James G. Beck.

The Kent News last Saturday indorsed every policy for which Senator Lee stands. Now let's make his nomination unanimous.

WE ARE in receipt of a very interesting address by Senator Wm. J. Ogden, delivered to the Beltsville, Md., grange in May last in which he flays the last Legislature for its corrupt and Boss-ridden methods. To-day Senator Ogden is stumping the State and penning articles in the Baltimore Sun in the interest of the very people who controlled the last Legislature, Mr. Emerson C. Harrington and Senator John Walter Smith. Why such a sudden change, Senator. The article was sent to us by a friend in Galena, and we hope to use at least a part of it shortly.

THE Lee candidates for delegates to the State Convention are Elmer E. Leary, Rock Hall; Wm. T. Jones, Millington, and Alwyn Hanson Stavely, Lynch, all of them excellent gentlemen of the highest character. If you want Senator Lee nominated for Governor, it is absolutely necessary to vote for Senator Lee and THESE THREE DELEGATES, because the State Convention, and not the popular vote, nominates the candidate for Governor. So those of you who are for Lee, Copper and Maloy, be sure to vote for these three men and for the three delegates, Elmer E. Leary, Wm. T. Jones and Alwyn Hanson Stavely.

HOW CAN YOU EXPECT REFORM?

How can you expect reforms for the benefit of the tax-payers if Senator John Walter Smith controls the next Maryland Legislature? Senator Smith and his lieutenants created all the useless jobs and commissions in the last Legislature, and his candidate for Governor, Emerson C. Harrington, was Senator Smith's chief lieutenant. It is just as useless for any one to expect Senator Smith, if he controls the next Legislature, to abolish these jobs and commissions which he created, as it is to expect a father to refuse his child a favor. William W. Beck and Howard Turner were Senator Smith's right-hand men. They did everything Senator Smith told them to do and some others, and if they are re-elected they will do precisely as Senator Smith wants them to do again. The people of this county who care anything at all about their own interests, should remember this when they come to vote. Send Beck and Turner back to the Legislature and you give Senator John Walter Smith two votes in the Legislature to do as he pleases with. They can't deny it. Smith had them body and soul in the last Legislature, and he will have them again if the people are foolish enough to renominate them.

THE CITY VS. THE COUNTIES.

Early in the campaign, shortly after the Kent News advocated Mayor Preston for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Lee, who will be the next Governor of Maryland, and before the News got the word as to what to talk about, the John Walter Smith papers all over the shore began a great hue and cry about "The City vs. the Counties." They rang the changes on that issue for several issues until they found it to be a bomerang, and then they started another one—"Why don't Lee stay in the Senate?" And now that Senator Smith's reason for leaving Congress to become Governor has been unearthed, they are getting wobbly on this farcical issue and are turning to the oyster as their only defender of their claim to public recognition. But there is an interesting story connected with this "City vs. the Counties" issue and the appointment of James W. Chapman, Jr., a county man, as a member of the Baltimore City School Board by Mayor Preston is a living refutation of the charge that the city is in anyway hostile to the counties. Mr. Chapman is not the only county man the Mayor has recognized. Senator Clarende W. Perains has not only represented the city in the Senate of Maryland, but he is now counsel to one of the important city boards. A. S. Goldsborough, a Queen Annes' boy, is another county man who has held and still is holding a responsible city position, and we doubt not that there are young men from many more of the counties of the State who are holding positions of prominence and trust by appointment from the mayor. Now, then, it is interesting to note that every one of these county men is heartily in sympathy with the mayor and his policies of administration, and they are working with him for the enlargement and expansion of the great city. Now, if the city were so dead set against the counties and endeavoring to prevent the counties from getting justice, why should the mayor appoint men from the counties to assist him in his administration? We see in Mr. Chapman's appointment to the School Board a lesson for the Organization who have been harping on this city vs. the counties issue, and that is that the mayor will not select a John Walter Smith county man when he wants a county boy to fill some of the important city offices in the future.
