FROM THE TRENTON TRUE AMERICAN.

ROGERS AND VICTORY.

TIT FOR TAT.

JOHN BULL, who has for ten years past,
Been daily growing prouder,
Has got another taste at last,
Of Yankee ball and powder.
Yankee doodle join the tune,
To every freeman handy,
Lets shake the foot and rigadoon,
To yankee doodle dandy.

His wrongs and insults have increased
Till yankees cannot bear 'em,
And as they wished to live in peace,
He thought that he could scare 'em.
But yankees know their good old tune,
For fun or fighting handy,
For battle or for rigadoon,
'Tis yankee doodle dandy.

You all remember well, I guess,
The Chesapeake disaster,
When Britons dar'd to kill and press,
To please their royal master.
That day did murder'd freemen fill,
Their graves are cold and sandy;
Their funeral dirge was sung by all,
Not yankee doodle dandy.

But still for this we mann'd no ship.
But used expostulation,
They murder'd Pierce—they fir'd on Trippe,
We bore the degradation.
For though we can like tigers fight,
Yet peaceful joys are handy;
Like brothers still we would unite,
With yankee doodle dandy.

The tools of British power who steal
And murder on the ocean.
For every wrong they make us feel,
Meet honour and promotion
I guess if father was not dead,
He'd think us very handy,
And ask where all the fire had fled,
Of yankee doodle dandy.

But finding injuries prolong'd,
Become a growing evil,
Our Commodore got leave, if wrong'd,
To blow 'em to the d—l.
And Roger's is a spunky lad,
In naval battle handy,
'Twas he who whipp'd the Turks so well
With yankee doodle dandy.

So off he goes, and tells his crew,
The sails we quickly bent, sir;
A better ship you never knew,
She's call'd the President, sir.
They hoisted up the topsails soon,
The sailors are so handy;
While drums & fifes struck up the tune,
Of yankee doodle dandy.

On Thursday morn, we saw a sail,
Well arm'd with gun and swivel,
Says Rogers, 'we will chase and hail,
'And see if she'll be civil.'
So after her they hasten'd soon,
The sailors are so handy,
While drums & fifes still play'd the tune,
Call'd yankee doodle dandy.

'Where are you from?' bold Rogers cried—
Which made the British wonder—
Then with a gun they quick replied,
Which made a noise like thunder.
Like lightning we returned the joke,
Our matches were so handy,
The yankee bull dog nobly spoke,
The tune of doodle dandy.

A brilliant action then began,
Our fire so briskly burn'd, sir,
While blood from British scuppers ran,
Like Seventy Six return'd, sir.
Our cannon roar'd, our men huzza'd,
And fired away so handy,
Till Bingham struck, he was so scar'd,
At hearing doodle dandy.

Then having thus chastis'd the foe,
And wounded thirty British,
We gave the rascals leave to go,
They were so demced skittish.
Now toast our Commodore so brave,
In toddy, flip, or brandy,
And strike aloud the merry stave
Of yankee doodle dandy.

TO BE LEASED,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS:

THAT elegant situation opposite to the City of Annapolis, adjoining Fort Madison—it contains upwards of 300 acres of excellent land, with oyster shell banks of manure in each field, with three negro men; with good improvements—the advantage of keeping a Ferry Boat, having hands used to it, and the convenience to one of the best markets (for the seller in the state) is very great. Any person wishing to rent, may apply to Mr. Clements, in Annapolis, or to the subscriber at Easton. I observe that some person has cut several cedar posts on the banks of the river and creek; I hereby forewarn all persons from bringing boats or canoes into any of my creeks, or taking away any sort of wood at their peril. To save trouble, no person need apply unless they can give good security, if required.

BY JOHN LEEDS BOZMAN, ESQUIRE.

EDWARD J. COALE,

HAS the satisfaction to announce the above work for publication. It is written by a gentleman whose talents, learning and habits of research, render him well qualified to make his work correct, useful and instructive. To the citizens of Maryland, this work will be found to be particularly interesting—and from them, more particularly, a liberal patronage is anticipated, that the publisher may be thereby enabled to print it immediately, and in a handsome manner.

Should the author continue the work, it will be published as a second volume, to correspond with the one now proposed.

CONDITIONS.

This work will be printed in one volume octavo, on good paper and type, neatly bound in sheep; price two dollars. To non subscribers the price will be raised.
