FARM FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale a valuable FARM in Caroline county, 4 miles above Greensborough, containing upwards of seven hundreds acres. The soil is well adapted to the growth of grain or hay, particularly a bottom, supposed to contain from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and forty acres, which is inferior to none to the growing of timothy or herd grass; the half of this bottom is cleared, the greater part of which is now in corn. This farm is well timbered, and will be sold altogether, or in lots of one or two hundred acres. For terms enquire of Mr. Thomas Goldsborough, living near the property, or to the subscriber in Talbot. If not sold by the first of Sept. next, it will then be for rent.

TO BE SOLD,

The following LANDS in Appoquinimink Hundred, the county of New Castle, and State of Delaware:—

A PLANTATION or tract of Land called Camden, containing about 350 acres, situate on the south side of Appoquinimink river, half a mile above the village called Cantwell's Bridge, where a considerable trade is carried on. It is bounded by the river near a mile—about 140 acres are arable, 120 wood, the residue marsh and cripple; the state road runs through it.

Also—A tract of Land of about 430 acres, near three miles west of the state road, where it crosses Blackbird creek; about a third part is arable, the rest well timbered, and above 50 acres of meadow may be made. There is a quantity of iron bog-ore on this land. It lies 5 miles from the public landings on the navigable waters of Delaware Bay, and the same distance from those of the Chesapeake. The two above mentioned tracts will be divided, each into two or more farms, if desired.

Likewise—A Plantation, containing 150 acres, situate on the northeast branch of Duck creek, and near to a landing; it lies about three miles to the east of the state road, where it crosses Blackbird creek.

The terms of sale will be reasonable; a fourth part of the purchase money cash—the residue will be received in annual instalments for three or more years, and a bond and mortgage from the purchaser accepted as security. For further particulars apply to Mr. John Cummins, merchant at Smyrna, in the county of Kent; Mr. Wm. F. Corbit, merchant at Cantwell's bridge, in the county of New Castle; or to the subscriber in the city of Philadelphia—who will also sell or let, on improving leases, divers tracts of land in Beaver, Alleghany, and Centre counties in Pennsylvania, in well settled neighbourhoods.

TO BE LEASED,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS:

THAT elegant situation opposite to the City of Annapolis, adjoining Fort Madison—it contains upwards of 300 acres of excellent land, with oyster shell banks of manure in each field, with three negro men; with good improvements—the advantage of keeping a Ferry Boat, having hands used to it, and the convenience to one of the best markets (for the seller in the state) is very great. Any person wishing to rent, may apply to Mr. Clements, in Annapolis, or to the subscriber at Easton. I observe that some person has cut several cedar posts on the banks of the river and creek; I hereby forewarn all persons from bringing boats or canoes into any of my creeks, or taking away any sort of wood at their peril. To save trouble, no person need apply unless they can give good security, if required.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY
EDWARD LLOYD, ESQUIRE,
GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been satisfactorily represented to me, that a certain JOHN BADGER, who was condemned seven years to the Public Roads, by the honorable Judges of the first Judicial District of Maryland, for House Burning and Horse Stealing—has made his escape from punishment, and is now lurking about Elkton, committing many crimes, and alarming the people by his nocturnal plunderings. And whereas, it is obviously the duty of the Executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavor to bring all malefactors to justice: I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD, to any person or persons, who shall apprehend and bring to justice, the said JOHN BADGER.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland, this thirtieth day of July, in the year of (L. S.) our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the thirty-sixth.

NOTICE.

ON application to me, during the recess of Talbot county court, as chief judge of the second judicial district, by the petition in writing of Thomas H. Lambdin, an insolvent debtor, of Talbot county, praying the benefit of an act of assembly passed at the November session of 1805, entitled An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and of the several supplements thereto, upon the terms in the said act and supplements mentioned and prescribed—and the said Thomas H. Lambdin having complied with the terms of the said act and supplements; and having satisfied me that he hath resided for the two years next immediately preceding the time of his application aforesaid, within the State of Maryland. Now I do therefore hereby order and adjudge that the said Thomas H. Lambdin be discharged from confinement, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star four weeks successively, three months before the first Saturday of November term next, of the said county court, and by setting up advertisements at the court house door of the said county, he give notice to his creditors to appear on that day before the said court, at the court house in the town of Easton, in the county aforesaid, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause if any they have, why the said Thomas H. Lambdin should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements, as prayed. Given under my hand this 12th day of August, 1811.

RUNAWAY NEGRO.

WAS committed to the gaol of Washington county, on the 7th instant, negro John Collins, about 26 years old, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, very black—Had on when committed a linsey jacket and roundabout, tow shirt and trowsers, and an old wool hat. He says he belonged to Mr. Richard Hamsley, of St. Mary's county, Maryland, who sold him to a Mr. Turner, of Virginia, who was taking him to Carolina. If his owner does not release him, he will be sold for his gaol fees, &c. according to law.

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

ESCAPED from goal, in Centreville, a negro man named Jim, about 22 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has a scar on his right cheek, large full eyes, large mouth, shews his teeth very much when he laughs, is bow-legged and walks wide, has been to work in a blacksmith's shop, and probably he may apply to some smith for employment—Had on when he escaped a blue jacket and trowsers, the jacket has a white seam on it at the bottom, and the trowsers also, down the legs. Whosoever apprehends the said negro, and secures him in the Centreville goal, or any other gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward if taken one hundred miles from Queen Ann's county, and if taken within fifty miles fifty dollars will be given, with all reasonable expences paid if brought home to Centreville, by

DANIEL WATSON.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 18th of July, a negro man named Daniel, aged 24 years, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high—His dress was an old great coat and trowsers. The fellow has been sick for more than two years, under the impression that he was poisoned, or a spell laid on him; for which reason he was indulged in going to an old negro man to cure him, who lives about two miles from Easton, on the road to Dover Ferry, where it is probable the fellow may be lurking When he went off he pretended he was sick, and not able to walk; but I have reason to think now that his complaint is almost altogether deceit. Whoever takes up said negro, in the county, and brings him home, shall receive 20 dollars—if taken out of the county, the above reward.
