Great Anti-Saloon League Convention.

The great National Convention of the Anti-Saloon League will be held at Atlantic City, N. J., July 6 to 9, 1915. This promises to be the greatest gathering in the interest of temperance ever held in America or in the world. The convention will be addressed by such noted speakers as Sam Small, John G. Wooley, Booker T. Washington, Richmond P. Hobson, Clinton N. Howard, Ex-Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, U. S. Senator Sheppard, Ex-Governor Patterson, of Tennessee, and many other noted temperance workers. The music at the convention will be in charge of Prof. E. O. Exell, and one of the special features will be a great male chorus.

Each local church organization, each Sunday school, each Young People's Society, and each local, village, township, city, county, State or national temperance society or organization for moral uplift is entitled to one delegate and should appoint a delegate who will attend. Besides the delegates everyone interested in the anti-liquor movement is entitled to register as a visitor. Registration as a visitor will entitle one to all the privileges of a delegate except voting power and special seat reservations in the convention halls.

The convention sessions will be held on Young's Million Dollar Pier, with its four large auditoriums having a combined seating capacity of almost 25,000. Single admission to this pier is always fifteen cents, but registered visitors and delegates to the convention will be admitted free, and may go on and off the pier at will during the time the convention is in session. Special seats will be reserved for delegates. Registered attendants at the convention are also entitled to special rates at the hotels, which have made an agreement with the convention committee.

In addition to the privileges of the convention, free admission to the Million Dollar Pier, and special rates on hotel accommodations, every registered visitor and delegate will receive, as soon after the convention as possible, a bound copy of the proceedings of the convention free, including the addresses delivered.

Delegates should communicate with the office of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland, 800 Equitable Building, at once for the purpose of registry and to get data concerning the Maryland headquarters and such other information as they may desire.

Worton Grange Notes.

Worton Grange held its last regular weekly meeting on Monday. Interest in these meetings continue, although the farmers are very busy at this season of the year, yet they seem loath to discontinue our interesting and inspiring meetings.

However for the three summer months June, July and August, the meeting will be held only once a month—the last Monday night in the month. These meetings will be entertaining and full of inspiration for all who are fortunate enough to attend. Our lecturer is certainly wide-a-wake and leaves nothing undone to make our grange one of the best in the county. The last Monday night in June the gentlemen have charge of the refreshments, and they promise to show us ladies how to serve. Brothers C. G. Hadaway, H. T. Jewell, Lester Carter and Carroll Loller are the committee in charge, and with the assistance of the other gents they promise us something great.

At the business meeting last week questions of importance were discussed and all business was put in shape for the summer, then the literary program was taken up, consisting of singing, Beautiful Golden Somewhere; How to care for tulips after the flowers are gone, by Sister Sarah Carter. Sister Rachel Carter read us a beautiful paper on Influence. Sister Turner then read us a humorous piece on the boys of to-day and yesterday. We then closed with a reading entitled, "The Woman on the Farm," by Sister Blanche Scotten. In this the men have everything up-to-date, all the latest improved machinery to till the soil, motor cars to ride in, etc., while the woman has to put up with any old thing. The house that his father built in 1867 is good enough for her. But our men are opening their eyes and if you take a look around you will find that the homes in this neighborhood are being improved.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Splendid Children's Day services were held in Christ M.P. Church Sunday night before a large crowd. The collection was about $74. The banner was won by Miss Clara B. Usilton's class with $17. Presentation speech by Mr. Russell Wheatley. Program was as follows: Opening sentences, school; responsive reading, asst. superintendent; prayer, school; recitation, Harry Fallowfield; recitation, Helen Dansburg; singing, school; recitation, Walter Barnes; recitation, Ida Speilberger; singing, school; cantata, "Summer is Here," 16 girls; May Pole, four boys and ten little girls. The orchestra was as follows: Miss Clara Usilton, organist; Foster Cannan, trombone; Arthur Bacon, cornet; Prof. C. H. Pearson, T. Kemp Bordley, Jos. N. Wheatley and James Crouch, violins. Committee—Mrs. Harry Cannon, Mrs. C. N. Satterfield, Mrs. C. C. Jones and Miss Rebecca McFeeley. Decoration committee—Misses Mamie Thompson, Fannie Baker, Mary Knight and Clara Usilton.

The graduating exercises of the High School were held in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday morning. The class, twenty-five young ladies and gentlemen, and the faculty of the school attended in a body. The large auditorium was packed with relatives and friends of the class and the exercises were delightful. Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham delivered a scholarly sermon, and the Chestertown Choral Club, under the direction of Mr. Wm. Walter Chapman, rendered three fine anthems, the soloists being Miss Fannie Stuart and Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell.

Not Paint.

With linsed oil at 50c to $1, what sort of oil do you think they use in "paint" at $1.50 and $1.25?

That stuff is counterfeit paint. You can cheat yourself; you can't cheat Time or Weather.

Paint is a rubbery coat over wood and iron to keep-out water.

Counterfeit paint may look like it; counterfeit money looks like money.

What are all counterfeits for? They are all alike.
