ANOTHER week has passed and the Peace Treaty and League of Nations is still hanging in the balance, while the entire world is anxiously awaiting the results. How much longer the world is to be kept in suspense no one seems to know. First one nation, then another, interposes objections to this point or that point and thus the wrangling still goes on from day to day and from week to week, while people in some of the European countries are starving to death.

GEORGE WEEMS WILLIAMS, Esq., was nominated for mayor of Baltimore in the Democratic primaries on Tuesday last over Mayor Preston after one of the bitterest contests ever waged in a primary election in that city. Mayor Preston and his political friends have announced that they will support the successful nominees in the election. This is the proper spirit for opponents to manifest and Mr. Williams' election next month may be looked for. Mayor Preston has made many needed improvements to Baltimore and his administration has made of Baltimore a modern city in many respects. Mr. Williams is one of the leading lawyers of that city and it is believed will make Baltimore a progressive and good official.

Bigger Crops Grow on Tractor Plowed Ground

Of course you want to raise a bigger crop next year. But the main thing that is troubling you right now is your fall plowing.

It is hard to get enough help and even if you had it the dry weather makes fall plowing a hard job for horse flesh.

Why not get an Avery tractor? Tractor farming with an Avery means bigger crops. With it you can plow early and deep this fall and get your seed bed into the very best condition. Hot weather or hard ground can't stop you and if you need to you can even plow day and night.

An Averyized Farm Brings Success

Avery tractors are in successful operation in all 48 states in this country and in over 61 Foreign countries. They are the tractors with the perfected opposed motors and patented sliding frame transmissions.

Remember, they are built in sizes to fit every size farm and for every kind of work.

Come in and let us talk over the question of raising bigger crops with an Avery Tractor.

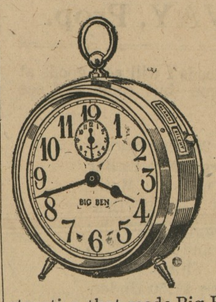
SCREEN CLASSICS PRESENTS

HAROLD LOCKWOOD
—IN—
The GREAT ROMANCE

The screen's most genuine and delightful character is at his best in this story of Intrigue, Love Power and Romance.

WESTCLOX



You'll have to get up early to beat a Westclox alarm. It will get you up any time you say and keep good time all day.

Westclox is a short way of saying Western Clocks. The word Westclox, is on the dial of every alarm we make. We put it there because we're proud of the quality we build in the clock. Every Westclox alarm has the same good construction that made Big Ben and Baby Ben so popular.

Folks who become acquainted with Westclox quality look carefully for the word Westclox on the dial and tag. It is the mark of good timekeeping. Prices $1.25 to $3.00.

HAMPSHIRE HISTORY MADE IN 1918

The greatest winning ever made by any breed of hogs in the world's history in state, national or other shows was won by the Hampshire breed at the Chicago International in the closing days of 1918. A carload of the hogs had been grown all through the summer on a clover pasture with two ears of corn per head per day. The first of September they were put into a four acre lot with a big, roomy house at one end of it. They were fed on ground rye and wheat middlings in a mash. They were fed all the corn they desired until December 1st. They weighed an average of 391 lbs. per head and were so sensational in finish, size and quality that everyone conceded them to be the grand champions before they were passed upon by the judges. Competing exhibitors, packers and commission merchants said it was the greatest carload of hogs ever shown at the Chicago International. They sold for $21 per hundred or $2.25 per hundred over the top price of any other show car. They dressed 84 per cent of their live weight, or more than 3 per cent above the top dressing quality of any other car of hogs at this show and the nearest dressing car to them was another car of Hampshires.

The Hampshire breed of hogs is a breed with no "kick back." They farrow large litters, their litters develop rapidly and in test cases have outgrown all other breeds at the age of six, eight, ten and twelve months. They have made their history in the hands of poor men and men in very moderate circumstances. It is true some rich men have been promoting them and like them very much, but their history has largely been made in the hands of men who found it necessary to make their own living. In grazing, as well as feeding, they rank at the top in American Swine Husbandry. The Hampshire brood sow insists upon helping her owner do her part of the work; she will farrow large litters of good pigs and raise them; she will gather her feed, grind her feed, make her own bed and carry her carcass to market and top the day's selling prices.

THE CHAMPION CARLOAD OF HOGS AT THE 1918 CHICAGO INTERNATIONAL

We are now offering the public in unrelated stock a few young boars almost ready for service and some gilts that will easily farrow good litters in the fall and the best lot of weanlings that we have ever seen. All of them represent a combination of quality and breeding equal in every way to the best that is obtainable. Our sows are well developed and richly bred, some of them weighing, in ordinary breeding condition, from five hundred to six hundred pounds. The pigs are exceptionally large for their age and are well marked. They carry the direct blood lines of Lookout No. 7499, a $5,000.00 Grand Champion; Messenger Boy No. 6179, many times a Grand Champion of the United States and also Grand Champion over all other breeds; Paulsen's Model No. 24423. A glance at the offerings of the foremost Hampshire breeders will reveal the merit of these blood lines.

The business farmer realizes today as never before that if he is to secure a maximum of pork production, he must feed the best.

The breeder knows that he cannot afford to breed anything short of the best that is obtainable, and this simple fact has done more than anything else to place the Hampshire in the ranks he now occupies.

If you want the foundation of a new herd, we can assist you or if you need a good boar to improve your present herd, we can fill your order. We have anything from a weaned pig to a breed sow. All breeding stock registered in the purchaser's name. Every animal must be exactly as represented. We solicit correspondence and inspection.
