Washington's Birth-day.

Last Friday passed off very quietly in Chestertown and was undistinguished by any public demonstration of popular patriotism, beyond the playing of a few highly appreciated airs by the Kent Cornet Band in front of the Town Hall. The Juveniles however made a day of it and our streets were alive with boys carrying flags in their hands and shouting in their peculiar manner. As Paddy says, the event of the day took place at night. The Band serenaded Mr. Washington Hudgins in honor of the day of his birth, and was received and entertained by him with lavish hospitality. We advise everybody to be born on the 22d day of February.

Tableaux

Illustrating Milton's Paradise Lost or the great Rebellion in Heaven. The war of the angels. The fall of Satan and the fall of man, will be exhibited at the Town Hall on the evening of Tuesday and Wednesday next. This exhibition will consist of sixty splendid Tableaux, painted on canvass, by Sir Wm. Caston of London, illustrating Paradise Lost that immortal poem by John Milton, from beginning to end.

Heaven is represented by twenty two scenes. Hell and Chaos by fifteen. The creation by eight. Paradise or the Garden of Eden by seventeen splendid Landscape scene of great beauty.

These Tableaux were exhibited here some years ago and have ever since been spoken of as one of the finest exhibitions ever given here.

Professor Randolph (an elocutionist) will recite the finest selections from the immortal Poem explanatory of each Tableaux.

Temperance.

A large meeting of the Gospel Temperance Dashaway Club was held in the Town Hall, last Sunday afternoon, attended by some ladies. Addresses were delivered by Capt. Jas. H. Thompson the worthy President Major B. B. Wroth, the efficient Marshal of Ceremonies, and Messrs. Charles H. Baker James Coleman, Wash Hudgins and Win. Coleman.

THE ATTENTION OF AGENTS

Is called to The Housekeepers' Supply Company, in Cincinnati, Ohio, who make a business of getting up and manufacturing new and labor-saving conveniences for housekeepers and give employment to hundreds of agents of both sexes throughout the whole United States to introduce and sell them, and offer inducements that will pay them handsomely. Many of their agents are now making from $4 to $6 per day, and some of them even more. Write to them at once and they will send you circulars, giving you full description of each article they manufacture, and their terms to agents, and will assign you exclusive territory to sell in. Their address is The Housekeepers' Supply Company, No. 242 Elm Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Feb. 8,4t.—1878.

Persons having business in any of the Departments or before Congress can further their interests by communicating with Presbrey and Green, Attorneys and Solicitors, 509 Seventh Street, Washington, D. C. They have had years of experience and a large and successful practice. They attend to cancellation of land entries: obtain patents and trademarks for inventors; procure land patents; perfect land titles; prosecute cases for infringement in patent cases; secure pensions and soldiers' bounty lands; present claims for Indian, Mexican or other depredations; settle accounts of postmasters and contractors, and attend to war claims or other business. All letters will be promptly answered.

A NEW FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

Mr. Southard, of Ohio, presented a very moral bill in Congress yesterday.—It provides for an amendment to the Constitution, to be designated as article 16, which provides that the executive power shall be vested and hereafter administered by three Presidents, constituting a Supreme Executive Council of three, to be elected by the qualified electors of each and all of the States, and each to be taken from one of the three several prominent sections of the United States, known as the Western States, one as the Eastern and Middle States, and the other as the Southern States, and no two of whom shall be citizens of the same section or district of the country. The term of officer shall be six years, and no President having served a full term shall be eligible for a second term, and at the first election, under this article, the President from the Western District shall be elected for a fractional term of two years and the one from the Southern District for a fractional term of four years and the one from the Eastern and Middle District for a full term of six years, and after the first election one President shall be elected from each of the several districts every two years.—Instead of the Vice President, now provided for, the Senate shall, every four years, elect a President of the Senate, who is not a member of that body, and who, as the presiding officer, shall have and exercise all the authority heretofore conferred on the Vice President. Each of the Presidents shall receive a compensation not exceeding thirty thousand dollars per year.

THE YOUNG ITALIAN KING.

The health of the young King of Italy is causing some anxiety. He is subject to hemorrhages from the lungs, and on several occasions public ceremonies in which he was to participate have been deferred in consequence of the sudden coming on of the complaint. His physician attributes his recent attack to excitement on the death of Victor Emmanuel and his own accession to the throne. As he is of active habits, and accustomed to the life of camps and military exercises there might be a probability of his ultimate recovery but for the fact that he is an inveterate smoker and not as careful of his health as he should be. As in capacity for government he is considered decidedly superior to his father, his death would be a heavy blow to Italy. He has one child, a son, born November 11, 1869. In case of the death of King Humbert during the minority of his child the Queen does not succeed him on the throne but she may act as regent under the authority of the Parliament.

WELLS. CASENAVE AND KENNER

THE REASON WHY THEY ASK THE TRANSFER OF THEIR CASE TO THE CIRCUIT COURT.

NEW ORLEANS, February 25.—The petition for the transfer of the case of wells. Casenave and Kenner to the Circuit Court sets forth the following reasons: 'That the said superior criminal Court for the Parish of Orleans is a state court and the prosecution upon said charge against your petitioners is still pending in said court and has not been tried, and no final hearing having been had thereon; that a conspiracy has been formed and now exists for the purpose of instituting and carrying on this prosecution against your petitioners, and that in furtherance of said conspiracy the conspirators have conspired for the purpose of impeding, hindering and preventing the judicial tribunal where said prosecution is pending from enforcing equal protection of law to your petitioners; that said conspirators are impeding and hindering the due course of justice and are hindering and preventing said judicial tribunal from enforcing equal protection of law to your petitioners. That they cannot enforce in the judicial tribunal from enforcing equal protection of law to your petitioners. That they cannot enforce in the judicial tribunal where said prosecution is pending any rights secured to them by the constitution and laws of the United States providing for equal civil rights of citizens of the United States, the same are denied and cannot enforce in said tribunal the equal protection of law. They pray that the said case be remanded from said Superior Criminal Court for the Parish of Orleans to the United States Circuit Court for the Fifth circuit of the district of Louisiana, as provided by law, for trial.' There is an affidavid annexed to the petition setting forth the truthfulness and correctness of the above facts, sworn to before W. G. Lane, United States commissioner, February 23, 1878, by Wells, Kenner and Casenave.

ANDERSON SENTENCED.

HE IS GIVEN TWO YEARS AT HARD LABOR.

NEW ORLEANS, February 25.—Thos. C. Anderson was called before the bar this morning. The motion in arrest of judgment was overruled, and when asked if he had anything to offer before sentence, Anderson said that he considered his case cruel persecution under the forms of law; that he was in the power of the court, and ready to receive sentence. Judge Whitaker answered that the accused had had a fair trial, before an impartial jury, and that the verdict was fully justified by the evidence. He then sentenced Anderson, in consequence of the recommendation of the jury to the mercy of the court, to the lowest term under the law; two years' hard labor in the penitentiary and costs. A suspension appeal was granted returnable on Wednesday. A motion to transfer the case of Wells, Kenner and Casenave to the United States Court was filed, and will be heard on Wednesday, March 6.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician retired from active practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanen cure of Consumption, Bronchitas, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. The recipe will be sent free of charge, to all who desire it, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Address with stamp naming this paper, Dr. J. C. STONE, 44 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Eclectic Magazine
OF
FOREIGN LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART.
(THIRTY-FOURTH YEAR.
The ECLECTIC reprints monthly from all the foreign Quarterlies, Reviews, Magazines, and Journals, their choicest contents, including ESSAYS, SCIENTIFIC PAPERS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, TALES, STORIES, and POEMS. The field of selection is very large, and it is believed that the ECLECTIC presents a greater variety and higher standard of Literature than any periodical that depends exclusively upon home talent.
A knowledge of the current literature of other countries is indispensable to all who keep pace with the progress of the age; and the ECLECTIC offers the best opportunity for obtaining this knowledge at a moderate price.
In General Literature such writers as Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone, James Anthony Froude, Matthew Arnold, Charles Kingsley, Francis Power Cobbe, Leslie Stephen, Arthur Helps, Alfred Tennyson, Thomas Hughes, William Black, Mrs. Oliphant, Thomas Hardy, Turgenieff, William Morris, Miss Thackery, and others equally eminent are represented in its pages.
In Science, the best articles of such thinkers and writes as Profs. Huxley and Tyndall, Richard Proctor, B. A., Prof. Owen, Dr. W. B Carpenter, Max Muller, J. Norman Lockyer, St. George Mivart, E. B. Tylor, and others, are given.
The ECLECTIC offers its readers the best serial stories, together with the short stories for which the English magazines have a high and deserved reputation.
Its Editorial Departments comprise Literary Notices (dealing with current home books), Foreign Literary Notes, Science, and Art (summarizing briefly the new discoveries and achievements in this field), and Varieties (consisting of choice extracts from new books and foreign journals).
Each number contains a Fine Steel Engraving—usually a portrait—executed in the best manner.
TERMS.—Single copies, 45 cents; one copy one year, $5; two copies, $9; five copies, $20. Trial subscriptions for three months, $1. The ECLECTIC and any $4 Magazine to one address, $8.
Special Offers to New Subscribers.
The publisher takes pleasure in announcing that he has made arrangements which enable him to furnish to every subscriber to the ECLECTIC (for one dollar in addition to the regular subscription price) a large and fine steel engraving, entitled "Highland Pets."
This engraving is from one of Landseer's most celebrated paintings, and represent a Highlandgirl surrounded by a group of fawns, which she is feeding, while her young brother holds a stately pair of antlers, probably the trophy of some former chase. The size of the plate if 18x27 inches, printed on heavy plate paper, making a picture suitable for the wall of any room. The regular price of this engraving is $5, but we furnish it only to subscribers to the ECLECTIC.
Address E. R. PELTON, Pub'lisher,
25 Bond Street, New York.
N. B. We will furnish the ECLECTIC MAGAZINE with the TRANSCRIPT for one year upon the payment of $5.50, cash.

MANHOOD: How Lost, How Restored
Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.
Price, in a sealed envelope, only six cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps.
