BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

Mr. Edward Crowding has rented Mrs. Ada B. Cochran's Shrewsbury farm in Shrewsbury Neck.

The war scare will likely cause the price of wheat to reach the dollar mark. Local dealers were paying 88 cents a bushel for it yesterday.

Officer Cooper arrested five autoists for reckless driving on the streets of the town on Saturday and Monday. They were fined $1.00 and costs by Justice Kendall.

The last week in July has been the coldest in July for 30 years. There was a light snowfall in the glades around Cumberland, and thick winter blankets were quite comfortable at night here.

In an automobile accident at Betterton last week a Mrs. Vincent was knocked down by Mr. Medford's car, of Massey, and several bones in her arm were broken. The accident was unavoidable.

A Sunday school institute for the Galena district will be held in Chesterville M. E. Church (South) on Wednesday next, Augut 5. An interesting program has been prepared for the occasion, and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. James T. Anthony, one of the most progressive farmers in Queen Annes county, is trying the experiment of irrigating his land. He is erecting a 1,700 gallen tank, and will use a gasoline engine to force the water. The experiment is being tried on one acre of ground and will be watched with interest.

A collision occurred on the State Road in Queen Annes near the bridge Saturday night at about ten o'clock between two teams. Both were almost completely demolished. While we were unable to learn the names of the unlucky ones, we learned, however, that one lived in Kent and one in Queen Annes.

Mr. Frank Huey, who is employed with his uncle, Mr. Adam F. Huey at Massey, cut his wrist quite badly on Wednesday on the fair grounds while cranking his uncle's machine.

Mr. John E. Morris, on Mr. Samuel Vannort's farm near Hynson's Chapel, is among the big wheat growers this year, averaging 36 bushels per acre all over. Mr. Wm. J. Beck, on another of Mr. Vannort's farms, got the splendid yield of 30 bushels per acre, while Mr. Wm. Plummer, on the home farm, got 30 bushels also.

Howard Pinder, 12-year-old son of James F. Pinder, of Wilmington, was kicked by a horse and fatally injured Thursday morning on the farm of his uncle, Lum Pinder, about five miles from Sudlersville. The boy lived only about ten minutes after the accident. With another lad the Wilmington boy was driving some colts from the barn yard. It is supposed that he got too close to the heels of one of the anlmals and frightened the horse. He was kicked over the lower portion of the heart and was rendered unconscious. Death ensued in a few minutes. Dr. Foster Sudler, of Sudlersville, was summoned and pronounced the boy dead.

Mr. Phillips was a gentleman of the old school, courtly and gentle, and all who came in contact with him felt his keen enjoyment of the questions of the day and his sense of humor and wit was like a flash of sunshine. To be so beloved by one's family is a true proof that such a life has been crowned with the most deserved success and is a lasting memorial. Funeral services were held from the residence of his son yesterday morning at 10 o'clock conducted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. D.
