PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

(Other Personals on page 6)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Gill received some interesting souvenirs from their son, Private Lee Gill, from France. Two of the helmets were the regular German helmets, while one of them was very elaborate, evidently coming from a German officer high up in the councils.

The New York Times of last Sunday contained a picture of John Hagar a former W. C. student, who was killed in France.

Mrs. James Malcomb, of Baltimore, has been spending the week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Malcomb, near Chestertown.

Mr. Herman Blackway was in Baltimore on business several days this week.

Mr. Clarence Newcomb spent several days this week in Baltimore.

Mrs. P. M. Brooks has been somewhat indisposed this week.

Mr. Zay Davis, of Wilmington, spent the week-end the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Davis.

Capt. and Mrs. PaulWilkinson spent the week-end the guests of her mother. Capt. Wilkinson has been honorably discharged from the army.

Mr. William Wheatley, of Federalsburg, spent part of this week here.

Mr. Walmsley Davis, of Philadelphia, has been visiting his parents.

Mr. Sydney Turner, of Baltimore, has been the guest of his parents here.

Mr. John E. Barnes is spending several days each weeks in the Wilmington office of the Teele Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Creasy has been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burk have had as their guest this week Mrs. Frank Lambert, Jr., of Wilmington.

Mr. Walter Simmons, of Wilmington, has been visiting here.

Mrs. Lee Holleman, of Anderson, S. C., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B. Rote.

Mrs. Cleveland Reeves, of North Carolina, who has been visiting her parents here, is sick with influenza.

Miss Ida Stephens is in a Philadelphia hospital at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Yionnokis are receiving congratulations on the arrival of fine little daughter.

BETTERTON ITEMS

Several of the fishermen from Betterton have been making good catches of rock at Robbins' Point this week, due to the mild weather.

The Epworth League gave a most enjoyable informal entertainment Wednesday evening at the school house. After the program, ice cream, cake and candy were sold. The proceeds were about $31 dollars, all of which was clear.

A play entitled "The Minister's Honeymoon," is being rehearsed now and will be given next Wednesday night. This play is a successor to the "New Minister," that was given last winter for the benefit of the Sunday School.

Mr. William Owens has returned to his home in Betterton, having been honorably discharged from the army. Mr. Owens has been doing "overseas service" for the past four months and is the first Betterton boy to come home.

Dr. E. J. Clarke, of Chestertown, had charge of the service at the Episcopal Chapel last Sunday in the absence of the Rev. S. S. Hepburn, who is visiting his daughter in Virginia.
