Base-Ball Notes.

NO HIT, NO RUN GAME.

Galena defeated the strong Parkside team of the Delmarvia League last Saturday on the former's grounds. One of largest crowds of the season was present. Hanson Horsey, former Tri-State League star was in fine form, 16 men going by the strike out route, and but 27 men faced him in the entire game.

SCORE BY INNINGS:

		R	H
Galena	0 1 3 0 0 1 1 1 x	7	10

The Galena Base-ball Club will play two games next week at Galena. Wednesday, Oct. 6, Chestertown, and Saturday, October 9th, Elkton. The game with Chestertown will no doubt be the greatest game ever played in Kent county, Md., Galena claiming to have the best ball club ever organized in this section, and Chestertown has already challenged this claim, but Galena has already shown great efficiency, having defeated Middletown 20 to 8; Elkton 1 to 0, aud the Park Side team of Wilmington, Del., 7 to 0, and the management of the Galena Club will make an extra effort to strengthen the team for this game, feeling that Chestertown will bring the best players available. The people will have an opportunity of seeing such ball players as Mulman, Gibbs, Jarman, Hoover and Horsey. The probable batteries will be Horsey and Mulman for Galena, and Jarman and Robinson for Chestertown. The game with Elkton, Saturday, Oct. 9, will be the third of a series of three games and should be an exceptionally interesting one should Elkton defeat Galena at Elkton, Saturday, Oct. 2, giving each a game with the tie to be played on the 9th.
