AND

The smoke goes up the chimney just the same.

Every big tailor in America takes a crack at the International, but none can touch them in point of value.

It can't be done.

They quote the International prices, but they can't duplicate the styles, the fabrics and the workmanship that goes with our made-to-measure clothes.

Just now we're running a special sale on Suits and Overcoats—eighty-five good styles from last season, and quite a number from the new line at a saving to you of $2 to $6 on a suit or overcoat. Come see.

Rivals may talk big, run sales, cut prices and brag about their values, but you'll always notice that so far as we are concerned the smoke goes up the chimney just the same.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

Special Representative for Kent and Queen Annes Counties of the International Tailoring Co. of New York, Chicago and London, : : : : :

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

MANN—LAWLER.

A wedding of much interest, which took place Saturday morning at Corpus Christi Church, Baltimore, was that of Miss Mari Kathleen Lawler, daughter of Mrs. Lawler and the late Andrew Jackson Lawler, and Mr. Wm. Blackistone Wilmer Mann, son of Mrs. M. Brooks Wilmer Mann, formerly of Chestertown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Smith, and was followed by a nuptial mass. In the sanctuary were: Mgr. William E. Starr, Mgr. James F. Donahue, Rev. James F. Nolan, Rev. Louis O'Donovan, Rev. John J. Murray and Rev. Waters McKenna, of Baltimore, and Rev. John J. Wheeler and Rev. Father Lallou, of Philadelphia. The bride was attended by Mrs. John T. Geraghty as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Mary Virginia and Angele Geraldine Lawler, of Philadelphia; Miss Elizabeth Margaret O'Meara, of Philadelphia, and Miss Alice Ford Coady, of Baltimore. Mr. Philip G. Wilmer, of Chestertown, was the groom's best man, and the ushers were Dr. J. T. Geraghty, Mr. Samuel R. Mears, Mr. Garnett Y. Clark, Mr. J. Porter Houston, Mr. William P. Wilmer, Jr., Mr. P. Medford Brooks and Mr. William Milnes Maloy. An elaborate musical program was given by Mrs. Mary Fuller Fink, harpist; Mr. Alfred Furthmaier, 'cellist, and Mr. Frederick H. Huber, organist. A wedding breakfast followed at the Stafford for the wedding party, and from 2 30 until 4 o'clock there was a reception at the Stafford for the relatives and intimate friends. The bride and groom will spend their honeymoon in Florida and will be at home after March 1, at 1514 Mount Royal avenue, Baltimore.

A Good Year.

For a society just over a change in rate agitation the Modern Woodmen of America made a record during the year 1914 in which the membership may well take pride. During the year 39,720 new certificates were written, and 34,969 beneficial members were adopted, the Society making a net gain in benecial membership of 14,704. There were 393 new camps instituted and the insurance in force was increased $20,182,000. The receipts from assessments during the year amounted to $12,191,112.95; from interest on cash deposited in banks $50,244.96; from interest of funds invested in bonds, $456,743.29, making the total receipts in the beneficiary fund of $12,698,101.20. There was paid out to beneficiaries of members on death claims during the year, $11,566,264.90, showing a net gain in the benefit fund for the year of $1,131,836.30. There has been paid to beneficiaries of 80,538 members who have died since the Society was instituted a grand total of $141,627,850.73. This is indeed a record to which any Modern Woodman can point with pride. The record for the year 1915 promises to excel the record of all previous years.

President Signs Bill to Reimburse Farmers.

Prompt payment of farmers' claims for cattle slaughtered in the federal campaign against the foot-and-mouth disease was promised by the Department of Agriculture Friday of last week when President Wilson signed an urgent deficiency bill carrying $2,5000,000 to cover the expense of this work. Up to Jan. 1, the campaign had cost the government $2,129,138

In Illinois $600,000 will be paid out, 36,758 animals having been killed there. Pennsylvania had 16,910 slaughtered and Ohio 10,111. In all the states up to January 1, the total killed was 101,111, including 46,268 cattle and 47 735 swine.

WANTED—OLD FAMILY BIBLE.

I shall greatly appreciate it if any one can furnish me the information that will lead to the finding of an old family Bible which belonged to my grandmother. The Bible contains data that I am anxious to have. My grandmother before marriage was Miss Deborah Haddaway. She married my grandfather, W. H. Lambert, and after his death she married Washington Collins, Esq. They lived quite a number of years in Piney Neck, afterwards moving to Quaker Neck on the farm adjoining Mr. Thos. D. France's farm. Here Mr. Collins died. This Bible was among his effects which were sold after his death. Any information leading to the recovery of this Bible will be greatly appreciated. Address,

ENGINES

Our new J. H. C. Oil Engine is said by all to be the most up-to-the-minute engine they have ever seen. This engine has throttle governor, automatic oiling system, and is the new Side Shaft type. Mr. E. Rumsey Anthony has one in his large irrigating system. But we have all kinds and sizes. Don't send out to some mail order house for an engine that has little or no weight, no stability to it. We can give you more engine for almost the same money. Our NEW HOLLAND Hopper Cooled is absolutely guaranteed in every way even against freezing. If the water freezes and injures the engine in any way, they make your loss good or give you a new engine. Four H. P. New Holland Hopper Cooled for $105.00. Come and see this Engine.

FEED MILLS

New Holland Feed Mills have made such a reputation for themselves that even its competitors are willing to admit that there is no better mill on the market. Isn't that some guarantee for New Holland? This mill in four sizes from $12.00 up.

WOOD SAWS

Our Farmers' Saw is a long mandrel heavy frame saw and is one of the steadiest running machines you would wish to see. We furnish with 26-inch blade.

Any Shop Work will receive careful attention.
