FROM THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN.

RICHES BETTER THAN LEARNING.

That Riches are better than Learning, I hold,
For Riches can keep away hunger or cold;
Can make the pale features of Sorrow to shine,
And cheer up the heart, with a glass of good wine.

No power has Learning, like Riches, to please,
To give us enjoyment, or comfort, or ease;
Neither Rhe'tric or Logic, will answer to pay
For a ticket to go to a ball or the play.

Astronomy does not a stiver of good,
In paying the farmer a bill for our wood;
And Chymistry never can help, in the least,
In buying a Turkey or pig for the feast.

When cold, or when thirsty, or half-starved I stand,
And no food and no raiment I have at command,
Can Hebrew or Latin give warmth to my frame,
Or appetite's cravings can Algebra tame.

They can't, to be sure—and the learned must own,
That comfort's the offspring of Riches alone;
'Tis money enables a fellow to dash,
And ease is the constant attendant on cash.

A HALF-FAMISHED MINSTREL.

EXTRAORDINARY MARRIAGE.

"CUPID YOKES THE DOVES."

It is said of the ancient Athenians, and strangers who were there, that they "spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or hear some new thing."

The following singular occurrence will probably add to the stock of wonders, and give new life and energy to those who have exhausted the old budget of tales, and are ready to famish for want of some new thing to tell or hear.

Married on Wednesday evening the 9th inst by the Rev. Mr. Armstrong, Messrs. Eleazar and John Stodard, two brothers, of Rupert, Vermont, aged 27 years, to Misses Emily and Almira Sill, twin sisters, of Moreau, aged 23 years.—The eldest brother took the youngest sister, and vice versa. The two couple stood together, joined hands respectively and were united in the bands of wedlock by one ceremony.

It is said of those gentlemen that they are respectable farmers; that they hold their property in common stock—that they calculate on this method of living in future—and that they had mutually agreed not to marry, unless they could find helpmates as nearly allied in birth and friendship as themselves. It is believed that Heaven has favored their wishes, and put each in possession of his favorite rib.

The ladies are the youngest children of Deacon Giles Sill and Lucy his wife, who are persons of respectable standing in society.

SUBSTITUTING.

The following anecdote has been lately communicated to us, and we willingly publish it:—A youthful citizen had volunteered his services and joined the army under Floyd. On the approach of the first battle, his forebodings that he would not survive the engagement (if he went into one) were so great as induced him to employ a substitute, and return home to his heart's delight—who it seems, was his destined bride.—She had, however, heard of his conduct before his return, and felt a worthy and patriotic indignation at it. At the first interview, after the usual salutation, he informed her that he was now ready to solemnize the object of their engagement—She replied "I must refuse to fulfil my engagement, until you employ a SUBSTITUTE."

NEBUCHADNEZZAR,

IS a dapple sorrel, and is now in high Stud condition, eighteen hands high, proportionably built, and justly formed—is rising eight years old this spring. He was got by the imported hunting horse Emperor, and his dam was got by the old imported dray horse Nebuchadnezzar, out of a Lion mare. His whole family, by sire and dam, are very large and handsome, and excellent for saddle and harness. His colts are large and promissing for any service—The size and form of this horse will assuredly recommend him to the thinking farmer.

Nebuchadnezzar will stand for mares this season, at the following places, to wit—on Tuesdays at Easton; on Thursdays at Wye Mill; on Saturdays at the Trappe, and at other places as the subscriber may think proper, at the price of eight dollars the spring's chance, (but if paid by the first of October next, six dollars will discharge the debt), four dollars the single leap, and twelve dollars to insure with foal, and twenty five cents to the groom, in each case. The season to commence on the first day of April, and to end on the twentieth of June.

The subscriber will furnish good pasturage for mares from a distance, at a moderate price—but no responsibility for accidents.

JAMES DENNY.

OSCAR.

WILL cover mares this season at my farm, near the old Chapel, at nine dollars the single leap, eighteen dollars the season, and twenty five dollars to ensure mares being with foal; and in every case both cover and groom to be paid for, on or before the first day of September next—But with those who prefer paying on or before the 10th day of July next, (on which day the season will expire) I will discount one third from their accounts.

He will be every Tuesday at Easton; every Thursday at Mr. Joseph George's, near the Head of Wye, and on Fridays until six o'clock in the morning; and the remainder of the week at my farm near the old Chapel—where pasturage can be had at $2 per week, grain and hay furnished at market price, (if required) and every care and attention shall be paid to mares from a distance, but will not be accountable for escapes or accidents.

Oscar's blood, and character as a racer, are so well known, that it is unnecessary to say any thing more respecting him

RATRAY,

[Commonly called Rat.]

THE celebrated high bred horse Ratray, will cover mares the ensuing season, on —— at Head-of-Chester, on —— at Sudler's Cross Roads, and on —— at Church-Hill, at the rate of twelve dollars the season, or six dollars the single leap; but if paid by the first day of October, eight dollars for the season, and four dollars for the single leap, will be received in full discharge. As Ratray is a sure foal getter, mares of good character will be ensured on very moderate terms.

He is rising twelve years old, a dark chesnut sorrel, upwards of fifteen hands high, perfectly formed, elegant and active. He was got by the imported horse Clifden—his dam by Fitzpartner, out of Arraminta, who was got by Brimmer, out of Mr. Peyton Randolph's celebrated mare Lovely Lass.

His pedigree is given by Col. Miles Seldon, and Wade Mosby Esq of Virginia—Mr. Mosby, his late owner, says, in his certificate, that his performances on the turf are too well known to need any eulogy, having won 17 or 18 races; but as he did not keep Stud-Book, he could not give all the particulars: And since Mr. Mosby sold him to Mr. Badger, he has won several races*—so that he can boast of having won upwards of twenty purses. He is at this time uninjured in his wind and limbs, and capable of contending with any horse on the Eastern Shore.

Clifden, the sire of Ratray was a fine imported horse, and the same horse that ran the great match race against Dragon, in England—Clifden was rode by Sir John Ladd, and Dragon by the Duke of Bedford. Pasturage will be provided for mares sent from a distance.

James Roberts.

RUNAWAY,

From the subscriber, living near Easton, a negro woman by the name of FANNY, about five feet six or eight inches high, of a blackish complexion, and about thirty years of age, delicately made, flat breast and short woolly head, large projecting mouth, thick lips and full teeth. She was purchased at the sale of Andrew Callender's property, exposed by Joseph Martin, administrator, at the Chappel, in this county, on or about the 1st of July last, and left my service on the 27th of August. She had a variety of clothing—Has a husband by the name of Charles, a black negro, the slave of Peter Edmondson, Esq at Dover Bridge, in this county, and she is supposed to be lurking in the neighbourhood of that place. Whoever will take up and secure said negro, within the State of Maryland, so that I get her again, shall be paid thirty dollars; and if out of the State, fifty dollars, and all reasonable charges if brought home or secured in Easton.

TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY on the 21st of March last, from near Oxford, in Talbot county, the following negro slaves, the property of the subscriber:

JACOB, or Jake, about 26 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, stout, strong and rather clumsily made; his complexion is not very black, and he has usually rather a grim or sour cast of countenance, but when spoken to assumes a placid and obliging manner. He has been accustomed to labour on a farm, and occasionly to work in a garden.

JIM, a very dark mulatto man, about 56 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches in height, with round shoulders and remarkably short thick neck. He has been brought up as a farming hand, accustomed to act upon occasion as a butcher, and is a very good coarse shoe-maker.

His wife, NAN, a black woman, about the same age and height, rather infirm and sickly: has been used to most kinds of house work, and to looking after poultry—she is a very good cook, and an excellent spinner and weaver.

It is conjectured that the first has bent his course upwards, towards Philadelphia or Jersey; but that Jim and Nan are lurking in Dorchester county, somewhere near New Market, where Jim had lately a brother living, one Tom Grace, a blacksmith—or that they have made their way to Baltimore, as it is pretty well ascertained that they went off by water, taking with them a variety of cloathing, bedding, and other furniture, such as negroes usually have.

The above reward will be given for all the said negroes, if taken in the State of Maryland, or the sum of $100 for Jake, $60 for Jim, and $40 for Nan, separately; and the additional sum of $20 to each of the prices, if taken out of the State, and brought back or secured either in the jail at Easton or at Elkton, upon notice given to the subscriber, living in Cecil county, on the river Susquehannah, nearly opposite Haver-de-Grace.

Levin Gale.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

DESERTED from my recruiting rendezvous, on the night of the 19th inst. Charles Mathews, a private in the 13th regiment U. S. Infantry. He was born in Scotland, aged about 28 years, 5 feet 5 3-4ths inches high, of fair complexion, fair hair, blue eyes, and by profession a Pedlar.—He took with him a full suit of uniform clothing; but there is no doubt but he has changed his dress. He is generally known in Pennsylvania as a Pedlar, having been in that business for a considerable time.

The above reward will be given to any person or persons who shall apprehend said deserter, or give information that may lead to his apprehension, to me, or any Military Officer of the U. S. Army. All reasonable expenses will be paid, toward his apprehension; and it is hoped, that all good citizens will endeavor to bring the offender to justice.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, some time in the last of February past, a negro man by the name of STEPHEN, aged 22 or 23, about five feet ten or eleven inches high, of a sprightly countenance, and rather handsomely formed—clothes that he took with him are not recollected. The above fellow is the property of the estate of David D. Barrow, of this county, dec'd.—Six dollars will be paid for him, if apprehended in this county, and the above reward if taken out of the county and secured so that the subscriber gets him again; with all reasonable expenses if brought to Easton, and confined in the jail thereof. It is supposed that he is lurking somewhere about Queen's Town, in Queen-Ann's county. All persons are forwarned from harbouring or employing said fellow at their peril.

Ranaway from the subscriber, on the 27th ult. a bright mulatto bound servant called DANIEL, about seventeen or eighteen years of age, of a slender form, near five feet high, his hair is long and straight, of a light colour and very fine, no resemblance of a negro's wool; the features of his face regular and fine, except his under lip which is large and drops so as to show his under teeth.—Had on and took with him one pair of nankeen pantaloons, one pair cross-barred do. one red spotted vest, one striped coatee, one new pair of shoes, one half worn fur hat, and two half worn muslin shirts, besides a number of other articles, of winter cloathing. The above reward will be given, if secured in any goal so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges if brought home.

All masters of vessels and others are forwarned harboring him at their peril.
