The Chestertown Transcript.

VOL. XVI. CHESTERTOWN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1877 NO. 34.

THE GAZETTE, BALTIMORE.

Announcement for 1878.

The Publisher takes pleasure in announcing that The Gazette, for 1878, will be more than ever a newspaper for the people. It will be his aim to constantly strengthen its corps of writers, increase its news facilities, and enlarge its sphere of activity. As heretofore it will be a first-class morning journal, Democratic in principle, independent in everything, neutral in nothing, opposed to all monopolies and the uncompromising foe of all corrupt rings, in municipal, state and national affairs. It will be the unyielding advocate of economy and reform in every department of government, and will fearlessly condemn that which deserves rebuke, and cordially commend that which commands praise, without stopping to inquire what political party is affected thereby. The news feature of The Gazette will be, if possible, more striking than ever. A regular news bureau has been opened in Washington, and the special correspondence from the national capital will be unexcelled by that of any journal in the country. Its special dispatches will cover every news centre of importance, while the Associated Press will furnish it with the latest advices from all parts of the world. Its local reports will be the most complete that can be obtained, and its miscellaneous matter will be of a character to interest all classes of readers. Special attention will be paid to the collection of news in Maryland and the adjoining states, and in this particular The Gazette will be far in advance of any of its contemporaries, aiming to be a live newspaper in every respect, and furnishing the fullest and freshest news and general reading matter at the lowest possible cost to the public.

The Daily Gazette is delivered in the city of Baltimore and the surrounding cities, villages and towns, for twelve cents per week, payable to the carriers. Mail subscription, $6 a year, $3 for six months, $1 50 for three months, or 60 cents a month, postage prepaid at this office.

The Weekly Gazette, in addition to the brightest and best features of the daily issue, contains all the news of the week carefully collated. It is filled with domestic and foreign news, special correspondence, able and fearless editorial comments and interesting literary selections. It is prepared with a special view to make it a healthy, vigorous, elevating and instructive family newspaper, and embraces every department found in a first-class weekly journal. It is one of the best and cheapest newspapers in the country. It is published every Saturday. Mail subscription, postage paid, one dollar and fifty cents per annum, or one dollar for six months. Special rates to clubs.

Address, THE GAZETTE, Baltimore, Maryland.
