TO OUR PATRONS

We take this means of expressing our sincere appreciation to the many friends of this store for their liberal patronage during the year nineteen-eighteen.

Our wish for the coming year is

"May the end of a perfect day be yours,
When the evening stars appear;
And may every day be a perfect day,
To the end of a perfect year."

Our aim for the year will be to make it pleasant and profitable for you to purchase dependable merchandise at this store.

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

WEDDINGS

On Saturday afternoon last at 1 p. m. Miss Hannah Maude Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson, and a popular young school teacher, became the bride of Mr. W. H. Whiteley, Jr., a prominent young farmer of near Kennedyville. At the appointed hour to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Miss Bessie Jewell, of near Kennedyville, the couple unattended marched to the parlor, which had been beautifully decorated, where they were met by Rev. J. L. Ward, who performed the ring ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of navy blue with hat and gloves to match, the groom wore the conventional black. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served, after which the happy young couple left by automobile amid showers of rice, etc., for a wedding tip to northern cities and places of general interest. They will reside on the Crow farm, near Kennedyville, and will be at home after Jan. 20. They received many beautiful presents.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dwyer, on High street Chestertown, Saturday at 12 o'clock noon, when Miss Eva Mae Dwyer, their daughter, became the bride of Mr. Walter Lee Walbert, of near Chestertown. Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, performed the ceremony that made the happy young couple man and wife. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Walbert left for a honeymoon trip to Philadelphia and other northern cities. The bride is one of the most popular young school teachers of Kent county, while the groom is a prominent young farmer of Kent.

A quiet wedding took place at Sacred Heart Church, Chestertown, last Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. F. Earner officiating, when Miss Marie R. Camp became the bride of Mr. Notley O. Wilson. Miss Camp is a popular school teacher of Rock Hall, while Mr. Wilson is a well known farmer of Eastern Neck Island.

Mr. J. S. Silcox and wife announce the wedding of their daughter, Anna Helen, to Wilson Groves, on last Saturday, December 28, at Kennedyville. They will be at home after Jan. 15.

Horticultural Society To Meet Jan. 14

The Peninsula Horticultural Society will meet in Bridgeville on Tuesday, January 14, and hold two full days, with an excellent program, having as usual some of the noted specialists from abroad as well as the expert practical fruit and vegetable growers of the Delaware-Chesapeake Peninsula. Opening prayer at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning by Dr. T. E. Terry; address of welcome by Hon. S. H. Messick, Bridgeville; response by Charles E. Warburton, Esq., of Elkton; President's Annual Address, Warren C. Newton, Bridgeville; talk on Apple Culture by F. M. Soper; on Peaches by Orlando Harrison; on Pears by Walter B. Harris; on Grapes by Geo. Carter; on Small Fruits by Geo. A. Hill; Orchard Management by Prof. R. W. Rees, of Cornell University; also Marketing Problems by Prof. Rees; The Insects of the Apple Orchard, by Dr. T. J. Headlee, of New Jersey; Insects on Fruit Trees, by Dr. A. L. Quaintance, U. S. Entomologist; The Insects of the Year, by Professor Cory of Maryland; a conference on spraying conducted by Professor McCue, of Delaware, in which all the experts will take part; Fungus Diseases by Dr. Manns; Tomato Diseases and Their Control, by Prof. Temple; Growing Sweet and White Potatoes, by Prof. T. C. Johnson, of the Virginia Truck Experiment Station and a number of other practical talks. The evening sessions will be devoted to patriotic addresses. Governor Townsend, of Delaware, and Governor Harrington, of Maryland, have been invited to speak and so has Secertary of State Everett C Johnson.

The corn growers meeting will follow immediately with a fine program, rich in good things, and the fruit, vegetable and grain exhibits will be well worth studying.
