IN THE CHURCHES.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Easter services on Sunday, April 4th. Easter sermon at 10.30 A. M. and at 7.30 P. M. The anniversary of the Sunday School Missionary Society and special Easter exercises by the Sunday school will be held. Beautiful music and interesting Easter symbolism. Sabbath school 2.30 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, April 4th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., the pastor will preach the Easter sermon. 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school will hold Easter services. 8 P. M., the choir will give a grand Easter concert rendering solos, choruses, etc. All invited to attend.

The Methodist Episcopal Church choir under the efficient directorship of Mrs. Merrick Clements, has prepared a most elaborate program of Easter music for the Sunday services. Aside from two especially beautiful anthems by the whole choir, there will be several solos by its members. A harpist as an especial attraction will be employed for the occasion and will play several numbers during the services. The church extends a very cordial invitation for everyone to come out and hear the finest of Easter music.

With the reading of the ministerial appointments by Bishop Cooke, the forty-seventh session of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, holding at Laurel, Del., adjourned about 10 o'clock Monday night. The appointments of special local interest are as follows:

Chestertown, L. E. Barrett.
Galena, W. C. Poole.
Golt, Walter Ford, supply.
Millington, G. P. Smith.
Still Pond, R. P. Nicholas.
Rock Hall, J. W. Prettyman.
Pomona, J. A. Hudson.
Fairlee, John White, supply.
Piney Neck, A. Travers, supply.
Church Hill, T. L. Sparklin.
Sudlersville, L. P. Corkran.

Rev. O. B. Rice, who was at Pomona, goes to Delaware city. We are sorry to lose Mr. Rice from the county. He is a splendid young man.

Rev. F. X. Moore, the popular and successful pastor at Still Pond, is transferred to Port Deposit.

Rev. A. P. Prettyman goes to Rising Sun.

Rev. Ivanhoe Willis goes to Tilghman's Island.

The joyous Easter season will be celebrated in all the churches of the town and county to-morrow, Sunday. Special Easter sermons will be preached, and the choirs will render special anthems. Christ Church Sunday school will hold its missionary anniversary and render Easter carols in the evening. A beautiful symbolism—"The Ressurection Story," will be a feature of the exercises.

Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham preached one of the finest Palm Sunday sermons ever heard in this town last Sunday morning. His theme was "music," and his discourse was beautiful. He leaves for conference in Washington, on Monday, and his congregation and the people of the community at large hope for his return. Dr. Graham is a preacher of marked ability, and any community is fortunate to have such an orator and logician in its midst.

The "new" pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett, will fill his pulpit to-morrow (Sunday) morning and evening. His congregation will give him and his estimable wife a royal welcome, and make them feel greatly at home in their "new" field of labor. May Dr. Barrett's seventh year be more prosperous and happy than any other of his long and successful pastorates here.

Several members of Millington Council, No. 80, D. of A., made a visit to Crumpton Council, No. 79, last week, it being the occason of a special visitation of the State Councilor, Mrs. Anna C. Clark, and State vice-councilor, Mrs. Leona LeBrun. All were cordially received, and after a most enjoyable session, were served most abundantly with delicious ice cream and cake, and a delightful social hour was enjoyed by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Vansant, of Wilmington, Del., are visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Vansant.

Mr. F. C. Numbers, of the Maryland School for the Blind, and Mr. Julian C. Numbers, of Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md., are spending the Easter holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Numbers.

Fifteen members of Millington Council, No. 80, Daughters of America, were present on Friday evening, March 26th, at the institution of Galena Council, No. 83, and assisted in the initiation under the direction of State councilor, Mrs. Anna C. Clark, and State vice-councilor, Mrs. Leona LeBrun. There were also members present from Golt, Crumpton and Chestertown Councils, and all enjoyed the occasion very much. Most inspiring and instructive addresses were made by State Councilor Clark, State Vice-Councilor LeBrun and Bro. J. B. McIntire, of Chestertown Council. Galena Council expressed their appreciation of the visitation by a vote of thanks and a cordial invitation to come again.

Mr. Jacob Berman spent several days this week with friends in Baltimore.
