Silverware Makes an Ideal Gift

Whether you are contemplating a gift that costs little or much, silverware is always acceptable.

In buying silverware it is well to choose standard makes—in so doing you get better values for your money.

We believe that we can make more money by selling a great deal of silverware and cut glass at a small margin of profit rather than selling an occasional piece at a big margin.

We ask an opportunity to show you what we have and how reasonably we can sell it. It will interest you to see our line before buying.

CHURCH FIGHT ENDED

Rev. Dr. A. W. Lightbourne, Expelled Six Years Ago, Welcomed by His Old Congregation.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 16.—Welcomed in his former church here last night, Rev. Dr. A. W. Lightbourne, pastor of the Christian Church at Dover, Del., and at one time managing editor of the Mail and Express in New York, gained a measure of recognition which marks the virtual ending of the bitter six-year religious fight.

After leaving newspaper work in New York, Dr. Lightbourne, who is an orator as well as a writer, joined the Wilmington Methodist Episcopal Conference. Eight years ago he was prosecuted in a church trial against Revs. W. F. Corkran and Wm. H. Baker, who were found guilty of stock gambling and suspended. Mr. Corkran has been reinstated and is now pastor of Union Church here, in which edifice he was tried. Baker has since left the ministry as a result of charges filed against him while minister at St. Michaels, Md.

A half dozen years ago Dr. Lightbourne himself was tried for presenting alleged fraudulent credentials from the Congregational Church, being convicted the second time and expelled. This caused a split that threatened to wreck the Wilmington Conference. Dr. Lightbourne's followers in Dover seceded, built a $20,000 church and joined the Christian denomination.

Up to now Dr. Lightbourne has been barred from all Methodist churches, but Rev. Dr. Murray, the present pastor of the Epworth Church here, extended the olive branch and it was accepted, Dr. Lightbourne being the chief figure at the fifteenth anniversary celebration of the Sunday school. He received an ovation and held a big reception.

It is though that the breach will hereafter be completely closed.—Wilmington Every Evening.

A STORY A DAY.

A story a day for the 365 days of 1914—that is part of what you get by subscribing $2.00 for The Youth's Companion's new volume. The fifty-two weekly issues of The Companion will contain at least 365 stories, and all the other kinds of good reading that can be crowded between two covers—the best advice on athletics for boys, articles on dress and recreations for girls, contributions by famous men and women, suggestions for the care of the health, etc.

For the year's subscription of $2.00 there is included a copy of The Companion Practical Home Calendar for 1914, and all the issues for the remaining weeks of this year, dating from the time the subscription is received.

If you want to know more about The Companion before subscribing, send for sample copies containing the opening chapters of Arthur Stanwood Pier's fine serial of life in a boys' school—"His Father's Son." With them we will send the full Announcement for 1914.

"WINNING OUT" IS A MATTER OF MARGINS

THAT is a matter of "going your neighbor one better." Just a little more effect, a little better planning. It is the margin by which you beat him that secures you the victory. It is the last minute that wins the race.
