A GENERAL CAMP MEETING

Will commence on Thursday the 13th of August next, and continue till the morning of Wednesday next following, on the Wye Camp-Ground, in Queen Ann's county. A baker will supply the people with bread, and a pound will be reserved for the horses. The committee of arrangements desire the members to observe, and have others to observe, that all who encamp on the ground will observe simplicity and plainness in their dress. On this same spot several General Camp Meetings have heretofore been held, with the most extraordinary displays of the power and grace of God. Its advantages are too well known to need recital. Ministers and people are invited from all parts, and the prayers of the faithful solicited for the success of the meeting.

N. B. Plank will be on the ground, to be hired to those from a distance for tent-floors.

THE SUBSCRIBER,

Grateful for the liberal patronage he has been favored with since he commenced the PACKETING BUSINESS between Easton and Baltimore, begs leave to return his thanks to those who have honoured him with their custom, and at the same time to assure them, and the public in general, that no expence or exertion will be wanting to render every comfort and convenience to those who may be passengers with him. His new, staunch built and commodious Schooner SUPERIOR, is now in complete order for the reception of Passengers and Grain, and leaves Easton Point every Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, and the Old County Wharf, Baltimore, every Saturday morning at the same hour, wind and weather permitting. This vessel has a large and commodious Main Cabin, fitted up in an elegant and superior style, with all necessary and convenient furniture, and contains 16 Births, and two state rooms, for the convenience of Ladies and private families; and the subscriber will at all times be prepared with the best accommodations which the season affords, together with the best of Liquors. He has also a large and suitable Granary at Easton-Point for the reception of grain, and has engaged Mr. Thomas Parrott, a gentleman of known experience, to superintend his business—During his absence Mr. Parrott is authorised to receive money and to pay for Wheat, &c. carried by the subscriber. These conveniences, and a determination to please, he hopes will ensure a continuance of favours.

The public's obedient servant,

EDWARD AULD.

Easton Point, july 28——8

N. B. The public and his friends are advised that the Packeting Business will in future be conducted by him, and for his sole benefit, as to three-fourths of the profits arising therefrom; and that all persons will in future specify in his absence to his clerk (who is also clerk for Capt. Vickers) to whom their orders are confided, that mistakes may not arise as to the person fulfilling them.

IN COUNCIL, JULY 14, 1812.

Ordered, That the "Further supplement to the act entitled, An act to regulate and discipline the militia of this State," be published twice in each week for the space of three weeks in the Maryland Republican and Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; the Whig, American, Sun, and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; the Star, at Easton; the Republican Gazette, at Fredericktown; and the Maryland Herald, at Hagers Town.

By order—

NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clk. of the Council.

A further supplement to the act entitled, An act to regulate and discipline the militia of this state.

AND BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each commanding officer of a company shall make out and return a correct enrolment of his company to the commanding officer of the regiment or battalion to which he belongs, whenever required; and upon refusal or neglect, to be subject to a fine not exceeding thirty dollars, unless he can make a reasonable excuse, to be approved of by a regimental court martial.

2. And be it enacted, That all able bodied white male citizens of this state, between the ages of eighteen and forty five years, except ministers of the gospel, and except those exempted by the act of congress, shall be liable to stand their draught, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

3. And be it enacted, That all certificates heretofore granted for corporeal inability to persons liable to do militia duty, are hereby declared to be void and of no effect; and that all surgeons of regiments and extra battalions and their mates, who are hereby empowered to grant certificates of corporeal inability, before they proceed to grant any certificate of corporeal inability to any person liable to militia duty, shall first take the following oath or affirmation, before some justice of the peace, to wit, "I do solemnly swear or affirm, (as the case may be) that I will not grant a certificate of corporeal inability to any person liable to do militia duty, through favor or affection, or who in my opinion is not justly entitled to the same, nor withhold it through prejudice or ill will."
