CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

DEATHS

The whole community is deeply saddened by the sudden death of Mrs. Mary Sutton Fowler, wife of Town Commissioner William L. Fowler, on Sunday evening. Her death was caused by paralysis. She was 49 years of age. Mrs. Fowler is survived by her husband; a daughter, Miss Katherine Fowler; a brother, Mr. William C. Sutton; and a sister, Miss Nettie L. Sutton. The funeral services were held Wednesday from her late home conducted by the Rev. J. L. Ward, interment in Chester cemetery. The active pall bearers were: W. A. Wheatley, C. F. Wheatley, F. H. Howard, W. F. Russell, W. C. Sutton and Howard Turner, with the following honorary bearers: Robert Moffett, G. R. Rouse, J. W. Crouch, F. B. Hines, G. H. Cannan and J. W. Russell. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mrs. Sutton was a lady of charming personality and had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, who mourn with those who stand closer in the shadow.

Mr. J. Alfred Jester, of Betterton, died on Monday last of heart trouble on a marsh near the home of Mr. Maxwell Price and his body was not found until Thursday afternoon as the family was unaware that he had gone there. Coroner Dodd gave a certificate of death after he view the body and it was removed to the undertaking rooms of W. H. Krusen at Still Pond. Funeral services will take place today, Saturday, at 2 o'clock at the Episcopal Church at Betterton, Rev. S. S. Hepburn officiating. Interment will be in the Still Pond cemetery.

Mrs. Abigail Atwell, widow of the late George W. Atwell, died on Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alfred C. Crew, Chestertown, after a two weeks' illness of uraemic poisoning, aged 72 years. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Alfred Crew, and four sons: John W., Wallace, Dr. L. P., of Kent, and Howard, Wilmington, Del. Funeral services were held Wednesday, conducted by the Rev. G. T. Alderson and the Rev. A. W. Goodhand, interment at Townsend, Del. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

William Everett, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Allie Simpler, died on Sunday. Interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

The remains of Mrs. James Thompson, formerly of Chestertown, were brought down from Middletown on Thursday. She was 65 years of age and died from paralysis. A husband survives her. Interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Court Proceedings

In the case of Mr. C. E. Kirby vs. the Frank Lester Co., appealed from Justice Robert Moffett, verdict affirmed.

Mr. Kirby sued the above company for damaged fruit. Mr. Kirby's claim is against the railroad and not against the Frank Lester Co.

Appeal of Mrs. Wm. H. Thompson vs. Rev. Boulder and others. Court trial, jury disagreed and was discharged.

Case of Viola C. Boggs vs. William D. Boggs, for increased alimony. Judge Wickes noted his disqualification to sit in the case, having been attorney for one of the parties at a former trial. On the arrival of Judge Adkins this case was taken up, but was not concluded. It has been postponed until next week when Judge Adkins will return and resume the case.

At 4.30 p. m. Monday memorial services for the late Chief Judge Constable were held and resolutions passed.

Case of William Sutton, charged with burglary, court trial, verdict guilty, and sentenced to 18 months in Maryland Penitentiary.

Case of Oscar Demby for larceny, court trial, verdict guilty, paroled for 12 months in custody of Harry Pinder.

Case of Eugene Stevens for larceny. Court trial, verdict guilty, paroled in custody of J. J. Slaughter for period of 12 months.

Case of George Boyer for larceny, jury trial, verdict guilty, sentenced not pronounced at hour of going to press.

Case of William Thompson for larceny, court trial, verdict guilty and sentenced to House of Correction for six months.

Case of Verb Bordley, charged with intent to kill, 2 pleas filed, court trial, verdict not guilty on first, guilty on second; sentence not pronounced at hour of going to press.

The case of Edgar P. Young vs. John Anderson was taken up. This case was resumed from Cecil county. Young purchased some cattle at Anderson's sale and claimed they did not come up to representation; he returned them to Anderson, who sold them later and sued Young for the difference between what Young bought them for and what they afterwards sold for and the cost of feeding and reselling them, which amounts to $136.92. This case was before the court at the hour of going to press.

The report of the Grand Jury is as follows:

To The Honorable The Judges of the Circuit Court for Kent County, State of Maryland

We the Grand Jurors drawn for the April term of Court for 1919 beg leave to report we have been in session two days, have examined thirty (30) witnesses, made nine (9) presentments and nine (9) true bills. We have examined the constables and other officers for Kent county, Maryland. We have investigated the jail and would most respectfully recommend that the County Commissioners be notified that the jail cells be thoroughly renovated and put in better sanitary condition. Glass in the windows, the locks on the cells be overlooked and repaired, also the toilets and baths of the jail.

We wish to express our great appreciation of the attention given us by the court and all officers in the service rendered us in the performance of our duties.

We wish, further, to express to our new judge, Hon. Lewin W. Wickes, our high appreciation and esteem for the dignified manner which he is presiding over our court and wish for him much success in the future.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES G. BECK, Foreman.
True Capy, Test—A. PARKS RASIN, Clerk.
