Henry Williams for Lee.

Mr. Henry Williams, one of the leading business men of Baltimore City, and a prominent Democrate, advocates the election of Blair Lee for Governor, in the following strong letter to the Sun:

"To the Editor of The Sun—Sir: I shall support Blair Lee because his election as Governor means the perpetuation of the movement for popular goverment in Maryland.

"When he appeared in politics a new force arose, which represented the aspirations of the people, and which was destined to change the atmosphere of politics in Maryland and to give it a new tone.

"Most of the gentlemen who are now fighting him and so frantically express the desire that he should remain in the Senate opposed all the popular movements which he initiated or in which he participated, and they naturally wish that he may be defeated as the candidate for Governor, so that they can resume possession of the State government and restore a standpat administration.

"I do not know Mr. Harrington personally, nor do I know of any measure or policy in the interest of the people with which his name is associated. In the long fight for a State-wide primary did his name figure among its advocates? Did he help in the passage of the Public Service Commission bill? Did he ever take an aggressive stand in favor of any progressive measure? If so, let him or his supporters point to one public act or statement of his in favor of any such measure.

"Many of these gentleman who seem now so anxious that Lee should stay in the Senate, and thus keep out of their way in the administration of the State's affairs, are consistent in one sense, for they not only opposed him for the Senate but opposed him when he was previously a candidate for Govsrnor and opposed every measure he supported.

"The national Adminstration is strong and progressive. The Democrats now have a majority of 17 in the Senate. Lee's term has nearly expired, and if elected Governor he will be succeded by a Democrat. From a party point of view, therefore, it is not necessaay for him to remain in the Senate. But he is sorely needed as Governor to keep Maryland progressive and to protect her from the domination of reactionary influences. This year the progressive Democratic leaders throughout the State demanded of Lee that he should run for Governor; that he sacrifice any inclination he might have had to remain in the Senate, and, as natural leader of the progressive movement, carry it to its logical conclusion, and thus insure the State a progressive administration for the next four years.

"The easiest thing for Lee to do would be to remain in the Senate, but rather than let the reactionaries resume control of the State he accepted the burden of leadership which the situation required.

"The State-wide Primary Election law was designed to permit the peopie themselves to control their government by electing to office the candidates who have fought their battles, who have shown by their public records that they are true to the public interests. In its first trial four years ago Lee, as candidate for Governor, with an organization composed largely of volunteers, swept the counties of the State and failed of the nomination by only one vote. Now, however, the people appreciate their power under the Blair Lee primary law, and they will assert it by nominating and electing him to serve them as the next Governor of Maryland.

Henry W. Williams."

Heavy Rural Mails.

Very few people in Chestertown have any knowledge of the big volume of mail handled by the four rural carriers from the Chestertown postoffice in the course of a month. By actual count made during the month of July by each of the rural carriers, the result is as follows:

Route No. 1, D. B. Kendall, Carrier—Delivered 8845 pieces of all classes of mail and collected 847.

Route No. 2, Thomas Willis, Carrier—Delivered 7892 pieces and collected 1600 pieces.

Route No. 3, C. E. Woods, Carrier—Delivered 9,720 pieces and collected 2,454.

Route No. 4, Fred S. Russell, Carrier—Delivered 6,966 pieces and collected 936.

The total number of pieces handled by the four carriers during the month was 32,923 and collected 5,873, making a grand total of 38,796 pieces.

Route No. 1 serves 140 families.
Route No. 2 serves 120 families.
Route No. 3 serves 154 families.
Route No. 4 serves 115 families.

All out of Sorts

Has Any Chestcrtown Person Never Felt That way?

Feel all out of sorts?
Tired, Blue, Irritable, Nervous?
Back feels lame and achy?
Perhaps it's the story of disordered kidneys—
Bad blood circulating about;
Uric acid poisoning the body.
There's a way to feel right again,
Stimulate the sluggish kidneys;
Do it with Doan's Kidney Pills.
Doan's are recommended by many Chestertown people.
Here's one case.

Mrs. Frank Robinson, Front street., Chestertown, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me after doctor's medicine and all else had failed. I was often dizzy and nervous and my back and head ached. The Kidney secretions also annoyed me. Doan's Kidney Pills did their work well, giving me prompt relief. I am now strong and well."

Price 50c, all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Robinson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
