1855. Nov. 19th. died Mary Bean, relict of Saml. Bean and daughter of Joseph Bennett. in T. Pond Neck.
Mrs Bean was a noble lady – always cheerful – always affable – always employed – kindhearted charitable as faithful. In my first entry into business I lived with her. She was in her Sixty, many respects a mother to me & to my brother H. She reproved with her Conduct rather than with words – was always lenient towards the faults of others, considering that fault sprung from ignorance. The world cannot furnish a better sample of woman than Mary Bean – R.J.P.
