NEW WORLD'S RECORD.

Ninteen Marks Lowered by Grand Circuit Stars the Past Season.

Nineteen new world's trotting and pacing records were established and new marks hung up for one year's winnings for both a trotter and a pacer in the 39th Grand Circuit season of racing, which closed last week at Lexington. Baden established a new mark among trotters and Joe Patchen II proved himself the greatest money-winning pacer in the game's history.

The season was peculiar in that the horses were slow in coming to their speed. Three-fourths of the season had elapsed before the toppling of records began, and then record-breaking stunts were daily occurrences. Of the 19 new records nine were made during the Columbus meeting, six at Lexington, three at Syracuse and one at Monroe, the latter a half-mile track. The records follow:

HURRAH FOR MARYLAND!

Hurrah for Maryland, isn't she fine,
With her head in the clouds and her feet in the brine;
Rolling up thousands for Wilson as though
She'd never loved any but a Democratic beau.
But she showed her independence and hatred of bosses
By taking Mr. Goldsborough, while they took their losses.
She's sound to the heart and she's sweet to the core,
And we'll love her for all time to come as of yore.
Hurrah for Maryland, isn't she sweet,
With the clouds round her head and the spray a her feet;
And all in between she's as sweet as a nut—
Come in, everybody, the door's never shut—
Hustle, other States, get into line,
Hurrah for Maryland, isn't she fine?

BELLE BAPLES MORRIS.

Report From Sassafras Grange

A well-attended and interesting meeting of the Sassafras Grange was held Monday evening, Nov. 11. Two new members were received at this meeting. The topics discussed were:

"What Will Best Encourage the Growth of Our Grange?"

"Are the Granges of This County Doing All That is Possible in the Co-Operative Production and Selling of Farm Products?"

"Are Our Granges Doing All That is Possible in the Way of Co-Operative Buying?"

"Some Needed Improvements in the Rural Schools?"

Our teacher, Miss Mabel Price, read a very able paper on this subject. The other subjects were discussed by Mr. Rosin, Mr. Anthony Johnson, Mr. Gibbs, Mr. R. B. Johnson and others.

The conclusions reached were that the needs of the pupils in the rural schools are not properly recognized and provided for.

That while wheat and corn are the principal crops raised, our granges cannot do much in the way of co-operative selling, but that they might do more co-operative buying, extending their operations in this line to include all farm supplies.

Applications for membership were received from five persons. We have an earnest, intelligent body of grangers, and there is no reason why we should not grow in size and usefulness.

BELLE CAPES MORRIS,
Lecturer Sassafras Grange.

Kennedyville Items.

Corn on the cob is being shipped by the carload from our station.

There has been a large crop of keifer pears in this community, but the sale is dull, only about seven cents per basket.

Coal in Kennedyville is very scarce and hard to get by the coal dealers.

A very large number attended the Grange meeting Monday evening. Refreshments were served at the close of the business session, and a good social time was the experience of the large number of young people present. Next Monday evening, following the regular routine of business there wil lbe a debate on the topic, "Resolved that old maids are of greater benefit to a community than old bachelors." Open doors to all grangers. Three debaters on each side. Do not miss this treat.

Mr. Lawrence McDaniel, of Wilmington, Del., was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Jewell from Saturday o Sunday evening, and attended Sunday school and public service at the M. P. Church Sunday morning.

"World's Temperance Day" was observed in the Sunday school and C. E. services of last Sunday, with a great deal of interest and enthusiasm.

Services for the Methodist Protestant Church for next Sunday, 17th, are as follows: Sunday school 9.30 A. M., John Medders Superintendent. Topic, "The Great Question." St. Mark, 3:27-38, to 9:1. Sermon by the pastor at 10.30, Topic, "Lost Power. In the evening at 7 o'clock, Rev. J. S. Bowers, D. D., will preach.
