CHAUTAUQUA.

Chautauqua week was a brilliant success financially, socially and from an educational standpoint. Large crowds attended the sessions, all of which were so full of good things for the mind and heart that a treat was missed when one session was lost. Mrs. Gregory, the superintendent, has kept things on the move during the entire program, and she has proven a forceful and entertaining lecturer. The musical numbers of the program have been far above the standard in this Chautauqua, and it would be difficult to find the country over more skilled artists than have occupied the stage during the week and today the crowning musical feature of the entire week will be Victor and his great band. This is one of the greatest bands in the country and our people should make an effort to hear it. Victor and his band will give a sacred concert tomorrow evening, and there will be an address by Dr. Harmon. Seats free. While we express our appreciation of the delightful musical events, we do not desire to discount the lecturers, etc. All were exceptionally good, but as compared with last year's program, it was not up to standard. Mr. Osgood, on the Panama Canal, Judge Wanamaker, Ross Crane, Mr. Plumstead, Mrs. Smith, the College Players in Twelfth Night, Judge Ben Lindsey and Dr. Waters have been fine and have given all of their audiences much food for thought, but as compared with Frank Dixon, Secretary Bryan, Senator Gore and Dr. Parkes Cadman, who contributed to last year's delightful program, this years list of speakers was not as elaborate at any rate, as was that of last year, and yet this year's Chautauqua was just as good, and in many respects better than last year, and certainly the hearty reception given by our people to those who took part in the program was cordial and warmhearted. Chautauqua has undoubtedly come to stay in Chestertown, which is proving one of the best Chautauqua towns in the entire circuit. Next year's Chautauqua is assured. The local committee of guarantors, led by Dr. H. B. Simmons, president, C. Norman Jefferson, secretary and Thomas S. Bordley treasurer have done their work nobly and the committee looks forward to next year's Chautauqua confident of success, and feeling pretty "chesty" with a substantial balance in the treasury.

The Juniors, under the direction of Miss Lacy, assisted by Miss Rebecca Toulson, have had an enjoyable and profitable time. They have been holding sessions every morning and on Thursday they enjoyed a picnic in Klinefelter's woods. This afternoon the climax of their Chautauqua work will be reached, when they will give a carnival in Chautauqua tent, illustrative of what they have learned, etc. The children have had a rare good time and have been exceptionally well-behaved.

Teachers Institute.

The teachers of the county have been assembled in Annual Institute during the week, and the sessions have been profitable and enjoyable. Aside from the visiting instructors, Dr. M. Bates Stephens and Prof. Wilcox, Superintendent L. J. Smyth did the very wise thing of selecting his teachers to give lectures and practical illustrations of the work of the school room and they did it remarkably well. Many of the teachers in the county had some part in the very profitable program, and the innovation added greatly to the interest and profit of the sessions, though the work of Prof. Wilcox was fine, and the address of Dr. Stephens such as only he can give. Then too the work of the institute was so arranged that, the teachers had the pleasure of attending the Chautauqua, and they will go forth to their work after another week's rest equipped for the duties of another arduous and successful year. The sessions were enlivened by sweet music, instrumental and vocal by Mr. T. Kemp Bordley, Mr. Thomas W. Perkins, Mr. Jewell Armstrong, Miss Helen Boyd, Misses Smyth and Russell, Miss Anna Mae Ayres. The institute was one of the most enjoyable held in years, notwithstanding the fact that the hotels and boarding houses of the town were so crowded that convenient apartments were at a premium.
