HON. JOHN G. WOOLLEY.

The above distinguished speaker delivered a masterly temperance address in Christ Methodist Protestant Church on Wednesday evening. Mr. Woolley is one of the greatest lecturers in this country, and his large and attentive audience was carried away by the force and power of his eloquence. He is touring the State under the direction and management of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League.

THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Rev. Thomas C. Jones, who has been pastor of Relay Methodist Episcopal Church for sometime, has been transferred to the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, and has been assigned to Leeds, Cecil county, charge.

Rally Day at Christ M. P. Church was observed with interesting services last Sunday. Rev. Dr. Graham, the pastor, preached appropriate sermons to large congregations both morning and evening. A special program of music, recitations and responsive readings were rendered in the Sunday school in conjunction with the monthly missionary service. Little Virginia Nicholson delivered the address of welcome, and the singing was spirited. The missionary collection amounted to more than $28, Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard's class winning the banner, which was presented by Mr. Joseph N. Wheatley in a very appropriate speech. The attendance of scholars and teachers was 155, the infant class, Mrs. T. D. Bowers, teacher, winning the banner for the largest attendance. The Christian Evdeavor service was particularly interesting. The lecture room of the church was packed, and members of the St. James' and Kennedyville societies were present as guests. The feature of the evening was a splendid address by Prof. Mark Creasy, principal of the Chestertown High School. Prof. Creasy made a most effective address advancing a number of progresives ideas with regard to church work which may bear fruit in the near future. A quartette by Mrs. Fred G. Usilton, Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, Messrs. Arlington L. Sparks and J. Hydie Thompson was well rendered and the service was a highly enjoyable and profitable one.

Rev. Dr. E. C. MacNichol, a prominent Methodist preacher, member of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, resigned his pastorate of Janes M. E. Church at Rising Sun, Md., at the quarterly conference on Saturday evening. Upon the advice of his physician he will move to Philadelphia to live and rest in an effort to regain his health.

Harvest Home exercises at Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor,—at 10.30 A. M, next Sunday, Oct. 19th, the pastor will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion beautiful decorations of fruits, vegetables, grain and flowers; choir will render special music; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7. P. M. Epworth League Song Service; 7. 30 P. M. the pastor will preach a sermon to young men. All invited. Come and worship with us.

Revival services begin in Galena M. E. Church Sunday, Oct. 19th. Miss Annie Dryden, singing evangelist, will assist. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7 P. M. Everybody invited.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Regular services on Sunday and preaching by the pastor at 10 30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Subject of the sermon at the morning service: "Autum's Message". Subject for the evening sermon "The Looking-glass Religionist". Sabbath school 2.30 P. M., Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church is preparing to hold a big bazaar and flower show early in November. Watch for date and particulars later.

Still Pond and Betterton M. E. Churches, Rev. F. X. Moore, pastor.

These have been strenuous days for the Sunday school workers and friends at Still Pond. The Rally day services of last Sunday followed so closely by the Sunday school convention made things lively in the activities of the church. But, as usual, the good people of the community were present to lend a helping hand. All are delighted with the success of the Rally Day exercises and the convention. We enjoyed the presence of our guests and trust they were pleased with us.

The contract has been given for the concrete work of the new church at Betterton. The contractor expects to begin work immediately. Among the fienest Rally Day and Harvest Home services ever held in Betterton church were those of last Sunday. The ladies are now making elaborate preparations for their regular fall supper to be held at the Betterton House next Saturday evening.

Order of services for next Sunday, October 17, are as follows:

At Still Pond—Sunday school 9.30 A. M. We trust the record of last Sunday in attendance will continue. Let every scholar endeavor to make a perfect record in attendance from now till Christmas and thereby win the reward that is offered. Preaching, 10.45 A.M. by the pastor, subject: "The Loving Kindness of God." Epworth League devotional service, 7.30 P. M., Mrs. J. L. Price, leader.

At Betterton—Sunday school, 2 P. M.; preaching by the pastor, 3 P. M.; Epworth League devotional service, 7.30 P. M. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.
