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition: having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided for two years last past in the State of Maryland, and having given sufficient security for his appearance in Queen Ann's county court, at October term next, to answer such allegations as may be made against him by his creditors; and he having taken the oath directed by the act of assembly, entitled an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805—and it being certified to me that the said James Nicholson is now in actual imprisonment for debt only, I do therefore order and adjudge that the said James Nicholson be discharged from his imprisonment aforesaid, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star for three months before the twentieth day of October next, and continued therein four successive weeks, and also by causing a copy thereof to be set up at the court house door, and at the door of one of the taverns in Centreville, three months before the said day, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the day aforesaid, between the hours of ten o'clock in the morning and two in the afternoon, to recommend a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Nicholson should not have the benefit of the said acts. Given from under my hand this 14th day of July, 1810.

THO. WORRELL.

July 17. 1810. 4q

Notice.

WHEREAS my wife Margaret Kenton, has without any just cause or provocation, eloped from my bed and board, this is therefore to forwarn all person from harbouring or trusting her on my account, as I am determined from this date to pay no debts of her contracting.

SOLOMON KENTON.

July 7, (17) 1810. 3

Blanks for sale at this Office.

Notice.

The Subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he has taken that healthy situated

TAVERN HOUSE,

WHICH has been considerably enlarged, formerly occupied by James Elliott, deceased, in Lewes Town, Sussex county, State of Delaware; where he intends keeping a house of public entertainment for those gentlemen and ladies who may please to favour him with their custom.

A Bathing House, with separate apartments, will be prepared by the first of June, for the accommodation of such as may come to this place, in the unhealthy season, for the recovery or preservation of their health. As a speedy passage from Lewes to Philadelphia is offered once a week, the subscriber solicits the attention of such gentlemen and ladies as may be going thither or returning to this place—they may depend on the best accommodations.

Good provender will be provided, and great care taken of horses—He flatters himself that little more need be said, as he will exert himself to give general satisfaction to all who may call on him.

NATHAN HUFF.

July 17, 1810. 3

March Term, 1810.

ON application to the judges of Dorchester county court by Kerby Hurley, of the county aforesaid, by petition in writing, praying the benefit of the act of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplementary acts thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said acts, being annexed to his petition,; and the said court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said Kirby Hurley has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland—It is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said Kirby Hurley, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, and one in the town of Easton, three months before Saturday the third of November next, and to be continued in the said papers for four successive weeks, and also by setting up like notice at the court house door three months before the said day, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said day, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the court house in the said county, on the said day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to answer interrogatories which his creditors may propose to him; the said Kirby Hurley then and there complying with the requisites of the said acts of assembly. 4

H. DICKINSON, Clk D. C. C.

Notice.

ON application to the judges of Dorchester county court, by James Barkley, of the county aforesaid, by petition in writing, praying the benefit of the act of the general assembly of Maryland, for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, and of the supplementary acts thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said acts being annexed to his petition; and the said court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said James Barkley has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland—It is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said James Barkley, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, and one in the town of Easton, three months before Saturday, the third day of November next, and to be continued in the said papers for six successive weeks, and also by setting up like notice at the court house door three months before the said day, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the court house in the county aforesaid, on the said day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to answer interrogatories which his creditors may propose to him, the said James Barkley then and there complying with the directions of said acts of assembly.—True copy,

H. DICKINSON, Clk.

July 17, 1810. 6q

Talbot County,

May Term, 1810.

ON application of Charles Gibson, of Talbot county, by petition in writing, praying the benefit of the act of assembly, passed at November session, 1805, entitled "an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts, a schedule of his property, a list of his creditors, and a list of debts due to him, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said Charles Gibson having satisfied the said court, that he has resided two years within the State of Maryland, immediately preceding the time of his application, and having also stated in his petition, that he is in actual confinement, and having prayed to be discharged from confinement, on the terms prescribed in the said acts. It is hereby adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said Charles Gibson be discharged from confinement, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed in the Town of Easton, once a week for four weeks successively, at least three months before the first Saturday of the next November Term, of this court, to give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the court house in Easton, for the purpose of recommmending a Trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Charles Gibson should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors.

Test,

J. LOOCKERMAN, Clk of Talbot county court.

July 17, 1810. 4