VOL. LI—NO. 31. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1912. $1.00 PER ANNUM

NATIONAL & STATE BANKS

ONE of the most vital and important regulations of the National Banking Law is that which controls what is known as the "LEGAL RESERVE." It requires that 15 PER CENT. OF ALL DEPOSITS shall be kept in the vaults of National Banks or in the hands of approved reserve agents.

The following statement of the deposits of three banks of Chestertown shows what reserves these banks held at the time of their last sworn statement, November 26th, 1912:

	Deposits.	15% Reserve.	Reserve Held.	Per Cent.
Third National.....	$668,397.18	$100,259.57	$118,079.44	over 17½ %
Chestertown Bank..	413,947.13	62,092.10	38,868.74	9½ %
Kent Savings "	356,097.42	53,414.61	10,627.97	3 %

After reading the SWORN STATEMENTS published last week, and the above exhibit which do you think is the STRONGEST and SAFEST bank in which to transact your banking business? The THIRD NATIONAL BANK cannot make as much money for its stockholders by adopting the policy of keeping on hand such a large RESERVE, but we KNOW it is better banking. Over $100,000 on hand with which to meet immediate demands. Think of the above while doing your banking. Your business solicited. Interest paid on all Savings Deposits.

Very respectfully,

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

of Chestertown, Md.

CANDIDATE FOR POSTOFFICE

I desire to announce to my friends and the public generally that I am a candidate for Postmaster at Chestertown, and ask for the support of all patrons of the office.

After driving Detroiter 3500 miles over all sorts of roads, I recommend it to any one desiring the purchase of an Automobile. It is by far the leading $900 car in America to-day—possessing features only found on $1200 to $1500 machines. After using machines for 5 years, I am in a position to know when I see a dependable, desirable car, and the "Detroiter" is just that car. You get an Automobile in quality, style and motoring qualities when you get a "Detroiter."

Shad For Xmas Dinner.

To Captain William C. Eliason, of the Tolchester Company, probably was accorded the distinction of having as part of his Yuletide dinner the first shad of the season from the Chesapeake.

Months ahead of its brethren, the shad was making its way up the bay Saturday placid in its solitude, when it arrived off Tolchester Beach. There its premature journeying ended, for it was caught sight of in the water and promptly landed.

Superintendent Noland, of the beach, thought it would make an acceptable addition to the Christmas larder, so he sent it to Captain Eliason, with the compliments of the season.

REAL CHRISTMAS GIVING

Verse and song, story and legend, brush and chisel, all unite in making the institution of Christmas Day the most human and intimate memorial. It is a day not only of sacred memories, but of rejoicing, of gift-giving, of merry-making for the young, of peace for the old and good-will for all. To give because of a joy to express—preserves all the romance and sentiment which has clustered about the Christmastide for so many generations—to give that which has intrinsic beauty, which bears actual relation to the needs of life, and serves definite purpose—expresses the true spirit of this beautiful old festival.

Gifts, such as these, are shown by The Ladies' Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach, and prices are "rock bottom," so that a small sum of money goes a long way. Having neither heavy rents nor enormous operating expenses to add to initial costs, there is a saving of fully one-half to one-third on gifts purchased at this delightful place to shop.

BANK NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to the stockholders of the THIRD NATIONAL BANK OF CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, that the regular ANNUAL MEETING for the election of a Board of Directors for the ensuing year, will be held at their banking house in Chestertown, on TUESDAY, JANUARY 14th, 1913, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 2 P. M.

d7-5t. W. B. COPPER, Cashier.

AN EXPLANATION.

During the very heavy gale, Thursday morning, Dec. 12th, 1912, the new Hay Barrack on Arcadia farm, tenanted by Mr. Howard Rees, blew over. It was mechanically constructed by Mr. Azariah M. Kendall, Fairlee, and it was not any fault of his, that the building went over. I make this explanation in justice to Mr. Kendall whom I regard as a very competent builder.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

COUNCILL—REED.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Reed was the scene of a very pretty wedding Xmas day at high noon, when their eldest daughter, Ollie Warfield, became the bride of J. Herbert Councill, of Wilmington, Del. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Arters, of Portland, Maine, under an arch made of holly and mistletoe. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Ruth Lambert. The parlor was decorated with holly, mistletoe and pot flowers. The bride was attired in a handsome blue tailor-made traveling suit with large black picture hat and carried pink carnations tied with white ribbon. The groom wore conventional black. The bride's maid, a sister of the bride, Miss Naomi Reed, looked lovely in a white hand embroidered voile with pink sash and carried pink carnations tied with pink ribbon. A cousin of the bride, Mr. Clarence Newcomb, was best man. The wedding breadfast was served at 10 o'clock to the immediate family and a few friends. After the ceremony refreshments were served, then the bride and groom left on the afternoon train for Baltimore and Washington amid a shower of rice. They will return sometime next week to their home at 8th and Poplar streets, Wilmington, Del.

BURGESS—WOOD.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wood, of Piney Neck, was the scene of a pretty home wedding on Xmas morning, when their attractive and popular daughter, Rilla, was married to Mr. James V. Burgess, one of Kent's most highly esteemed young men. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James L. Elderdice, an uncle of the bride. The bride wore a very becoming suit of blue serge with hat and gloves to match. The groom wore the conventional black. Miss Alice Wood, a sister of the bride, most artistically played the wedding march on the piano. Only a few of the relatives and friends of the bride and groom were invited, and no cards were issued. An early breakfast was served and refreshments of all kinds were in abundance. The happy couple took the steamer for Baltimore, and thence by train to Washington, D. C., to spend their honeymoon. They will be back to their cozy home in Piney Neck on Saturday, December 28th, where they will be pleased to receive their many friends. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Elderdice, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Maslin, Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzpatrick, their daughter, Annie, and her husband, of Baltimore, and Mr. D. W. Crosby, who all wished the bride and groom long, happy and prosperous lives.

PIPPIN—VANSANT.

The wedding of Miss Mary A. Vansant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. W. Vansant, and Mr. Fred W. D. Pippin, both of Kent county, was quietly solomnized at Church Hill Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, Rev. W. C. Smith officiating. The bride was very becomingly attired in a tailor-made suit of blue serge with large black hat. The groom wore the conventional black. They will leave centreville Friday morning for Baltimore and Washington. When they return they will reside at Lankford, Kent county, where the groom is engaged in farming.
