LOCAL MATTERS

To Declare Tax Rate.—The Board of County Commissioners will meet to-day to declare the county tax rate. It is believad that the rate will be considerably over the $1 mark. And there are good and sufficient reasons for the increase which will be explained later.

Child Swallows Poison.—Prompt action on the mother's part saved the life of John T., the infant son of Professor and Mrs. J. T. Bruehl, of Centreville. While playing around the house the little fellow swallowed a small quantity of poisonous insect powder. When Mrs. Bruehl found it out she at once administered an antidote and called a physician. The little boy is now out of danger.

College League Meeting.—On next Tuesday night there will be a meeting of the Washington College branch of the College Star Spangled Banner League, in William Smith Hall, to which the public is invited to attend. The meeting will be called at 8 P. M., and there will be a speaker from Baltimore, who will give an address in the interest of the Star Spangled Banner celebration, which will be held in Baltimore in September. The officers of the Washington College branch are: President, E. K. Pfitsch; vice-president, J. R. Branham; cor. secretary, T. Branham; rec. secretary, W. G. Keller.

¶The graduating class at the Chestertown High School consists of twenty-five, being the largest number ever graduating in one year.

¶The commissioners of the town of Millington are preparing to open several new streets in the town. Surveyor Gilbert Taylor will do the survey work.

¶The Chestertown Daughters of America entertained the ladies of the new Golt order, Monday evening, who came down in an auto.

¶Capt Emory Crouch caught a ton of rock in Robinsons Cove, at the mouth of Corsica river last week. Capt. Higgins caugh a half ton.

¶The ladies of Lynch will hold a festival and Orange Grove in the church hall on Saturday evening next, June 13th. This will be a charming social event.

¶Read the order of commencement exercises of Washington College published elsewhere in this issue and get acquainted with the dates of the interesting features.

¶The Ford auto of Mr. Skinner, of Centreville, collided with a carriage driven by Miss Helen Dudley on the state road near Union, Sunday afternoon. The team was wrecked, while one wheel of the auto was crushed and the machine upset. No one was hurt.

¶A large crowd attended the supper and strawberry festival at Bond Chapel last night.

¶J. Walter Skirven & Co. have been paying 24 cents a pound for wool this week. They have shipped 30,000 pounds of wool to date.

¶The Town Commissioners have placed large L-shaped pipes at various places in the town for the easy filling of of the street sprinkler.

¶Mr. J. Kennard Aldridge has a fine Holstein cow which presented him with fine twin calves this week. This is the second good fortune of this kind Mr. Aldridge has had this spring.

¶The public schools of the county and Washington College close for the summer vacation on June 17th. We wish teachers and students a very pleasant and restful summer.

¶The Board of County School Commissioners have petitioned the County Commissioners for an extra appropriation of $3000, making a total of $38,000 for the schools of the county next year.

¶The Literary Society of the Chestertown High School rendered an interesting program Friday afternoon. Resolutions of respect were passed to their decased schoolmate, Mr. Cecil Robinson.

¶Dr. H. C. Hughes landed a fine three pound bass from a mill pond not a thousand miles from Chestertown one day recently. Dr. Hughes had two other good stickes but missed the bass.

¶Mr. Herbert M. Matthews has been appointed postmaster at Worton in place of Mrs. Cooper, and he will assume charge of the office next week. Mr. Matthews will make a capable and careful official, we feel sure.

¶R. Groome Parks, Esq., assisted by R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., representing Mike Butler, colored, has entered suit against the town of Chestertown in the sum of $10,000 for alleged negligence in the vaccination of Butler's child, which developed blood poisoning and died.

¶The following postoffices in Kent were filled the past week: Carl T. Norris, Still Pond; Sarah E. Graves, Blacks; Mary S. Quick, Gratitude; Wm. J. Rutter, Locust Grove; Wm. Hepbron, Lynch; George E. Noland, Tolchester Beach.

¶Mrs. Lewin U. Skirven has purchased from Mr. J. H. Sides, general agent, one of those fine 1914 Maxwell cars which the TRANTCRIPT described in a two-page advertisement recently. Mr. John C. Davis has purchased a 1914 Ford from Mr. Jacob F. Thompson.

¶Mr. L. Harris Crewe has purchased a number of desirable building lots from the Bayside Land Company in Betterton adjoining his fine new property, which he will improve. Mr. Crewe's new residence is to be known as Bayside Inn, and is a fine addition to Betterton's fine hotels. Mr. Crewe will conduct a first-class summer hotel at Bayside Inn, and will cater to only the most desirable trade. The hotel is fitted up in the most approved style and Mr. Crewe is to be congratulated upon his public spirit and enterprise.

¶Monday was observed by the colored population as Whitsuntide. Big picnics were held in Big Woods, and across in Queen Annes, and every negro in Kent county, as well as Queen Annes, who could get a team or a bicycle, took one or two days off, and went to the picnics.

Yates to the Maryland Life Insurance Company in Baltimore, in which the deceased carried a substantial policy, he received a check for the full amount with a certain amount of interest.

¶Some of those people who are prone to criticise the existence of Radcliffe Park as being of no especial advantage to Chestertown's business interests may find some food for thought in the fact that one of our stores is reported to have been so busy after the races that the proprietor did not have time to go to his supper, and we understand that other merchants in the town had a big day.

¶Mr. James Stevens, owner of Wicliffe farm on East Neck Island, was in Chestertown on Thursday and spoke interestingly of his fine asparagus crop. Mr. Stevens has had a very successful season, gathering some of the finest asparagus he ever grew, and shipping it to city markets, where it finds ready sale and profitable prices. Mr. Stevens says that asparagus is one of the best paying crops on the farm when handled right, and the present is possibly the most successful season he has ever had.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

The funeral of Cecil A. Robinson, the young High School student who was drowned in Chester river last week, which sad accident the TRANSCRIPT noted at length last Saturday, was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. It was the largest funeral of a young person ever seen in the town. The Jr. O. U. A. M., of which the deceased had been a member a little longer than a week, attended in a body, and the graduates of the High School, with the faculty and members of his Sunday school class occupied seats near the casket. Dr. Barrett delivered a beautiful eulogy of the young man, and a choir of young folks from the Sunday school sang several appropriate hymns. The Jr. Order had charge of the services at the gave and read its beautiful service, and placed the Stars and Stripes over the casket of the dead. The pall-bearers were members of his Sunday school class as follows: Colin Duyer, Jewell Armstrong, Albion Bailey, Edw. Blackway, Charles Ford and Norman Hirons. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful.

MRS. SARAH R. WOOD.

Mrs. Sarah R. Wood, wife of Mr. William Wood, of near Still Pond, and a prominent member of Union M. E. Church, died at her late home on Wednesday evening after a short illness of paralysis, aged 62 years. Mrs. Wood was a lovable and kind christian lady and had a large circle of friends, and she had no greater pleasure than to have them about her. She leaves six daughters, namely, Mrs. F. Clark, Chestertown; Mrs. George Cooper, Worton; Mrs. Joiner, Lynch; Mrs. William Pennington, Philadelphia; Mrs. F. H. Cornelius, of Lynch, and Miss Ida, at home. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, from her late residence near Still Pond, and Rev. W. E. Habbert, of Ridgely, assisted by Rev. F. X. Moore, of Still Pond M. E. Church, and Rev. Mr. White, of Worton M. E. Church, will officiate. Undertaker W. H. Krusen will have charge of the funeral arrangements, and interment will be made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers will be her five sons-in-law and grandson.

WILLIAM T. P. TURPIN.

Former State Senator William T. P. Turpin, 68 years old, died Tuesday morning at Locust Hill, his home adjoining the town of Centreville, after an illness of two weeks from paralysis. Senator Turpin was one of the old stalwarts of the Queen Anne's Democracy. He was State Immigration Commissioner under Governor Warfield. A son of the late Dr. Walter S. Turpin, Senator Turpin was connected with many of the county's oldest families. He is survived by three sons, Lieut.-Com. Walter S. Turpin, of the battleship Virginia; Wm. S. Turpin, of Oklahoma, and John R. E. Turpin, of Centreville, and three daughters, Mrs. John E. Wilson, of Kansas City, Mo., and Misses Alice and Isabel Turpin, of Centreville. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, the Rev. G. J. Hill, pastor of Grace Methodist Protestant Church, officiating.

THOMAS HEWETT.

Mr. Thomas Hewett died at his residence in Fredericktown on Friday morning, May 29, aged 51 years. He was a son of Mrs. Henrietta and the late Thos. Hewett. For a number of years he followed the trade of a carpenter, but for the last 15 years had been employed by Capt. J. E. Woodall. He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Amanda Cohee. Funeral services were held on Sunday, May 31st, from his late residence in Fredericktown, services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Clews, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Andrew Schofield, James Ross, Captain Fowler, Wm. G. Hamilton, Andrew Leybold and Andrew Wilson.

MRS. RACHEL DAVIS.

Mrs. Rachel Davis, wife of Mr. Isaac Davis, of Middletown, died at her home in that town on Tuesday morning, aged 68 years, of heart trouble. She leaves her husband, one son, Mr. Jay Davis, and one daughter, Miss Lenora Davis. The deceased was an aunt of Mrs. J. L. Smyth and Mrs. E. E. Hudson, of this town, and also of School Commissioner John N. Bennett. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, with interment in Forest cemetery, near Middletown. The Kent relatives attended the funeral.

MRS. NELLIE GULLERY.

Mrs. Nellie Gullery died at the State Sanitorium Thursday of tuberculosis. Remains were brought over on Tolchester boat Saturday afternoon and interred in Chester cemetery Rev. Father Urner officiating. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. James Lewis, of Fairlee, husband and child. The pall-bearers were: Jessie H. Usilton, H. C. Willis, Edward Corey, T. J. Davis, J. R. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to take from our Literary Society one of our members, Cecil Almun Robinson. Be it

Resolved, That by the death of Cecil, the school and society have sustained the loss of one of their valuable members. He was a good, manly boy, kind, obedient, and a diligent worker. He has left us an example worthy of imitation, and while we bow in humble submission to the will of the Divine One, Who doeth all things for the best, may his noble character live with us and spur his school-mates and fellow-members to a better life.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Chestertown High School Literary Society, do extend to the family and friends of the deceased our sincere and heart-felt sympathy. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be be sent to the family, one spread upon our minutes and another printed in the county papers.
