Ned Sparks
Star Theatre's Comedy Find of the Year

Rightly enough, radio stars are probably the most real people in the entire entertainment world. Of course, when it comes right down to it, scratch almost any celebrity and you'll find "real folks" underneath, but radio stars seem to have kept their sense of balance exceedingly well. Most of them, because of the nature of their work, have stuck pretty much to the microphone and real homes. Stars like Lum 'n' Abner, Amos 'n' Andy, Fibber McGee, Bob Burns, Uncle Ezra, Al Pearce and Tommy Riggs have won their fame by their homey qualities and the other stars seem to realize that they are as much a part of home entertainment as singing around the parlor piano—and they govern themselves accordingly.

Speaking of the real folks touch, Barbara Luddy, diminutive leading lady of those popular First Nighter dramas, plays a host of sophisticated roles, has appeared on the stage from San Francisco to New Zealand and is a veteran of the silver screen—but her spare time is spent making hooked rugs at home.

Another believer in the simple life is glamorous Betty Winkler, star of Girl Alone, who actually spends her spare time crocheting since friend Gale Page brought the new fad back from Hollywood.

Betty Winkler
Demurely Glamorous

Jack Smart, portly comic on the Bob Hope program, was explaining to your interviewer the reason for his rotund figure. "I got that way," said Smart, "because of my daily doesn't."

You might not guess it from his sophisticated background, but Paul Whiteman's secret passion is cow-boy outfits and he'll go "western" on the slightest excuse.

Albert Phillips, Dr. Gramby of the Big Sister airdramas, is drawing rave notices for his creation of the role of Stephen Douglas in the stage show, "Abe Lincoln in Illinois."

Ray Noble
Musical Comedy

Shortest audition on record is that of Joan Tompkins, who won her role in Your Family and Mine after reading two lines.

Like Orson Welles, John Hench, juvenile lead of Those Happy Gilmans, was educated in Illinois but went to the British Isles to break into the theatre. His brashness won him a place with the famous Birmingham repertory company and his talent kept him there until he returned to this country and radio.

Which reminds us that Ray Noble, whose swell arrangements preceded him to this country when he was one of England's favorite bandmen, is one of the few foreign dance band men to become just as popular here. In turn, Ray likes us so well he decided to remain and become an American citizen. You hear him with Burns and Allen as both conductor and stooge.

Uncle Jim Says

"The corn plan helps us stabilize supplies and prices of hogs and other livestock."

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Flowers Change Odors

Some flowers do not have the same odor at all hours, says Collier's Weekly. The variation in their scent, caused by metabolic changes, is exemplified by the orchid, which may smell of heliotrope in the morning, carnation during the day and lilac at night.
