In the Foreground of Successful Business

Why? Because it heads the list of business-getters; it wins and holds. Further, it multiplies customers, prospects and selling time; minimizes selling expense, and is "on the job" every minute of your working day. It is as great a factor as you make it. If you haven't a Bell Telephone, give immediate thought to this essential business requisite.

John M. South, photographer, Imperial Hotel, Chestertown, Md., says; "I suffered a great deal from my back and kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had pains through my sides and back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Toulson's Drug Store and they gave me entire relief. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of the strongest praise."

CHURCH WORK.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian churches as follows: Westminster at 10.30 A. M., Grace at 3 P. M., Worton at 7.45 P. M., Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 A. M. at Worton.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday and sermons by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M.; Sabbath school 2.30 P. M., missionary day in Sunday school. Junior's meeting at 6 o'clock. Christian Endeavor service at 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday at 7.30 o'clock.

Chestertown M. E. Church Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D. pastor: Services next Sunday, Dec. 8th as follows: 10.30 A. M. preaching by the pastor; subject: "What is Christ to Me?"; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and pastor's bible class; 7.00 P. M., Epworth League Song Service, followed by short sermon by the pastor, subject "Jacob"; second in series of sermons on Old Testament Characters. All invited.

Rev. G. M. Clayton, who is traveling the Maryland District in the interest of the Park Road Church in Washington, D. C., received a contribution of $50 at St. James on Sunday morning and about $40 in Chestertown in the evening.

Rev. George M. Clayton, pastor of Park Road Methodist Protestant Church, Washington, D. C., preached a most inspiring sermon in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. Mr. Clayton is visiting the more important charges in the conference in the interest of the development of the new work in Washington of which he is in charge. He preached at St. James in the morning.

The Young Men's Club, of Christ M. P. Church was very pleasantly entertained at the home of the president, Mr. W. Robert Huey, yesterday evening.

Rev. Walter B. Stehl, former rector of St. Paul's P. E. Church, Centreville, assumed his new duties as rector of Holy Innocents P. E. Church, Eden and Chase streets, Baltimore, on Sunday. Mr. Stehl succeeds Rev. George Dame, who resigned several months ago.

A Fine Entertainment.

The entertainment given in Firemen's Hall last Tuesday evening by Miss Gay Zenola MacLaren for the benefit of the Public Library was attended by a representative audience and the presentation of "The Governor's Lady" was charmingly done. Miss MacLaren is a most forceful portrayer of human nature, and in each of the roles she assumed in the interpretation of the play she imparted life and pathos to her characters. The Governor's Lady is not only a touching discription of woman's love and devotion under the most trying circumstances, but it is a masterly attempt to portray the corruption in politics. Miss MacLaren emphasized these characteristics of the play in a most charming manner, and her audience was delighted. She will be well-received whenever she comes to Chestertown. The Chestertown Orchestra furnished splendid music. Miss MacLaren remained in Chestertown over Wednesday, and in the evening gave a a recital of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" to a good audience in the spacious hall at the home of Mrs. M. P. Finley on Front street.

Galena Odd Fellows Hold Notable Event.

The following interesting article was unavoidedly crowded out of our last issue:

On last Tuesday evening and night Kent Lodge No. 74, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of Galena, admitted into their lodge a class of twenty or more of the best citizens of Kent county. It was an event worthy of notice because it means much in bringing men of good character and ability together for the common good. They had as visitors the degree staff of Monumental Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., of Baltimore, who, in an excellent manner, conferred the initiatory and three degrees upon their candidates. The work was done in full paraphernalia and great credit is due to Brother A. J. Abrams, Jr., the captain, for the ability displayed by the staff. The visitors were met at Fredericktown by a committee of Kent Lodge and escorted to Galena. Among those who were present to represent the Grand Lodge of Maryland were S. Carl Cooling, of Havre de Grace, the Special District Deputy Grand Master of the District of which Kent Lodge is a component part, J. F. Plummer, Grand Treasurer, William A. Jones, Grand Secretary, George Horisberg, Special District Deputy Grand Master, and others. The event caused great enthusiasm among the Odd Fellows of Galena, and they promise greater things in the future.

Telephone Rates in Controversy.

Some time ago the Cambridge Board of Trade filed a complaint against the Diamond State Telephone Company, alleging discrimination in rates and asking a revision of them by the Public Service Commission.

At the request of the Commission, the C. and P. Telephone Company (which has absorbed the Diamond State Company) has submitted a plan for a revision of rates over the entire Eastern Shore of Maryland; and this plan the Commission desires to lay before the citizens of the Eastern Shore counties, in order to obtain from them an expression of opinion on the Telephone Company's proposal.

The position of the Telephone Company is, that in order to afford the patrons of the Company the best service at a price which will yield the Company a reasonable profit, it will be necessary to establish and maintain a uniform rate of $24 per annum for single line residences and $36 for single line places of business, $18 for multi-party residences and $24 for multiparty places of business.

Mr. Jackson Senator.

As predicted by the TRANSCRIPT last week, Governor Goldsborough on Friday appointed Mr. William P. Jackson, his strongest political and personal friend, United States Senator, to succeed the late Senator Isidor Rayner. Here is Mr. Jackson at a glance:

Born in Salisbury, Md., January 11, 1868.

Son of William H. and Arabella (Humphreys) Jackson.

Educated in county public schools; later attended school in Dover, Del.

First employed in his father's lumber mills at 35 cents a day.

Admitted to the firm of E. E. Jackson & Co. in 1887.

Formed partnership with father in 1889 and was elected secretary and treasurer of Jackson Bros. in 1893.

Married February 10, 1890, Miss Sallie McCombs, of Havre de Grace, who died later, and on April 25, 1900, Miss Katherine Shelmerdine, of Philadelphia.

Made political debut in 1908 as national committeeman.

One of the wealthiest and most successsul business men on the Eastern Shore and a liberal contributor to Republican campaigns.
