DEATHS

Kent county lost one of its best citizens Saturday last when Captain Daniel Hill reached the end of a long and useful life at his home near Kennedyville. Heart disease caused his death. He was 75 years old. Surviving are a widow, one daughter, Mrs. G. R. Rasin, and five sons, Robert R., Register of Wills of Kent county; Walter E. and Frank L., of Baltimore; Daniel W., of near Millington, and Harry J. Hill, of Kennedyville.

Captain Hill was born at Port Kennedy, Pa., and served with a Pennsylvania regiment in the Civil War. Later he became master of a sailing vessel plying the Chesapeake and Delaware bays, and later owned a fleet of boats. In 1880 he settled on a farm in Kent county and when he retired from farming he was the owner of two of the best farms in Kent. In 1895 he was elected president of the Board of Co. Commissioners and was re-elected in 1899. He was a director of The Peoples Bank since the organization of that institution in 1910.

Funeral services were held from his late home, near Kennedyville, Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. Schauer, interment at Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements. The active pall bearers were his five sons, and son-in-law, the honorary pall bearers being the directors of the Peoples Bank.

Mrs. Rosine Clark, widow of the late John Z. Clark, died at her home in Betterton on Monday morning of general debility, age 77 years. She is survived by the following children: G. Frank, of Chestertown; Mrs. Howard Clendaniel, of Kennedyville; William, Harry and Miss Maggie at home. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Catholic Church at Betterton, conducted by Rev. Father Fitzgerald and Rev. John Earner. Interment at Cecilton, W. H. Krusen in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Rachel Elizabeth Lee, widow of the late Vincent Lee, died Monday night, aged 64 years, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Barnes, at Fairlee. She leaves one daughter and three sons: Mrs. Zadie M. Barnes, Mahlon P., George C. and Harry L. Lee. The latter is in army service now stationed in Texas. Funeral services were held Wednesday at Salem M. E. Church, conducted by the Rev. Mr. West, interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers were Mahlon P., G. C. and Wm. Lee, Samuel Shuster, Charles H. Porter and Walter F. Sparks. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mrs. Margaret Coleman, widow of the late Alfred L. Coleman, died at the home of Harry Perry, near St. Paul's church, last Friday. Funeral was held Sunday, with services conducted by the Rev. T. C. Smoot. The pall bearers were Harry and Philip Perry, Edward Smith, Samuel Kilbourne, John S., and Walter H. Hadaway. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

The remains of Frank C. Joiner, son of the late T. J. Joiner, a former resident of Chestertown, were brought here from Atlantic City on Monday and rested at the home of Mrs. George Cannan, aunt of the deceased. Funeral was held Tuesday, with services conducted by the Rev. Edwin Gardner. The interment was in Chester cemetery, the following acting as pall-bearers: Wm. R. Maul, Foster Cannan, Fred G. Usilton, Owen C. Smith, C. S. Smith and Webster Hadaway. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mrs. Jessie Carter, wife of Millard Carter, of Shiloh, near Bridgeton, N. J., died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sewell, at Rock Hall, on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. She had been ill of several diseases and was at Rock Hall trying to recuperate her health. Funeral was held Wednesday, interment at Wesley Chapel cemetery. Undertaker, C. L. Dodd.

The pall bearers were: Charles and Russell Sewell, Bartus, Hynson, American and Fred Carter. Services were held at the Adventist Church, conducted by Rev. C. E. Andros.

Mr. J. Ralph Roe, a former student of Washington College, died Tuesday, March 25, 1919, at Monravia Sanitorium, California. His remains were sent to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Roe, at Chester, Queen Annes County, and interment was made in Stevensville cemetery, Kent Island. Young Roe was a bright and promising youngster and his apparently untimely death is deeply deplored by a large circle of friends.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Magruder died this week. Mr. and Mrs. Magruder were residents of Chestertown last summer and occupied the Wickes house, corner of Main and Water streets.

Thirza W. Shallcross died in Middletown, Del., April 8. Funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. Harry Griffith, near Sassafras, Thursday afternoon last, interment in Still Pond cemetery.

W. C. Wins Opening Game

Washington College had little difficulty in defeating Baltimore City College Friday afternoon last by the score of 5 to 1. W. C. had the game clinched from the start.

Duffy, who was the star twirler for the Wicomico High School, was on the mound for W. C. and held City College runless and allowing only four hits in seven innings. Lankford went in the box in the eighth inning.

Lankford, Ford and Duffy led with the bat for W. C., each making two hits, while Snyder featured for the visitors.
