FLOCKING TO LEE.

Leading State Politicians Joining the Constantly Increasing Lee Forces all Over the State.

It is a most significant fact that the leading men of all parts of the State are joining the Lee forces. Each of these men has large influence in their respective counties, and it is a most significant indication of the drift of public sentiment. Here are some of those who have joined the ranks during the past week:

Surveyor of the Port, Guy Steele, of Carroll county, who declares that Senator Lee is the hope of the young Democracy of the State. Mr. Steele is a powerful factor in the politics of Carroll county.

Congressman Charles P. Coady, of Baltimore, who declares that Senator Lee is the strongest candidate the Democrats can nominate.

Walter Warner, appraiser of the Port of Baltimore, former private secretary to Congressman J. F. C. Talbott, who because he wanted to go to the United States Senate when Senator Lee was elected, is now for Harrington. It may be well in this connection to state that since the Smith people are seeking to prejudice the people against Mayor Preston by charging that he has a halter around the necks of the city office holders, and will prevent them from voting as they please, if Senator Smith and Congressman Talbott unloose their halters a little, Mr. Harrington may not get so many votes as he per force will.

Former Senator Johnzie E. Beasman, of Carroll county, who was prominently mentioned earlier in the year as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Maryland, declared for Senator Lee. He says it has been a generation since the Democrats of Western Maryland had a Democratic Governor, and it is now entitled to consideration, and Senator Lee, he says, will be a good Governor for the whole State.

"As I shall not be a candidate for the nomination," said Mr. Beasman, "I have decided to use my influence, whatever it may be, and to ask my friends to support Senator Lee. In my opinion, without in any way reflecting on the ability and character of Mr. Harrington, Senator Lee best represents the sentiment of the majority of the Democrats of Maryland. His record and ability are such as to commend him to all classes of voters as a candidate who will lead the Democratic party to victory.

ENTITLED TO HONOR.

"It is nearly a generation since the Democrats of Western Maryland had a Governor of the State, and that large populous and wealthy section of Maryland is entitled to the honor.

"I believe Senator Lee will make a good Governor for the whole State, regardless of section; that he will administer the affairs of the commonwealth with justice and impartiality, and make a record second to none of the long line of Democrats who have filled the Executive Chair at Annapolis."

Senator Beasman has heretofore trained with the John Walter Smith forces, but he knows what the people are after and he has shown his wisdom in getting behind Lee.

And to cap the climax, we understand that Senator John P. Moore, a business partner for years of Senator John Walter Smith has left the Smith forces in Worcester and has joined the Peoples wing of the party to break the hold of Senator Smith in his own home county. Senator Moore has declared his intention to support Senator Lee and the Lee ticket. Senator Moore is one of the wealthiest and most influential men in Worcester county. He sees the drift of public sentiment, and is said to be sore on Senator Smith because to took up Jesse D. Price for Congress last year. Senator Moore's break with Senator Smith is one of the moss significant events of the present campaign.
