CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

In accordance with our usual custom, we will not publish THE ENTERPRISE during Christmas week, hence this week's issue is the last for the year 1920.

The passing year has been replete with the usual recurring vicissitudes of life. Many bright lights of the world have passed to the great unknown, younger ones are surging to the front. One year seems but a repetition of others.

That all our readers may have a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year is our earnest wish.

"Thy gentle thought—oh, let it sway
In every word and deed to-day!
Thy gentle smile—oh, let it be
Shed for our sake, dear world, in glee!
Thy gentle song—oh, let it chime
In this sweet peace of Christmas time!
No cloud, no shadow—Just awhile,
Good laughter and a little smile,
Sweet cheerfulness, and no harsh word

A REAL CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

The holiday season with its joys and its problems is upon us. What shall we do to add to the happiness of the occasion? Each one of us would like not only to wish our friends a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, but to give them one. We cannot do this by means of ill-considered presents. Thoughtless gifts cause the January ash can to bulge with debris. Only when our gifts have lasting meaning do they carry the true message of good-will which is the spirit of real giving.

We can give happiness and contentment and safety for the future as well as pleasure for the moment. Such gifts are within the reach of all. They are to be found in the Savings Securities of the United States Government. From the 25 cent Thrift Stamp to the $1000 Treasury Savings Certificate, they will carry with them not only the greeting of the season but happiness for years to come. In presenting the child a card with one thrift stamp affixed, you bestow not only a present but a habit which will grow in value as the days pass, for he will wish to fill the card. That little gift will have grown wonderfully before another Christmas comes around, and the recipient will be on the way to a life of independence.

In recommending these lasting gifts, the savings Division of the Treasury does not suggest that a single American curtail his Christmas giving. It suggests only that he broaden it to include this present which will bring future well-being to those he loves.

Thrift Stamps, Saving Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates will be on sale throughout the year 1921. In continuing the sale of Government Savings Securities, the Government is giving the opportunity to every man, woman and child in the land through the coming year to enjoy the happiness, prosperity and contentment which is found in financial independence and security for the future. In Memoriam.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son, Joseph Elmer Hall, who departed this life, Dec. 4, 1920, in the 22d year of his age.

Gone, but not forgotten,
And never will those be,
For as long as life and memory lasts,
I will always think of thee.

It was hard to see him die,
But we must be resigned
To Him who is too wise to err,
Too good to be unkind.
—By his loving Father and Mother.

Order of Publication,

In the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Md. No. 1362 N. E.
McKinley Curtis, Plaintiff, vs.
Ellen Fenwick Curtis Defendant.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a divorce a Vinculo Matrimonii from the defendant.

The bill states that on or about the 11th day of July, 1916, the Plaintiff was married to his wife, Ellen Fenwick Curtis, the defendant, with whom he resided in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, until the 3d day of April, 1917.

2. That though the conduct of your Orator toward his wife, the said Ellen Fenwick Curtis, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Ellen Fenwick Curtis, has without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted him and has declared her intention to live with him no longer and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years and is deliberate and final and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

That the said defendant is a non resident of the State of Maryland residing inthe City of Washington, District of Clumbia.

To the end therefore.

That your Orator may be divorced a Vinculo Matrimonii from the said Ellen Fenwick Curtis.

That your Orator may have such other and further relief as his case may require.

May it please your Honors to grant unto your Orator, the order of publication giving notice to the said Ellen Fenwick Curtis, of the City of Washington, District of Columbia who is a non-resident of this State, of the object and substance of this bill and warning her to be and appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor on or before a certain day to be named therein to show cause, if any she has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

It is thereon this 24th day of November, 1920, ordered by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland, in equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said St. Mary's County, once in each of four successive weeks, before the 1st day of January, 1921, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warning her to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 20th day of January, 1921, next, to show cause if any she has, why a decree should or ought not be passed as prayed.

Sedan	795.	with dual electric starting and lighting system and demountable rims
Truck Chasis	$545	with pneumatic tires and demountable rims

These prices f. o. b. Detroit.

The Ford Motor Company makes this reduction in the face of the fact that they have on hand immediate orders for 146,065 cars and tractors. The Company will suffer a temporary loss while using up the material bought at high prices. They are willing to make the sacrafice in order to bring business back to a going condition as quickly as possible and maintain the momentum of the buying power of the country. Henry Ford says: "The war is over and it is time war-prices were over There is no sense or wisdom in trying to maintain an artificial standard of values. For the best interests of all it is time a real practical effort was made to bring the business of the country and the life of the country down to regular pre-war standards."

We are at your command, with regular Ford efficiency in service and eagerness, to fill your orders.
