THE UNION TAVERN.

THE subscriber has opened a Public House at Easton, in those commodious buildings lately erected at the corner of Washington and Goldsborough streets He solicits public patronage, and invites the attention as well of the gentlemen of Talbot, whose business or pleasure may call them to town, as of all travellers.

No exertions shall be wanting on the part of the subscriber for the accommodation of those who may favor him with their calls; and he trusts that the assurance, which, he flatters himself, the character he has sometime maintained in the line of his business must afford, will be amply fulfilled by his unremitted endeavors to please and gratify his customers.

Dinners or suppers will be prepared for select parties of gentlemen, on the shortest notice, and in private apartments.

Particular attention will be paid by the subscriber to the accommodation of Horses: the extensive Stables belonging to his establishment, and the well-tried care of his servants, authorise him to give this assurance.
