The Transcript.

WHICH is the worse, Senator Smith's vote for Lorimer, or his appointment of Schoenewolf, keeper of a dive at Pine and Raborg streets, Baltimore, to a position as doorkeeper in the United States Senate? Either is a disgraceful reflection upon the Senate of our country.

THE Beck organ won't let us be good when we want to be. Just as soon as we tell the truth as per Senator Smith's part in the passage of the Haman Oyster Law, they accuse us of lying and misrepresentation. How much longer are they going to ring the charges on those two hackneyed terms—just as long as we continue to tell the truth, you bet.

THE Beck Organ says that Senator Smith had no control over the delegates from his own (Worcester) county, when it came to their action in the Legislature on questions affecting the people's welfare. If the TRANSCRIPT had said such a thing as that the Beck Organ would have said it is a lie, and a willful effort to misrepresent. Excuse us, while we laugh. Poor Senator Smith has become a weakling since he has announced his candidacy for re-election to the Senate, and he is a patron Saint in the eyes of the Beck Organ, even if he did appoint Schoenewolf, of the Baltimore Red Light District, to a doorkeeper's job in the United States Senate.

The candidacy of Hon. Isaac Lobe Staus has met with so much encouragement in Kent that some people want to keep him out of the county. We are glad Kent county does not belong to any one man and that any candidate is free to come and go as often as he desires. Mr. Straus visited Queen Anne's and Kent the past week.—Kent News of Saturday.

Now you know that Straus is in the Smith Band wagon don't you? The above paper would never have made a statement like that, if they had not known that Straus is working for Senator Smith, whom the Beck Organ has indorsed for the long term Senatorship. They can't say that is a lie, as they did about Senator Smith's efforts to have the Haman Oyster Bill pass the Legislature.

SENATOR SMITH opposed the State-wide primary law, and had his county exempted from its provisions, after Gov. Crothers succeeded in forcing the Legislature to pass the law over Smith's opposition. Senator Smith favored the passage of the Haman Oyster Law, but for political reasons he had his county to vote against the law. THE HAMAN OYSTER BILL WAS PURELY AND SIMPLY AN ORGANIZATION BILL, AND IT NEVER COULD HAVE BECOME A LAW HAD NOT THE ORGANIZATION DEMOCRAT OF WHOM SENATOR SMITH WAS THE LEADER, FORCED ITS PASSAGE THROUGH THE LEGISLATURE, WHICH SENATOR SMITH CONTROLLED.

SENATOR JOHN WALTER SMITH is a SCHOENEWOLF REPUBLICAN, and doesn't belong in the Democratic primaries.

SENATOR SMITH IS SLY.

Senator Smith is a sly duck. He is sending letters all over the State in answer to Mr. Marbury's speeches against his record in which he says—I worked for Mr. Bryan, etc. The question, Senator Smith, is not so much whether you worked for Mr. Bryan, but the people want you to state whether you voted for Mr. Bryan. You know you did not and we know you did not, and what is more we know that if you were not a candidate for re-election you would not care any more about your loyalty to Mr. Bryan than you did at the Baltimore National Convention. We all know that Mr. Bryan would have won the Maryland electors in 1900, had it not been for your action as Governor, and if we were in Mr. Bryan's place, we would call a halt upon your pretended interest in him now that you want to win the sympathy and votes of his friends in your contest for re-election.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MARGARET FAULKNER.

Mrs. Margaret Faulkner died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Rosin, at Sassafras on Wednesday morning at six o'clock of paralysis, aged 76 years. The funeral will take place from her late home at Sassafras this Saturday at one o'clock, the Rev. Mr. White officiating. Interment will be at Shrewsbury. Undertaker W. H. Krusen will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

NANNIE EMORY.

The remains of Mrs. Nannie Emory, an aunt of Mr. John Comegys, who died in Philadelphia, were brought to Blacks on last Saturday and intered at Shrewsbury Cemetery. Rev. S. S. Hepburn officiated at the grave. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

Sophia, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hopkins, died near Turner's Creek on Monday night last of pneumonia. Interment took place at Crumpton on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

EMMA A. MITCHELL..

Mrs. Emma A., widow of the late George B. Mitchell, of Norwalk, Con., and daughter of the late C. and Margaret A. Welch, died in Baltimore March 24th after a long illness. The deceased was a sister to Mrs. Wm. E. Moody, of Chestertown, who for many days faithfully nursed her.

Rev. J. H. Heavey's mother died on Monday evening last at her home in New Jersey. Father Heavey was formerly of Chestertown and his many friends here sympathize with him in his bereavement.

SMITH'S APPOINTMENT OF SCHŒNEWOLF.

The appointment of H. E. Schoenewolf, formerly keeper of a notorious dive at Pine and Raborg streets, the Red Light District of Baltimore, to a position of doorkeeper in the United States Senate at a salary of $1400 a year, has occasioned widespread indignation throughout the State. The Baltimore City News comments editorially upon the appointment thus:

"Senator John Walter Smith admits that he has secured a position in Washington for a Baltimorean, a former keeper of a notorious place here. The position is that of doorkeeper, paying $1400 a year; not a munificent sum in this day of high living, but enough, we are sure, to tempt many Marylanders as capable as the incumbent to fill the duties of the office, to undertake its responsibilities.

"Senator Smith declines to give the name of the indorsers of the successful applicant. He may have been ignorant of the man's record. But the public will conclude that the Senator is not particularly concerned about the character of people for whom he can get a job in Washington as long as his quid pro quo is forthcoming.

"To "Frank" Kelley is given the credit of pulling down the plum for one of his estimable pals and associates. Kelley makes no bones of what he is in politics for. But a United States Senator is getting down to pretty dirty work when he helps Kelley strengthen his end of a disreputable machine.

"Senator Smith may be relying upon the organization of which he is the head and upon resentment at mischievous and bungling attempts to pull the Federal Administration into a State fight to win him re-election. We do not know of any one thing that will do more to thwart this ambition than a few gentle reminders of exactly the sort of politics Senator Smith has played and, apparently, is not above playing again.

THE PEOPLE DEMAND AN ANSWER.

"It is usually not easy to make a direct issue with a political boss. Part of his stock in trade is his ability to cover his tracks and dodge personal responsibility when the storm comes. But in the case of Senator Smith's recent appointment as a Senate doorkeeper of a man who was the proprietor of one of the most notorious saloons in the red-light district of Baltimore, the trail can be traced straight from the sources of political power in the underworld to the head of the Democratic machine in Maryland.

"And so the question which the decent public opinion of this State is asking Senator Smith cannot be evaded or shifted by the common artifices of 'practical politics.' In plain words, it is this:

"Is the voice of the reputed 'king' of the red-light district more potent with him than the united moral sentiment of Maryland?

"If this is not true, Senator Smith can make it plain by a word.

"But, if it is true, a startling fact confronts the citizenship of this State.

"The people are knocking at Senator Smith's door for an answer."

PUBLIC SALE
—OF—"Wickliffe Farm"

BY virtue of competent authority as attorney for James W. Stevens, the owner, I will offer at Public Sale in front of the Court House Door, in Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, on TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1913, between the hours of 11 o'clock A. M. and 12 o'clock noon, all that

VALUABLE PLANTATION or ESTATE, containing 375 Acres of land, known as
"WICKLIFFE."

This handsome estate is situated on Eastern Neck Island, in Kent county, Maryland, on the waters of the Chester River and the Chesapeake Bay. It is one of the handsomest and most desirable farms on the Chesapeake Bay. Its peculiar location, lying as it does at the mouth of Chester River, at this point 3 miles wide, with the waters of the Chester River on the east side and those of the Chesapeake on the west, with an unsurpassed River and Bay view, make it one of the most valuable tracts of land now on the market. For years past peaches from this farm and Eastern Neck Island have commanded the highest market prices in Baltimore and other markets.

It has been many years since any estate as fine as this in Kent county has been offered for sale. The land is well adapted to the growth of all grains, fruits, berries, grass and everything else which can be grown on the most productive soils in Kent. It is within one mile of the wharf of the Chester River Steamboat Co., on Eastern Neck Island. The shores of the farm are close to the interesting, valuable and largest oyster beds; the fisheries here are valuable, and for the last century its shores have been known for its fine swan, wild geese and duck shooting.

THE FINE DWELLING is a large and commodious frame structure having 10 or 12 rooms with a wide attractive porch, surrounded by ample shade. There is a Barn, Stable, Dairy, Meat House and other buildings on the farm. Any one wishing a home on the SHORES OF THE CHESAPEAKE BAY, or to any one desiring a profitable investment this farm offers a most attractive opportunity. It is about 6 miles from the thrifty and thriving town of Rock Hall, the proposed terminus of the projected Kent County Railroad, and the last landing of the Chester River Line of steamers in daily communication with Baltimore.

Possession will be given January 1st, 1914, and satisfactory arrangements can be made with the owner to deliver possession at an early date.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third of the purchase money cash on the day of sale and the residue in two equal installments, payable in one and two years respectively. All unpaid purchase money to bear interest from the day of sale and to be secured by the note or notes of the purchaser to the satisfaction of the undersigned. All title papers at cost of purchaser.

HOPE H. BARROLL,
Attorney for Jas. W. Stevens, Owner.
JOHN T. JESTER, Auct. a5-ts.

TRUSTEE'S SALE
—OF—
A Valuable Farm

Situated Near Black's, in Kent County, Md.

UNDER and by virtue of the power and authority conferred upon the undersigned by a decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, in equity, in Chancery case No. 1845, entitled Wm. Nathaniel Emory et al, vs. John Comegys Emory et al, the undersigned will offer at public sale in front of the Court House door, on SATURDAY, APRIL 26th, 1913, between the hours of 11 o'clock A. M. and 12 o'clock noon, ALL THAT FARM, situated, lying and being on the north side of the public road leading from Black's Station to Chesterville in the Second Election District of Kent county, Maryland. This is one of the finest tracts of land in this magnificent farming district. The farm is at present occupied by Herbert Ford as tenant, and adjoins the lands of the heirs of Wm. Nathaniel Comegys, Sallie M. Lockwood and others. It contains about more or less, and is improved by a Comfortable Frame Dwelling with Barn, Stable and other necessary outbuildings.

200 Acres of Land,

It is the same farm of which Mrs. Nannie Emory, late of the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, died seized and possessed, as will appear by reference to her last will and testament dated October 27th, 1905, duly executed, admitted to probate and recorded in the Wills Liber J. E. M., No. 1, folios 428, in the office of the Register of Wills of Kent county, Maryland, will more fully appear.

TERMS OF SALE:—One-third of the purchase money cash on the day of sale and the residue in two equal installments, payable in one and two years from the day of sale; all unpaid purchase money to bear interest from the day of sale, and to be secured to the satisfaction of the trustee. All title papers at the cost of the purchaser.

HOPE H. BARROLL, Trustee.
JOHN T. JESTER, Auct.

NOTICE TO. CREDITORS.

In compliance with the decree and rules of the court all the creditors of Nannie Emory, decrased, are hereby on this 29th day of March, 1913, notified to file their claims duly authenticated with the clerk of this court on or before the 1st day of July, 1913, or they will, by law, be excluded from participation in the proceeds of the sale of the above real estate.

HOPE H. BARROLL, Trustee.

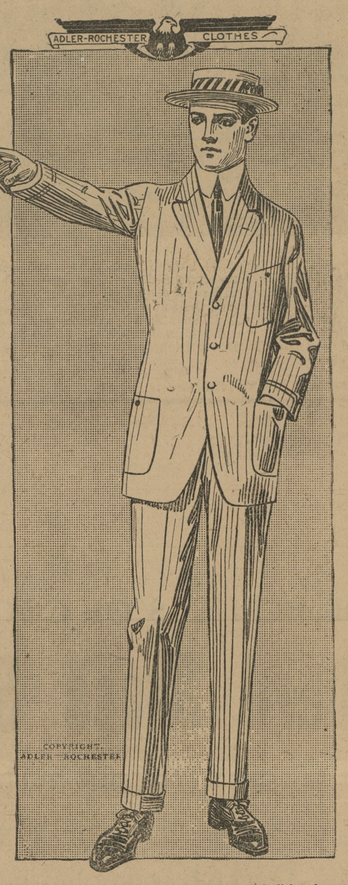
WOULD YOU BUY A DIAMOND IN THE DARK?



Of course you wouldn't,—and yet to us it seems about as foolish to buy a suit without seeing it on yourself and seeing how you look in it.

That's what a man does when he orders a tailor suit from a piece of cloth and a picture book, and he gets what he ordered, "guess work" clothes.

We want to show you right on yourself the difference between these "guess work" clothes and

ADLER-ROCHESTER CLOTHES

We want you to see yourself in some of these rare models,—see the material, the cut, the style, the finish, the workmanship, and select a model that really fits and is really becoming.

Then you'll understand why we ask you to stop guessing about clothes.

This famous Adler-Rochester firm stands behind us in seeing that you are satisfied every day during the life of one of their suits. Also a complete line of boy's suits now on display.
