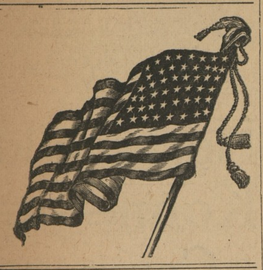
THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

Saturday, Dec. 7, 1918.



HON. CARTER GLASS has been named by President Wilson to succeed Mr McAdoo as Secretary of the Treasury.

PRESIDENT WILSON left America last Wednesday on the transport "Geo. Washington," for France to attend the International Peace Congress, which is to be held in Versailles, France, in January, 1919. The President and the other peace delegates sailed from New York.

F. JULIAN BAILEY DEAD

F. Julian Bailey, a life-long friend of the editor of the Transcript, died Friday of last week. Mr. Bailey has frequently visited in Kent county, sometimes socially and other times in the capacity of his profession. He was always a welcome visitor to our home and to our office. The Baltimore Sun speaks of him editorially as follows:

"Now drifts from our sight F. Julian Bailey, who for some thirty-five years was one of the most widely-known and generally beloved newspaper men of this state.

"In his work there was nothing of latter-day sensationalism, exaggeration or bill-poster methods, but there were few newspaper men whose knowledge of news, whose sanity, cool-headedness, dependability, efficiency, exceeded his. But better even than his work was the man himself. He was thrown intimately with politicians and legislators in the days when money flowed like water and men around him were lining their pockets as a matter of course, but he passed through the muck with never a stain on his honor or his self-respect. Graft was as foreign to Julian Bailey as would have been the idea of disloyalty to a friend or to his newspaper. He would not have known how to do a dishonorable act, or to advance himself at the expense of a friend, or, indeed, anybody else. He lacked aggressiveness in his own interest, he was a poor self-advertiser, but he had a heart of gold.

The death of such a man is a loss to the state, to The Sun, but most of all to those who knew him best and loved him. God rest his soul."

TUESDAY

Grand Jury brought in true bills against Horace Graves, John Budd Lindsay, James Parker, Harry Gardner and presentments against Charles Watson and Samuel Sheppard.

WEDNESDAY

Dexter and Carpenter vs. Howard Clendaniel, for payment for coal purchased by Mr. Clendaniel. Mr. Clendaniel refused to pay for the coal because the parties to whom Mr. Clendaniel sold the coal could not use it because of its inferior quality. Dexter & Carpenter sued for $6 per ton. The jury rendered a verdict for Dexter & Carpenter for $4 per ton.

John Anderson vs. Edgar P. Young for difference in price on some cows. Court trial, verdict for Anderson for $136.92.

Grand Jury brought in true bills against William Graves, John H. Johnson, Charles Watson, Alice Parker and Samuel Sheppard. Grand Jury brought in its report, as follows, and was discharged:

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Circuit Court For Kent Co., State of Maryland.

Gentlemen.—We, the Grand Jury, drawn for the October term of the Court for 1918, respectfully submit our report as follows:

We have been in session four days, have examined three constables and 30 witnesses, issued 5 summons, have made 9 presentments and found 9 true bills.

We have also inspected the jail and premises and find the same clean and well kept.

Certain repair work, however, should be done. We found several locks on prisoners cells to be in an unsafe condition. Several cells are entirely unfit for occupancy because of broken window panes.

We also found the bath-room on the second floor and the toilet on the first floor badly in need of repair.

In view of the near approach of winter, the Grand Jury respectfully recommends that these much needed repairs be made at once.

The Grand Jury also found a bad case of consumption as an inmate in the jail and we feel that his presence there endangers the health of the other occupants, and we recommend that, if possible, the case be removed to some suitable place.

The Grand Jury wishes to state that our work has been greatly delayed from the first session because of the failure of so many witnesses to respond promptly to our call.

Furthermore, the Grand Jury desires to express its appreciation of the courtesies extended to us by the Court and all its officers in the services they have rendered us in the performance of our duties.

Respectfully submitted,
M. WILBER THOMAS, Foreman.

THURSDAY

The following were tried before the court:

James Parker for illegal use of horse; verdict guilty; parolled in custody of Mr. Malon P. Lee.

Alice Parker plead guilty and parolled to Herbert W. Walbert for one year.

Ben Wilmer's case continued.

Samuel Sheppard guilty of larceny of flour from Medford Brooks; sentenced to 18 month in House of Correction.

John Budd Lindsey plead guilty to assault and battery and sentenced to 60 days in jail.

John H. Johnson's plea of not guilty confessed by the state.

Court adjourned to the 3rd Monday in January.
