Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

A Big Day In The Methodist Churches

Last Sunday was a big day among the Methodists of Chestertown and vicinity. The Union Revival meetings were in progress in the Methodist Protestant Church. That church was nearly filled in the morning when Rev. Warren, a returned missionary from India, connected with the M. E. Church was present and made an interesting address. Rev. Warren is a young man of power and made an interesting address on the conditions in India, which he stated were exceptionally bad among the women, who in many cases were treated like slaves. In the afternoon Sunday Schools were held in the M P. and M. E. Churches. In the evening a crowd packed the M. P. Church to the doors. Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, was on the calendar for the evening sermon, but the appearance of Rev. W. L. White, a former pastor of the M. E. Church in the congregation, caused an invitation to fill the pulpit being extended to him by both Revs. Ward and Beauchamp, which the Easton pastor accepted. Rev. White had prepared no sermon for the occasion, but preached in a very pleasing manner to the satisfaction of all. Of especial interest was the singing of the choir, under the direction of Prof. Balmond. Prof. Balmond possesses a good voice, is a splendid leader and inspires his choirs to heights that ordinary they would find difficult to reach. His solo was of a high class. The revival meetings were continued throughout the week, a special meeting being held each night for some particular class of people. The prayer meetings were also continued this week. The Union revivals have accomplished much good in Chestertown.

—The season for hunting raccoons began in Kent January 1. James Rigby took a party to the branch at Davis Hill on Tuesday night and they had a big chase, finally treeing a coon weighing about 12 pounds, which the dogs killed after a hard battle.

DEATHS

On last Sunday there passed from the useful fields of endeavor in Kent county one of her best and most useful citizens in the person of that sterling gentleman and citizen, Mr. Walter T. Morris, who succumbed from heart disease brought on by chronic kidney trouble. Mr. Morris had not been in perfect health for some time, but had been able to be about his daily tasks as usual, and the end came as a distinct shock to everyone.

Mr. Morris was 60 years of age and the end of his long and useful life has brought to a close one of the most well-known, useful and patriotic lives that has passed from life in many decades in Kent county.

Born in the residence which the present home of Mr. Edward Robinson in Chestertown replaced, Mr. Morris has been actively connected with the life and growth of Kent county for nearly a half century. His life has been chiefly devoted to agriculture and dairying and he has done much to promote these useful fields of endeavor in this section. He was known as one of the most successful farmers not only of Kent County, but also of the Eastern Shore.

Personally, he was one of the kindest and best of men. He was charitable and just in all his dealings with others, while his disposition was such that he always had a kind word for everyone with whom he came in contact. He was a good neighbor, always ready to help someone less fortunate than himself. His hospitable home was always open to his friends, while the stranger within his gates always received a welcome that was an invitation for a speedy return. He was a gentleman of the old school. Kind, courteous, affable, pleasing in manner and address, it is doubtful if there has been a death in Kent in the past quarter of a century that has been more universally mourned. His friends are innumerable.

Mr. Morris has been a life-long Democrat and was of incalculable service to his county during his long life.

He leaves a widow, who was before marriage Miss Sheridan, daughter of Rev. J. M. Sheridan, one son, Walter Morris, Jr., one sister, Mrs. E. E. Skirven, and three brothers, Messrs. Jas. Ellwood Morris, John E. Morris and William Morris, all of them prominent Kent county farmers. He was the eldest son of the late William Morris.

The funeral was held on Wednesday at noon, conducted by Rev. Donovan, interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The sweet spirit of Harriet May Reed, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Reed, on Wednesday morning departed to that haven where suffering and pain have no place. She was but 16 years of age. The deceased had been a sufferer for several months, but only duirng the past few weeks had her condition been serious.

Struck down in the spring of life, her whole career before her, makes her death one of the saddest that has occurred for many years. Death always leaves a path of sorrow in its wake. It nearly always leaves dear ones deep in grief. But the death of this sweet young lady has caused the whole community to mourn.

She was one of the happiest and prettiest young ladies in Chestertown. Of a particularly charming disposition she made a host of friends and was a favorite with all who knew her. Like a beautiful flower, she has been taken away at full bloom, leaving grief-stricken parents and a sister, schoolmates and friends to cherish her loving memory. Words cannot express our feeling for those who stand closest in the shadow.

The deceased leaves in her immediate family her parents and a sister, Miss Elizabeth Reed,

The funeral was held Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. L. Ward, interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Lollis Hessey Taylor died at his home in Rock Hall Monday, January 13, of pneumonia, aged 26 years. He was the son of Anna E. (nee Underwood) and the late James F. Taylor and was a member of the M. E. Church where the funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. T. C. Smoot officiating. Besides his mother there are three sisters, Mrs. Melvin Rodney, Mrs. Eldridge Joiner and Mrs. Marion Taylor and three brothers, James, William and Andrew Taylor. Burial was made in Wesley Chapel cemetery by Undertaker T. H. Casey. The bearers were: Eldridge Joiner, James K. Rodney, Russell Donnelly, Sterling Kelley, Miller Glenn and Melvin Rodney.

Walter Louis Dowling died of pneumonia at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dowling, at Rock Hall, on Sunday morning, Jan. 19, at the age of 9 months. Funeral services were held at the home by Rev. T. C. Smoot on Monday at 1.30 p. m., and the tiny form was laid in Wesley Chapel cemetery by four of the aunts, Mary, Alice and Esther Dowling and Mary Smith. T. H. Casey, undertaker.

Mr. John McGuire died very suddenly last Monday morning at Turner's Creek, of heart disease, aged 59 years. The body was removed to the undertaking rooms of W. H. Krusen, Still Pond. The Funeral took place Thursday morning from the home of his brother, Mr. William McGuire at Locust Grove, Rev. Frank White officiating; interment was in the cemtery at Galena.

William Melvin, the 21 months' old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carter, died of pneumonia at 8 a. m. Thursday, Jan. 16. The funeral was conducted by Rev. T. C. Smoot at the home of the parents in Rock Hall on Friday afternoon and interment made at Wesley Chapel cemetery. T. H. Casey, undertaker.

John, Jr., the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, of near Worton station, died on Monday morning of pneumonia. Interment took place on Tuesday at Union cemetery, Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

Mrs. Solomon, mother of Mrs. L. W. Wickes, of Chestertown, died in Baltimore last week.

Armenian-Syrian Relief Drive

One day a small boy painfully emaciated, his garments in tatters, arrived at a relief station, dragging a little girl almost as large as himself. "Mother said take care of her," was all he could say. An hour later his brave spirit found rest. He had been deported from an Armenian village with his mother, a baby brother and a little sister. Before many days the baby died. Finally the weakened mother could go no further. The little boy had traveled 30 miles, carrying and dragging his little sister, and having given her the last of their food, was just able to leave her in safety before he died.

This is nearly a typical case—one of many hundreds of thousands which are being faced by workers of the American Committee For Relief in the Near East. It is just one of many thousands of reasons why Maryland will be asked to do her part on February 9 in the nation-wide drive for $30,000,000 being made by the Committee. The situation in the "Near East" is summed up aptly in the appeal of Maryland's Food Administrator—William H. Maltbie, who says:

The campaign for $30,000,000 for the purpose of Syrian and Armenian relief is undertaken with the full approval and backing of the United States Food Administration.
