NUPTIAL EVENTS.

DEPUTY—WARFIELD.

A very quiet home wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, June 9th, at 5 P. M., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins Burgess, near Abingden, Harford county, when Miss Rhetta B. Warfield, the daughter of Mrs. Burgess, was married to Mr. Harry Trimble Deputy, of Worton, Kent county. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Glenn, of Emmerton, Harford county, in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends. The bride was attended by Miss Lillian Nindfohr, of Baltimore, as maid of honor, and Miss Mary Hines, also of Baltimore, as bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Arthur Deputy, of Kent county. The bride wore a going away gown of blue gabardine. Mr. and Mrs. Deputy took the 7 P. M. train from Sewell for a short wedding journey. Their future home will be at Worton, Kent county.

COLEMAN—HULING.

Mr. Wilmer Bowers Coleman, of Philadelphia, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Coleman, of Chestertown, and Miss Helen Huling, also of that city, were quietly married in Philadelphia Saturday morning. After the ceremany, the happy couple took the train for Atlantic City, where they spent their honeymoon. The many friends of the newlyweds here wish them a happy and prosperous journey over the matrimonial sea.

A wedding of interest to the young folks of Chestertown is scheduled to take place shortly. The couple are splendid young people and the TRANSCRIPT wishes them great happiness and success.

A marriage license was issued on June 11th for Mr. Spry Cumberford and Naomi Hickman, of Kent; and on June 14th, one for George E. Wise, and Catherine O'Toole, of Baltimore city.

The Price of Wheat.

There are indications that the "bears" are already at work preparing for the purchase of this year's wheat crop. The price has declined several cents per bushel within the past few days in spite of the recent shipment of 2,700,000 bushels to Europe, and of the government's estimate of only a normal harvest this year. The danger to trans-Atlantic shipping is emphasized, and reports of an unusually large yield here are being circulated through the newspapers. While we deprecate the conditions that make the price of breadstuffs abnormally high, we contend that the farmers and not the middlemen and speculators should profit by it, and would urge farmers to be slow in selling their wheat. There is every reassn to believe that the foreign demand will be greater the coming year than it was last. The surplus is nearly gone and the millers' and flour dealers' stocks are reduced to a minimum. The domestic demand is expected to be heavy with the first run. The millers have less stock undelivered at this season than ever before and the great mills must be stocked rapidly. Wheat sold at the end of July last year at 85 cents per bushel; at the end of August, $1.06; at the close of the year, $1.32, climbing to over $1.70 in March. Thus it can safely be assumed that the bulk of the wheat was out of the farmers' hands long before the high tide in prices, and this should lead farmers to be cautious and not be stampeded into rushing the new crop to market because the price is declining as harvest approaches. It is not likely to reach the level of last July, nor the high figure of March may not reached again, but with the exercise of care and good judgment the men who raise the wheat may reap a large share of the high price.

IN THE CHURCHES.

The following have been appointed from the M. E. Church as delegates to Atlantic City to the great prohibition convention: Mr. M. A. Toulson, church; Mr. H. H. Klinefelter, Sunday school; Mr. Nerman Jefferson, Epworth League.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, June 20th, as follows: 9 30 A. M., Sabbath school, 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, subject: "The Second Coming of Christ; is it Near at Hand?" Twilight service beginning at 7 P. M. and lasting one hour—spirited song service.

The Methodists of Kent, Queen Annes and Talbot counties held a meeting in Centreville M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon and evening in the interest of the Conference Claimants Fund of the Wilmington Conference.

The special meeting which was to have been held last Sunday at Worton Presbyterian Church will be held next Sunday, June 20th. All interested members will please attend as the business is very important.

Pomona Items.

Bond M. E. Church was filled Sunday evening last with a splendid audience to enjoy the annual Children's Day program of the Sunday school. The collection amounted to $41.

Mrs. Walter S. Trew has been quite sick at her home the past week.

Mr and Mrs. J. Henry Baker, Jr., of Baltimore, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Baker.

Mr. C. C. Brown, Jr., of Philadelphia, was the guest over Sunday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brown.

Base-ball Notes.

The Golt's base-ball nine defeated Still Pond last Saturday afternoon in a very interesting game by the score of 7 to 5. The feature of the game was the pitching of Rube Hoffecker for Golts. He didn't allow the Still Pond batters a hit in the six innings that he worked. Batteries—Golts, J. W. Moffett, Hoffecker and B. Moffett. Still Pond—Gosling, Thompson and Jones. The Golt's manager would like to hear from Chestertown again.

BALTIMORE'S BEST STORE

Hochschild, Kohn & Co.

Howard and Lexington Streets

Baltimore's Best Store is the Store With a Smile

No, the store itself doesn't smile, but everybody in it does. We have here a store family of nearly 1400 contented, happy people. Contented, because they are receiving a fair compensation for their services—a compensation which they themselves regulate in proportion to their own effort and efficiency. Happy, because they are fairly treated, and because their only concern is to see that every customer is given courteous, honest, helpful service.

It is a store which you will like to visit—not the cold, awe-inspiring business machine which many department stores are, but a human store—a store with a personality—an organization of nearly 1400 souls with but the single purpose of serving you well—and smilingly.
