FRANK M. MILLER,
Chestertown

picked wild mulberry leaves for the worms with the hope that they would soon be wearing silk dresses like the Parisans, just as the ladies are wearing nothing but white this year as they are in Paris. The French people have decreed it and we have taken it up.

Now, this man stayed quite a while and was paid pretty well. The result of this industry was that a great many lost all they had in some parts of the county. The trees were taken up, the worms fed to the poultry, and this ended the silk worms in this section. So you can readily see that they are getting all they can from the Americans by fraud and by marriage. All this is recalled to me against the French people in regard to suits that are going on in our courts at Baltimore over the property of the granddaughter of Ross Wynans, who was a mechanic and when a young man was one of the best citizens of Baltimore. He had a son who was a mechanic and an engineer who built the railroads in Russia, and married there and made a great deal of money, came back to America and died here an old man. The father died since the war. He was at one time a member of the Legislature and was a man who suffered most everything during the Civil War. The granddaughter married a Frenchman; she has died and her husband wants to get hold of the money which she left her little children.

Peninsula Horticulture Society.

The Peninsula Horticultural Society will hold its next meeting in Wilmington when it will make its biggest and best exhibition of fruits, vegetables and home-canned goods, eclipsing if possible even the fine display made at Easton last winter. Prizes amounting to $1,500 will be given; $300 in three prizes for the best general exhibit of fruit, $25.00 for the best five boxes and $50 for the best ten boxes of apples, with second and third prizes in each class. Then every good commercial variety will be recognized in box packs, and $8 will be alloted to each variety, amounting to nearly $200 in all for this class. Then every variety grown on the peninsula will come to help make a big plate display.

The prizes for vegetables will be larger and more numerous than ever before, and home-canned fruits and vegetables will receive recognition for the first time. There will be a prize of $15 for the best exhibit of fruits and vegetables canned by a housekeeper, $15 for the best exhibit of fruits and vegetables canned by mothers and daughters, the "team work" prize; $15 for the best exhibit of tomatoes by girls in the one-tenth acre canning clubs, $10 for the best exhibit of fruits canned, preserved and jellied from one farm, and finally $5—total $25—for the greatest varieties of ways of canning, preserving and jellying each of the following fruits, namely: peaches, pears and plums, apples and grapes. Everybody on the peninsula is invited to compete for these premiums.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor—Services Sunday, August 2nd, as follows: 10 30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, subject: "The ever Present Friend". 2.15 P. M. Sabbath school and pastor's Bible class. Missionary Day in Sunday school; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service, followed by brief sermon by the pastor—one hour's service. All invited.

Rev. Dr. Watt, district superintendent of the Eastern District, filled the M. E. Church pulpit Sunday. Dr. Barrett will be in the pulpit next Sunday.

No services at Bond Chapel the 2nd and 9th of August on account of the pastor being on his vacation. Mowbray will have Sunday School as usual.

Mr. James L. Bacchus has been substituting as organist at Christ M. P. Church during the absence of the regular organist, Miss Clara Usilton, and everyone has been delighted with his playing.

Arrests for Assaults.

Albert Hudson, a laborer on the State road from Fairlee to Fanuel's Branch, being built by the firm of Betts & Boice, was fined ten dollars and costs for assaulting Mr. Betts with a piece of iron one day this week. Mr. Betts' arm was broken by the blow.

Moses Meekins and Philip Hurd got into an altercation in Morgnec on Wednesday night in which Hurd was arrested and given a hearing.
