The Chestertown Transcript.

VOL. XVI. CHESTERTOWN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1877 NO. 34.

THE GAZETTE,
BALTIMORE.
Announcement for 1878.

The Publisher takes pleasure in announcing that The Gazette, for 1878, will be more than ever a newspaper for the people. It will be his aim to constantly strengthen its corps of writers, increase its news facilities, and enlarge its sphere of activity. As heretofore it will be a first-class morning journal, Democratic in principle, independent in everything, neutral in nothing, opposed to all monopolies and the uncompromising foe of all corrupt rings, in municipal, state and national affairs. It will be the unyielding advocate of economy and reform in every department of government, and will fearlessly condemn that which deserves rebuke, and cordially commend that which commands praise, without stopping to inquire what political party is affected thereby. The news feature of The Gazette will be, if possible, more striking than ever. A regular news bureau has been opened in Washington, and the special correspondence from the national capital will be unexcelled by that of any journal in the country. Its special dispatches will cover every news centre of importance, while the Associated Press will furnish it with the latest advices from all parts of the world. Its local reports will be the most complete that can be obtained, and its miscellaneous matter will be of a character to interest all classes of readers. Special attention will be paid to the collection of news in Maryland and the adjoining states, and in this particular The Gazette will be far in advance of any of its contemporaries, aiming to be a live newspaper in every respect, and furnishing the fullest and freshest news and general reading matter at the lowest possible cost to the public.

The Daily Gazette is delivered in the city of Baltimore and the surrounding cities, villages and towns, for twelve cents per week, payable to the carriers. Mail subscription, $6 a year, $3 for six months, $1 50 for three months, or 60 cents a month, postage prepaid at this office.

The Weekly Gazette, in addition to the brightest and best features of the daily issue, contains all the news of the week carefully collated. It is filled with domestic and foreign news, special correspondence, able and fearless editorial comments and interesting literary selections. It is prepared with a special view to make it a healthy, vigorous, elevating and instructive family newspaper, and embraces every department found in a first-class weekly journal. It is one of the best and cheapest newspapers in the country. It is published every Saturday. Mail subscription, postage paid, one dollar and fifty cents per annum, or one dollar for six months. Special rates to clubs.

Address, THE GAZETTE, Baltimore, Maryland.

New York Weekly Herald.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

The circulation of this popular paper has more than trebled during the past year. It contains all the leading news contained in the DAILY HERALD, and is arranged in thirty departments.

THE FOREIGN NEWS

embraces special dispatches from all quarters of the globe, together with unbiassed, faithful and graphic pictures of the great War in Europe. Under the head of

AMERICAN NEWS

are given the Telegraphic dispatches of the week from all parts of the Union. This feature alone makes the most valuable newspaper in the world, as it is the cheapest.

THE WEEKLY HERALD

Every week is given a faithful report of

POLITICAL NEWS,

embracing complete and comprehensive dispatches from WASHINGTON, including full reports of the speeches of eminent politicians on the questions of the hour.

THE FARM DEPARTMENT of the WEEKLY HERALD gives the latest as well as the most practical suggestions and discoveries relating to the duties of the farmer, hints for raising CATTLE, POULTRY, GRAINS, TREES, VEGETABLES, &c., &c., with suggestions for keeping buildings and farming utensils in repair. This is supplemented by a well edited department, widely copied under the head of giving recipes for practical household hints for making clothing and for keeping up with the latest fashions at the lowest price. Letters from our Paris and London correspondents on the very latest fashions. The HOME Department of the WEEKLY HERALD will save the housewife more than one hundred times the price of the paper.

THE HOME,

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

There is a page devoted to all the latest phases of the business markets, Crops, Merchandize, &c., &c. A valuable feature is found in the specially reported prices and conditions of

THE PRODUCE MARKET

While all the news from the last field of the Discovery of Stanley are to be found in the Weekly Herald, due attention is given to

SPORTING NEWS

at home and abroad, together with a STORY every week, a SERMON by the eminent divine, LITERARY, MUSICAL, DRAMATIC, PERSONAL and SEA NOTES. There is no paper in the world which contains so much news matter every week as the WEEKLY HERALD, which is sent, postage free, for One Dollar. You may subscribe at any time.

THE NEW YORK HERALD

in a weekly form,

THE VOSHELL HOUSE

In Chestertown.

HAS again come into the possession and management of the undersigned, who will take pleasure in contributing to the comfort and convenience of those who may patronize the House. Especial attention will be given to all, whether permanent Boarders or transient Customers.

The subscriber has had varied and extensive experience in country and city, in conducting a Hotel, which will enable him to secure the approval of every one who may give him a call. The Bedding and Chambers will be specially attended to, and the Table will be equally so. Good order will at all times be preserved, and the Parlors will be kept open for the accommodation of guests.

There is probably no better conveniences for Horses and Carriages on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. The public are invited to make him a call.

JOHN C. VOSHELL.

THE SUN.

1878. NEW YORK. 1878.

As the time approaches for the renewal of subscriptions, THE SUN would remind its friends and wellwishers that it is again a candidate for a continuance of the hearty sympathy and generous support which have hitherto been exerted in its behalf by every quarter of the Union.

The Daily Sun is a four page sheet of 28 columns, price 65 cents a month, or $7 a year.

The Sunday edition of The Sun is an eight page sheet of 56 columns. While containing a full review of the week, it also contains a large amount of literary and miscellaneous matter specially prepared for this edition. Price, $1.20 a year.

THE WEEKLY SUN.

Who does not know The Weekly Sun? It circulates throughout all the States and Territories and Canadas, and beyond the seas, and is welcomed in over twenty thousand families weekly, and regarded in it the large pages as a trusted counsellor, and friend. Its news, political, agricultural, and literary departments make it essentially a journal for the family and fireside. Terms: $1 a year, postage paid. This price, quality considered, makes it the cheapest newspaper published. For clubs of ten, with $10 cash, we will send an extra copy free. Address,

PUBLISHER OF THE SUN, New York City.
