THE CITY STORE---THE HUB

GREAT CLEAN-UP WEEK

Will be of great importance to every man, woman and child. Clean-up week will be more than an average sale.

Clean-up week will be a week, which we will turn five selling weeks into one.

To accomplish this wonderful selling week—

We Must Place

before you bargains that have never been equalled before. We ourselves have given good bargains during our business career. But this one week selling will be out of the ordinary.

During This Week

we will offer Men's and Women's Clothing, Furnishings, Hats, Shoes and Dry Goods at prices that will challenge the entire merchandising world. Values so replete with startling slashes in price and—of quality that no matter where you go or how long you look, you will not find anything to surpass them.

Superior Excellence

This Big Clean-up Starts Monday, Aug. 30th, and Ends Sept. 7th

so you can come with the full assurance of buying the BEST GOODS at prices never witnessed before.

Order of Publication

Charles H. Blanchfield vs.
Emma M. Blanchfield

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity. No. 1922.

The object of the Bill of Complaint is to procure a decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:

1. That on or about the —— day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five, one Charles H. Blanchfield was married to his wife, Emma M. Blanchfield, with whom he resided in Townsend, in the State of Delaware, until the year nineteen hundred and ten.

2. That though the conduct of your orator towards his wife, the said Emma M. Blanchfield, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Emma M. Blanchfield, without any just cause or reason, abandonod and deserted him, and has declared her intention to live with him no longer, and that such abandonment has continued for at least three years uninterruptedly, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of a reconciliation.

3. That your orator and said defendant have one child living, named Bertha Blanchfield, about seventeen years of age, who resides with her mother, the said Emma M. Blanchfield, in the City of Wilmington, in the State of Delaware.

4. That your orator has resided in Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, since the month of September, 1912.

It is thereupon, this 5th day of August, 1915, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent county, in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of September, next, giving notice to the said Emma M. Blanchfield, non-resident defendant, and warning her to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 24th day of September, next, to show cause, if any she has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

AT LAST

Here is a powerful little machine which does the work of five horses—never gets tired—costs less for fuel than horse feed AND STOPS EATING WHEN IT STOPS WORKING.

Because it travels continuously and faster than horses, ONE MAN with the BULL TRACTOR can plow more than TWO MEN with two three-horse teams. Pulls your Plows, Seeders, Harvesters, Mowers, Drills, Disks and then does any belt work requiring up to twelve-horse power. Guaranteed as long as you own it. Saves you money every day you use it.

Write at once for Descriptive Illustrated Booklet and special offer to farmers.

A Public Demonstration will be given upon the arrival of a carload lot now in transit. Full particulars as to time and place announced later.

SPECIAL PRICE ON BOILER TUBES.
