CHURCH WORK.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian churches as follows: Westminster at 10.30 A. M., Grace at 3 P. M., Worton at 7.45 P. M., Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 A. M. at Worton.

The 75th anniversary of the founding of the Westminster Methodist Protestant Church has been observed during the week with special and interesting services. Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, a former pastor of this prosperous charge, preached on Tuesday evening. Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield is the present pastor of the church, and he is popular with his people and is doing an excellent work.

A Thanksgiving service in charge of Miss Mary Knight, was held in the Christian Endeavor meeting in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. Prof. Galen Vansant, principal of the Church Hill Academy, delivered a splendid talk on the subject "Gratitude."

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Dec. 1st as follows: 10.30 A. M. preaching by the pastor, subject: "The Man With the Upward Look;" 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and pastor's bible class; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service followed by short sermon by the pastor, subject: "Abraham" the first in the series of sermon on Old Testament Characters.—All invited.

Union Thanksgiving services were held by the two Methodist Churches on Thursday morning in Christ M. P. Church. Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, preached a most thoughtful and able sermon.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Bowers, president of the Maryland Conference on the occasion of his official visit to Wesley Chapel charge two weeks ago, urged the congregation to remove the church and parsonage property to the large and growing town of Rock Hall, where he believes there is a wider field of usefulness, and much larger opportunities for advancing the church interests.

Rev. Mr. Moore will commence extra meetings Sunday. We trust he may have a glorious revival, and the people will co-operate with him and so make his work brighter.

There will be special services in the Sunday School at St. James M. P. Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning and Rev. George M. Clayton, of Washington, D. C., will preach at eleven A. M. There will be no services at Lynch in the afternoon.

Salem M. E. Church—preaching 10.30 Dec. 1, by Rev. R. Watt, D. D. Quarterly conference at Worton Nov. 30 at 3 P. M.

Union M. E. Church of Worton—preaching 3 P. M. Dec. 1.

Dr. T. Manley Sharpe, who resigned the rectorship of St. Paul's some weeks ago to accept the Church Hill work, left on Tuesday with his family for his new charge.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

GREENWOD—JACOBS.

Miss Carrie Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Jacobs, of Aberdeen, was married to Mr. Clarence Alfred Greenwood, of Townsend, Del., on Tuesday evening by Rev. A. J. Gill in the Aberdeen M. E. Church. The ushers were Charles H. and W. Earle Jacobs, brothers of the bride; Granville V. Pyle and Robert Leslie Hughes, all of Aberdeen. A reception followed the ceremony after which the bride and groom left for a trip north. They will reside in Townsend, Del.

Peninsula Wins at New York Land Show.

At the American Land and Irrigation Exposition now being held in New York City, the booth exhibit of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which specialized in Peninsula products, was awarded first prize. The booth was very artistically arranged and contained a fine display of the various fruits, vegetables, grain, cotton and other products for which this section is daily becoming more noted. The sweet potato exhibit was particularly fine and received honorable mention. The booth was surmounted by a huge imitation pumpkin, weighing three tons' and made a very affective and striking advertisement of the incomparable resources of our Peninsula.

The exposition was generally representative—most of the States, Insular Possessions and the Railroads being exhibitors. New York and New Jersey had effective State exhibits, the Canadian Pacific Railway had a notable display, as also had the Western Shore of Maryland. The Exposition is located in 71st Regiment Armory, 34th street and 4th avenue, is being well patronized and has aroused much favorable comment. It will close December 2nd.

A TERRIFIC HAIL STORM.

Pall Hangs Over Wilmington and Torrents of Rain Fall.

A terrific storm broke over Wilmington at 8 o'clock Sunday morning and many persons were badly scared. The air became still and the day was turned into night, when with a vivid flash and a terrible clap of thunder the storm broke.

Many were still in bed and, seeing the lightning thought from the roll of thunder that the Du Pont Powder Mills along the Brandywine had gone up. Houses were shaken. Rain came down in torrents and quickly turned to hail. To add to the din the fire alarm system was struck by lightning and the fire bells in engine houses in the southern part of the city began to ring. The storm continued for two hours and did considerable damage in the country surrounding Wilmington.
