IS IT not funny that the State Tax Commission should feel itself compelled to employ two lawyers as counsel to the commission? Judge Leser has just stepped down from the bench and is regarded as the leading authority on the question of taxation in the State. Senator Gorman is a lawyer, as is also Lewin W. Wickes, the other member of the board. And to clap the climax Allen Girdwood, the man who drew the plan which formed the basis for the organization of the State Tax Commission, and an expert on the theory and practice of taxation, is a lawyer also. Now, can anybody under the sun tell why four lawyers of years of experience should need to employ two other lawyers, Edmond Hammond, of Howard county, and William W. Beck, of Kent county, at salaries of $2,500 a year, unless for political reasons pure and simple? And yet there was to be no politics in this august State Commission.

RECEIVERSHIP proceedings against the La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, owned by former Senator Lorence, and prosecution of its officials for alleged criminal acts seems to be inevitable. The State courts have been asked to take charge of the $1,000,000 Lorimer-Munday bank. Criminal violation of the banking laws, and alleged contribution to campaign funds with a view to controling Chicago city appointments are the causes of the bank's affairs getting into court. This Mr. Lorimer is the man whom Senator John Walter Smith voted to retain in the Senate of the United States after a committee of the National Senate had investigated Lorimer's political transactions. Senator Smith stated in defence of his vote for Lorimer that he believed that Lorimer had been lynched. In the light of the disclosures in the Chicago banking circles during the past week, it is a pity the "lynching" was so humane.

THE Baltimore evening papers are responsible for the report that the friends of Senator John Walter Smith on the Eastern Shore are lining up behind Wm. W. Beck, of Kent, as the candidate for Congress in the First District. The same report also states that the Smith influence may support James T. Bright, of Queen Annes, for the short term, caused by the resignation of Congressman Covington. What is the meaning of all this sudden recognition of Kent county Organization Democrats? Lewin W. Wickes has a $5,000 job, thanks to Senator Smith, and Wm. W. Beck has a $2,200 or $2,500 job as counsel to Mr. Wickes' Tax Commission, thanks to the same power, and is being tooted for Congress. Is this sudden recognition due to the fact that the Anti-Organization faction has so weakened Smith's Organization in Kent that he must rush to their assistance with fat jobs, etc.? Looks like there is something to that. They must have some power behind them to win.

THE fact that the Board of County Commissioners is composed exclusively of farmers, and that these farmers refused to appropriate $750 of the taxpayers' money for demonstration work is an evidence that as a rule the farmers derive very little benefit from demonstrations which are conducted so infrequently and at such remote points that only a very small portion of our farmers can avail themselves of the work, as to render it inexpedient to appropriate such a large sum from which such small benefit can be derived. In our judgment the commissioners displayed better judgment than did the delegates in the Legislature who passed this money bill. The last Legislature was a record-breaker for the amount of money for which expenditure was provided, and the Kent county representatives did their full share in passing these money bills. The Organization's fondness for spending the tax-payers' money is so keen that if they were in control of the commissioners' office there is no telling how high the taxes would go.

WHY DON'T KENNEDYVILLE ACT

We read Mr. John Medders' letter in the TRANSCRIPT last Saturday with a great deal of interest, and the thought occurred to us while reading the letter: "Why don't the trustees and patrons of the Kennedyville school and those tax-payers in the Second District who want a new school building compel the school board of this county to buy a lot and erect a comfortable school building for that town?" If conditions are such as Mr. Medders states they are, and we believe from what we know of conditions there, that Mr. Medders' statements are correct, why have not the patrons of Kennedyville school compelled the school board to relieve such conditions long ago? Such a condition has existed in Kennedyville for a year or more, and it is a disgrace to a county school board that it would permit such a condition to exist on their property. They would not tolerate it as private citizens, and as the servants of the public they have no legal or moral right to allow conditions to exist around the county's school property such as Mr. Medders describes. It is needless for the school board to contend that it has not sufficient funds to erect a comfortable school building at Kennedyville. The present board has actually the same amount of money at their disposal as the Democratic board had two years ago when it built a new school building at Pomona and another at St. Paul's Church, costing something like $2,600, paid all of its current expenses and had a balance at the end of the year of $1,827. The present board could have erected a very comfortable school building at Kennedyville last summer for $2,500 and given the patrons of the school the relief they are seeking, and instead of asking tax-payers to bond the county for $6,000 to build a school building in Kennedyville, the patrons of the school should assert their rights and compel the school board to erect a building such as will meet the requirements and be more pleasantly located.

THE QUINTESSENCE OF INSINCERITY.

In replying to the strong letter of Senator Blair Lee in reference to federal patronage, Senator John Walter Smith says:

"I always held that patronage did not belong to you or to me; that no man, no faction, should have a monopoly, that it was for the party as a whole. My practice has always been to heal differences, etc."

There never was a more untruthful statement from the pen of any man than the above. President Wilson appointed Mr. W. Finley Collins postmaster in Millington during the short session of Congress in 1913, and Senator Smith fought the appointment and prevented its confirmation until the close of the session. President Wilson appointed Mr. Collins a second time, and up to the present time Senator Smith has refused to confirm Mr. Collins' appointment. If Senator Smith believes that patronage does not belong to him alone, and that no faction should have monopoly of it, why has he not confirmed the appointment of Mr. Collins? For no other reason under the sun than that Senator Smith is a monopolist of the most pronounced type, and he has prevented the confirmation of Joshua W. Miles and Mitchell Diggs as Internal Revenue Collector and Naval Officer, for no other reason than that Senator Smith is determined, so far as he is concerned, to appoint or have appointed no man to office in the State of Maryland who is not the rankest kind of a Smith partisan. We do not hesitate to charge that Senator Smith is directly responsible for the existence of factionalism in the Democratic party in Maryland to-day on account of his selfish political methods, and if the remainder of his reply to Senator Lee is no more sincere or reliable than the one we have quoted, the people of this State should brand him as a falsifier of the worst type.

WHY SUCH A CONDITION?

IT IS a sad commentary upon Maryland's regard for law if it be true that the provisions of our primary law are such as make it possible for only rich men to run for the United States Senate. We do not believe that only rich men can become candidates for Governor, or for Congress, or for the General Assembly, though we are by no means ree to confess that there are no evidences to indicate that men have been elected to the General Assembly of the State by the use of money. The impression that only rich men may become candidates for the United States Senate seems to be the deterent influence in securing a candidate against Senator John Walter Smith, whose wealth is reported to be measured by millions, and who is reported to be exceedingly liberal in the expenditure of his money, both in his home county and throughout the Eastern Shore. Some politicians admit that it is Smith's money and not his ability or personal popularity that enables him to keep his grasp upon the party machinery on the Eastern Shore. Now, if this be true, what a reflection it is upon the intelligence of Maryland's voters. It makes slaves of our intelligent voters and places the balance of power in the hands of the ignorant and debauched class of our electorate. We do not believe there was ever a more opportune time for a change in our representation in the United States Senate than in the successor to Senator Smith. The senior Senator is not popular with the great mass of Maryland voters; he is not in sympathy with the fundamental principles of Democracy, nor is he at heart in sympathy with the trend of modern political thought. And yet as weak a candidate as Smith is from the standpoint of true Democracy, and notwithstanding the ease with which the right type of man could defeat him for election to the Senate, there is not a man in Maryland who thus far can be induced to fight Smith, because of his MONEY. We submit that such a condition is deplorable. Such a condition places the State of Maryland in a most unenviable light before the world. We have a Corrupt Practices Act designed to prevent corruption and bribery in elections. We have an intelligent electorate sufficiently powerful we believe, to drive any man to political oblivion who seeks to buy his way to office, and yet not a man in Maryland of Senatorial caliber can be induced to fight Smith because of the impression that Senator Smith is a millionaire. We do not know whether Senator Smith will have an effective opposition or not, but if he does not, in this time when he is the most unpopular candidate who could be selected by the party for election to the Senate because of his political record, the lack of opposition will be a degrading admission that Maryland's Corrupt Practices Act is a farce, and her Primary Election law was made for the benefit of only the rich.

LEE FIRES A BROADSIDE.

Senator Blair Lee fired a broadside into the political camp of Senator John Walter Smith last Saturday, when in a paid article in the Baltimore Sun, he virtually charged Senator Smith with political insincerity in regard to federal patronage. In speaking of Senator Smith's position in refusing to confirm the President's appointments recently made, Senator Lee says:

"If Senator Smith's State policy is extended to the general Federal appointments of excluding all other elements of the party except his close factional friends the effect will necessarily be to confuse, perplex and dishearten the other elements, which I believe represent a majority of the party in the State, and which must be relied upon to do their full share in contributing to the success of the party at general elections.

"When the general election comes next fall all elements of the party will, of course, be called upon as in the past, to use their utmost endeavor to bring every voter to the support of the Democratic candidates. There will be no candidates in the field except for United States Senator and members of Congress.

"With an entire new registration and the possibility of the Republican party becoming united, the situation presented in the State is not free from danger. It seems to me that Senator Smith and his friends ought seriously to consider whether they should make our task as difficult as it would be if they would succeed in their present exclusive and proscriptive methods."

M. P. Conference Called in Special Session.—President Lyman E. Davis has called a special session of the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church to meet in Columbus, Ohio, July 15th. The object of the special session is to take action upon the proposed union between the Methodist Protestant and United Brethren churches. The delegates representing the Maryland Conference have not been officially notified of the meeting, and will not attend.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

The Commencement Exercises of the 132d Year Attended by Large Crowds.

INTERESTING FEATURES—FINE ADDRESSES —MANY DEGREES CONFERRED.

The 132d annual commencement exercises of Washington College began on Sunday morning in William Smith Hall with a most able baccalaureate address to the graduates by President James W. Cain. A choir of the students of the college and singers from town under the direction of Mrs. James W. Cain, added pleasure to the occasion by rendering fine music.

The sermon to the Young Men's Christian Association was delivered by Rev. D. H. Steffens, D. D., of Baltimore, who chose for his subject, "Let Your Moderation be Known Among All Men." The speaker counselled moderation in all our dealings with our fellowmen, and made a strong plea for the simple rather than the strenuous life.

MT. VERNON NIGHT.

The sixty-seventh anniversary of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society, always one of the most interesting features of commencement week, was held on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The orator of the occasion was Hon. L. Irving Handy, former Congressman from Delaware, who delivered a masterly address upon the subject: "In Our Day and Generation." Interesting and pleasing music was rendered by Weber's Fifth Regiment Orchestra.

DECLAMATION CONTEST.

The Declamation Contest for the Simpers medals was held in William Smith Hall on Tuesday morning, and was attended by a large crowd. There were four contestants, who, with their subjects, were as follows:

Declamation, "The Death of Garfield"—Elwood Farrell Bowen, Pocomoke City, Md.
Declamation, "Reflections of War"—Herbert Fulton Davis, Darlington, Md.
Declamation, "The Death Bed of Benedict Arnold"—Thomas Blackburn McCloud, Ridgely, Md.
Declamation, "The Legend of Bregenz"—Carmeta Russell, Chestertown, Md.

The judges—S. Scott Beck, Esq., Rev. Walter E. Gunby and Calvin T. Ryan, awarded first prize to Thomas Blackburn McCloud, of Ridgely, and second prize to Miss Carmeta Russell, of Chestertown. Weber's Fifth Regiment Orchestra, of Baltimore, rendered inspiring music.

ORATORICAL CONTEST.

A large crowd attended the ora torica contest for the Oates medals on Tuesday evening. The class was not as large as in former years, but what was lacking in quantity it presented in quality. The contestants and their subjects were as follows:

Stephen Roberts Collins, Chestertown, Md.—"The Initiative and Referendum Should Not be Adopted."

William Getty Keller, Grantsville, Md.—"A Fallen Idol."

Miss Ida Orem Smith, Chestertown, Md.—"Society and the Working Man."

The judges, Hon. James E. Ellegood, Salisbury, Md.; Prof. Christian Gauss, Princeton University, and Senator Clarence W. Perkins, of Baltimore, awarded first honor to Miss Ida Orem Smith and second prize to Wm. Getty Keller.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The commencement exercises were held in William Smith Hall on Wednesday morning. The academic procession from Middle Hall to the auditorium was inspiring. Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, of Christ M. P. Church, opened the exercises with prayer. First honor oration—"The Future of the Anglo-Saxon Race," was delivered by Thos. Mitchell Garrett, of Elkton, representative man of the class of 1914. Second honor oration was delivered by William Getty Keller, of Grantsville. The address to the graduates was delivered by Hon. Nicholas Charles Burke, of the Court of Appeals of Maryland. The following diplomas and degrees were conferred:

Bachelor of Arts—Rosalie Cecilia Cain, cum laude, Chestertown; Virginia Mary Cain, cum laude, Chestertown; Walter Edwin Gunby, Dover; Daniel Hersey Hall, Chestertown; Beulah Lieberman, cum laude, Melitota; Ida Orem Smith, Chestertown.

Bachelor of Science—Joseph Russell Branham, Baltimore; Guy Luther Doub, Funkstown; Thomas Mitchell Garrett, cum laude, Elkton; James Ewell Harris, Cambridge; William Getty Keller, cum laude, Grantsville; Howard Worthington Lewis, cum laude, Elkton; William Carey Miles, Germantown; Walter Francis Moore, cum laude, Oxford; Edgar Kaas Pfitsch, Baltimore.

Master of Arts—Mary Rebekah Clough, A. B., Washington College, 1910; Julio del Toro, A. B., Washington College, 1913; Calvin Taylor Rayan, A.B., Washington College, 1911.

Master of Science—Earl Griffith Breeding, A.B., Washington College, 1909; M. D., University of Maryland, 1913.

HONORARY DEGREES.

Doctor of Letters—Christian Gauss, A. B., 1898, University of Michigan; Assistant Professor of Modern Languages, Lehigh University, 1903—1907; Professor of Modern Languages, Princeton University Teaching.

Doctor of Laws—Nicholas Charles Burke, educated at Mount Saint Mary's College; admitted to the Baltimore County Bar, 1875; State's Attorney for Baltimore county, 1885—1887; Associate Judge of the Third Judicial Circuit of Maryland, 1889; Member of the Court of Appeals of Maryland since 1905.

In making his announcements, President Cain referred in a most fitting and eulogistic manner to the acceptance by the Board of Visitors and Governors of the bequest made by the late Senator Garrett Foxwell to Washington College. President Cain paid a beautiful tribute to the great benefactor, and spoke of the resolution which the Board of Visitors and Governors had adopted at their meeting on Saturday night, gratefully acknowledging the bequest.

Following the commencement exercises the class shield was unveiled in the corridor of Smith Hall. This was followed by the Alumni luncheon, the Alumni base ball game, which always attracts a great crowd, and the exercises at night with the usual ball in the College Gymnasium.

Among the graduates and friends present we noted:

Dr. and Mrs. Branham, of Baltimore; Prof. Leo Brown, of Painter, Va.; Henry Sasscer, John Eliason, Carroll Perkins, Messrs. Wheatly, Orell, Withgott, McDorman, Misses Hopkins, Sue Miller, Pearl Griffin, Mary Clark, Jane Rochester, Rev. O. H. Connelly, Hon. James E. Ellegood, Dr. John Mace, Senator Clarence Perkins, Rev. and Mrs. Gunby, of Dover; Paul Wilkinson, Mr. Morton.

Important Notice to Farmers.

The Co-operative Produce Exchange, launched by the members of the Rich Neck Farmers Club of Queen Anne's county something over a year ago, and which has been profitable to the farmers of Kent and Queen Anne's doing business through their Exchange, are addressing the following communications to those who are not stockholders. Should you not receive a letter the management request you to communicate with the Secretary just the same and become one of them. The following is the letter:

CHESTERTOWN, MD., June 16, 1914.

DEAR SIR: Just a word or two in relation to the Farmers Co-operative movement within your reach.

The aim and objects of this organization, as set forth in the articles of incorporation, are "to co-operate in the cultivation, consigning, marketing, buying, selling, and otherwise dealing in all kinds of farm products; to purchase, sell and otherwise deal in all kinds of farm machiney, seeds, phosphates and implements, tools and appliances of every kind used in connection with the cultivation of the soil; to carry on any business which may seem to the corporation to be calculated, directly or indirectly, to facilitate in the transaction of any other business that may be calculated to enhance the value of its property."

Considering the methods and means followed by the individual farmer, is it not obvious co-operation in the purposes as above set forth should prove profitable and wise?

There has been a special meeting of the stockholders called for Saturday, June 27th, at 2 o'clock P. M., at the office of the corporation in Chestertown, to consider further methods for the development of the movement and the advisability of increasing the number of directors from five to nine.

We want every farmer in Kent and Queen Annes counties interested. No matter where you reside, the Exchanage management can be of value to you, as much so with us as in other parts of the country.

Doesn't the proposition appeal to you sufficiently for you to subscribe to a few shares of stock at $10 per share?

Does any one doubt that by bulking your orders with fellow farmers the merchants will give us better prices on phosphates, seeds, implements, &c.? Or by combining farm produce the buyer will give us the advantage of saving of his expenses in running over the country to gather it? Or our demanding better prices and getting them! Stop and think for a minute what a small saving on all your phosphate, farm supplies, &c., or increase of a few cents per bushel on grain and farm produce handled by you will amount to, and see if you are not wise in placing yourself in a position to take advantage of such saving, by subscribing to some of the stock of the Exchange.

It is about time we were practicing some of our preaching, so let more of the community spirit be displayed by joining hands with the sixty or more of your neighbors now subscribers to the Exchange, by filling in the enclosed blank and mailing it in time to participate in the election of the new Board of Directors on the 27th.

By order of the Board of Directors.

TUESDAY, JUNE 30th, 1914,

Between the hours of 11 A. M. and 12 o'clock noon, ALL OF THE FOLLOWING VALUABLE

BUILDING LOTS

Lot No. 1. ALL THAT UNIMPROVED LOT on the northwest side of Queen street, in Chestertown, next east or northeast of the residence of Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., having a frontage of thirty-one feet on said Queen street and a depth of about 200 feet with the right to use an eleven foot right of way along the northeast side in common with the purchasers, their heirs and assigns of the other lots herein described.

Lot No. 2. ALL THAT UNIMPROVED LOT on the northwest side of Queen street, in Chestertown, next east or northeast of the eleven foot right of way above mentioned, and having a frontage of thirty-nine feet on said Queen street and a depth of about 200 feet with the right to use an eleven foot right of way along the southwest side in common with the purchasers, their heirs and assigns of the other lots herein described.

Lot No. 3. ALL THAT UNIMPROVED LOT, including Lot No. 40, on the Plot of Chestertown, and a part of Lot No. 32, on the Plot of Chestertown, and lying back of Lots Nos. 1 and 2, above described, and also east or northeast of the back portion of Lot No. 2, having a frontage of about three hundred and sixty-four feet on the land attached to the Water Works intended to be converted into a park, with the right to use an eleven foot right of way between Lots No. 1 and 2, above referred to in common with the purchasers, their heirs and assigns of the other lots herein described.

These lots are located in a part of Chestertown which must soon increase in value, Lots Nos. 1 and 2 being valuable building lots for residences, and Lot No. 3, by reason of its location, is bound to grow in value, while in the meantime it would be available for smaller tenement houses.

Plots have been made of this property as a whole and in divisions, and same may be seen by prospective purchasers and persons interested either at the office of the undersigned or at the office of Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., in Chestertown.

The decree provides that each of the three divisions or lots shall be offered separately first and then the entire property shall be offered as a whole and to sell in whichever way the most money will be realized.

TERMS OF SALE to be: One-third cash on day of sale, one-third in six months and the other one-third in twelve months from day of sale, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser or purchasers, the credit portion of the purchase price in either case to bear interest from day of sale and to be secured to the satisfaction of the trustee. KRIT $950

WITH ELECTRIC STARTER $1050 F.O.B. Detroit

Why Pay for Useless Weight?

KRIT lightness comes from correct design—not from skimping. 120 pounds in weight is saved by using aluminum for our crank case and transmission case. The sturdy, powerful KRIT motor weighs only 283 pounds, as against 400 to 550 pounds for motors in cars the same size and power of the KRIT. And so on—throughout the car.

Engineers tell us that the KRIT is two years ahead of its field, for it possesses, at $950, the quality features you find in cars at double the price. The sensational sales records made by the new KRIT is an endorsement by critical motorists that proves these experts right.

So, we ask you, what more can you get in a higher priced car? More weight, perhaps, but weight only adds to the expense of upkeep. More rated horsepower, but much of the extra horse power is used up in carrying around the extra weight—and the rest of the excess power you do not need. For the KRIT will take you anywhere you want to go. It will take you there speedily, safe and comfortably.

Learn more about the economical, dependable KRIT—the moderate priced car with the high priced features. A ride will demonstrate to you the rare quality of this car—value you can't get elsewhere at the price.

Look! Table Full of Shoes for 99c per pr. Again

CHILDREN'S, MISSES', LADIES', BOYS' AND MEN'S OXFORDS AND SHOES—"MOSTLY WHITE." Some big bargains from $3.00 down, all go at 99c pair for your choice.

THEN AGAIN! WE HAVE A SMALL JOB LOT OF STAG SEMI-PASTE PAINT (one gallon makes two) that the mice have eaten the color off the can, and we can't tell you what color it is, but think most of it likely to be good colors. This we will sell for $1.45 per gallon while it lasts. We also have some READY-MADE PAINT in about $1.25 to $1.50 quality that we will clean out at 95c per gallon. These two lots are real bargains, and we are simply doing it to clean up all odds and ends in our stock.

We have a complete stock of goods in all our lines, and invite you to come and inspect our stock and prices. We are allowing market quotations for HEN EGGS, and want all we can get. Yours very sincerely,

MARION T. MILLER, • • • • ROCK HALL, MD.
