Grange Notice

At a special meeting of Chestertown Grange No. 248, held November 26, it was ordered that we have a meeting of said Grange on Wednesday, Dec. 18, at 2.30 p. m., to reorganize the Grange, lubricate its machinery, elect officers for ensuing year and transact other business of vital importance that may come before us. We are doing well and with the hearty co-operation of our membership will do better and our meetings prove more interesting and profitable than in the past. Chestertown Grange was the only Grange in Kent county represented on the floor of the State Grange held in Westminister, Md., December 2nd, 3rd and 4th, which speaks volumes for interest which this Grange takes in Grange work. Come out in full force and let us have a record breaking sprint for 1919. We earnestly desire and expect a full attendance of our membership.

By order
BESSIE N. MORRIS, Secretary.
