Chestertown Transcript.
THURSDAY, FEB. 5, 1880.

The Snow of Tuesday brought out the jingling sleighs.

The Conference Academy at the beginning of its last session, had just one hundred students.

The M. E. Conference holds its next annual session at Dover, Del., beginning the 17th day of March proximo.

Next Tuesday is Shrove Tuesday, or as it is pretty generally known on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, "Pancake day."

Burglary.—The shoe shop of Daniel Smith, at the upper end of High street, was broken into on Monday night and a pair of boots were stolen therefrom.

Improving a Steamer.—The steamer George Law, of the Chester River line, is having a new boiler put in, and will be thoroughly overhauled and put in first-rate order.

The Ice Crop.—From Maine to Maryland, people have been more or less worked up on account of the bad prospect of an ice harvest. The cold snap which began last Sunday will give Maine and Massachusetts a good freeze, but Maryland may have to wait longer.

The Lenten Season begins next Wednesday, and lasts forty days. The season is strictly observed by the Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches, the members abstaining not only from flesh, but also from amusements and other pastime indulgences.

Original.—At the recent quarterly examination of the town, public school, the question was asked, "What is the difference between a republican and a monarchial form of government?" One answer was, "A republican government is black, and a monarchial government is yellow."

The Ground Hog, according to custom, doubtless walked out of his hole last Monday, and took a look at the weather. He may have been disgusted at the sunshine and the shadow, but probably the cool weather was just as satisfactory to him as a rainy day.

L. K. Stam has for sale a new-fashioned gridiron, that is just the most lovely thing in the way of a gridiron, that was ever invented. When it broils a steak, it leaves it succulent, juicy and tender. The gridiron is fashioned so as to preserve the essence, and to make only little smoke. Price, only 50 cents.

Philip Phillips the great singer, is to be in Chestertown on Friday of next week, the 13th of this month, and is to sing at the Court House in the evening for the benefit of the town public school. The school wants an organ, and proposes to use the funds accruing from the entertainment for the purpose of purchasing one.

Supper.—It will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere in our columns that the ladies of Shrewsbury church propose giving a supper at Locust Grove this evening, and to-morrow evening. A good supper and a good time may be anticipated.

Hanna's Diamond Window Polish.—This article has recently had a thorough trial in the family of the senior editor of the Transcript, and has proven to be fully as good as represented by its proprietor, Mr. W. Hanna. For cleaning windows, polishing silver, brass, mirrors, &c., it is unequaled. For sale by C. F. Stam, Chestertown, and F. H. Harper, Still Pond.

A New Steamboat Company.—The Sassafras River Steamboat Company has been incorporated, for the navigation of the waters of the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries, with a capital of $30,000. Andrew Woodall, Andrew W. Woodall, of Kent county, Wm. Cundiff, John F. Tarbutton, Abraham L. Colmary and Henry Clark, of Baltimore city, are the directors and incorporators.

Teachers' Association.—The teachers of Kent county hold their second quarterly association at the school room in Chestertown, to-morrow. The association will be called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M. The questions for discussion are—

"How should the Teacher be held responsible for the intellectual growth of the pupil?"

Second—"How should we dismiss school?"

Miss A. E. Leaverton will read the Essay, and Mr. I. R. Starkey deliver the Address.

Should no objection be raised there will be one continuous session, so as to allow members an earlier hour to start home.

Chester River Steamboat Company.—The annual meeting of the Chester River Steamboat Company was held at the company's office on Light street, on Wednesday afternoon, January 21st. George Warfield, president, occupied the chair. The following board of directors were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. F. C. Latrobe, Dr. S. E. Ford, Messrs. George Warfield, Frank Wright and William S. Taylor, Sr. After the meeting of the stockholders a meeting of the directors was called, when George Warfield, Esq., was re-elected president of the company, Dr. Ford secretary, and Mayor Latrobe treasurer.

Price of Grain.—From the Baltimore Sun of Tuesday. The offerings of Southern Wheat are confined to a few car lots Western Maryland of which there are sales at $1 45 for long-berry The market for Western opened firm, but prices declined ¾a1¼ cents, and the closing was weak and dull. Southern Corn is in good demand and the market is firm, especially for white. Sales at 57 cents for damp white; 59 cents for No. 2 do., and 61 cents for No. 1, and at 57 cts. for No. 1 yellow, and 57½a58 cts. for small lots to feed dealers. For Western the market was dull, with a declining tendency, which was most marked on futures.

One Hundred Years Ago.—As a contrast to the exceeding limliness of the present winter it may be interesting to note the great degree of cold which prevailed in Maryland during the winter of 1780, just one hundred years ago. Mr. David Ridgely, State librarian of Maryland, in his Annals of Annapolis, published in 1841, and printed by Cushing & Bro., of Baltimore, says on page 180: "The winter of 1780 was one of unusual severity. The Chesapeake bay was frozen from its head to the mouth of the Potomac. For many days together persons travelled from Annapolis to Poplar Island, Rock Hall and Baltimore on the ice, and crossed to and from Kent Island in carts and carriages, a distance of seven miles across. The ice was six or seven inches thick. It is said to have been one of the coldest winters ever known in our climate."

A SUBSCRIBER'S SOLILOQUY.

To pay, or not to pay, that is the question—
Whether 'tis better for me to refuse
To take a local paper, and deprive
My family from reading all the news,
Or pay up promptly what the printer asks,
And, by such payment, cheer him? No pay, no paper—
Then no more shall I be posted on the news
And local haps throughout the town,
And divers topics—'t is a consummation
That I long have feared. To pay, or stop?
To stop! perchance to lose—ay, there's the rub;
For in that stop no interest do I take
In any of th' affairs which move the town.
And such a shuffling off of all that's good
Must make me pause. There's the respect
Which every editor maintains for those
Who come down with the cash and ne'er delay
To settle up "that little bill." For who would bear
The pointed squibs and pungent paragraph
Which far too oft reflect upon the man
Who fails to settle his subscription bill?
I'll haste me now unto the editor,
And, with my purse plethoric in my hand,
Will settle up in full, one year from date,
By paying to him from my ready cash
The sum which is his due.

A Visit to Baltimore will prove highly advantageous by inspecting Messrs. C. M. Ohm & Son's immense one price Clothing establishment, a grand assortment of Men's overcoats, ulsters and suits from $5 to $30 is now on exhibition, embracing all leading novelties for the present season. Their handsome boys and childrens overcoats, ulsters and suits for school and dress at $2.50 and upwards are the delight of the little folks. Genuine low prices for well-made garments is their motto, and we advise every one before purchasing to call on C. N. Ohm & Son 230 W. Pratt St.

Dyeing.—The old dyeing establishment branch office, 110 West Baltimore street, is as ever, prepared to do all kinds of work in their line, with neatness, cheapness and dispatch. The superior character of their work enables them to please the most fastidious, and save the frugal many a dollar. The attention of our lady readers is specially called to their Balto. Branch office.

A GOOD NEWSPAPER
Is the CHEAPEST LITERATURE.

It is a remarkable fact that the general appreciation in prices consequent upon the revival of prosperity throughout the United States finds an exception in the cost of literature of every kind. This is emphatically an era of cheap literature, and newspapers, after all, are the cheapest of literature. A journal like the Philadelphia Weekly Times, the fifty-two numbers issued in a year being equivalent to several octavo volumes, is easily within the reach of the most depleted purse. The Weekly Times is a newspaper, but something more than a newspaper.—While all the news of the day is fully covered by special correspondents stationed at all the great centres of population, and all other approved agencies for the collection of news are employed, equal pains are taken to occupy other fields of intellectual activity. Fiction, poetry, sketches of travel, adventure and biography, essays in popular science, the latest aspects of modern thought, are given adequate treatment from week to week. All topics of political, commercial, religious, social and general interest are fearlessly discussed in the editorial columns; the critical departments, musical, dramatic and literary, are in competent hands; matters of domestic economy have special attention, and the press of all countries is made to pay tribute in its best things for the entertainment of American readers. These assertions are broad, but they are justified by the nearly unanimous verdict of the press and people that the Philadelphia Weekly Times is the best family newspaper now published. In calling attention to the remarkably liberal terms which are offered to subscribers for the year 1880—a year that is likely to be memorable in American history—we feel that we are doing good service to all who wish to enjoy during that year the visits of a newspaper which, while having all the characteristics of the advanced journalism of the day, is so thoroughly imbued with a wholesome spirit that it may be admitted into any family with certainty that it will become a favorite alike with father, mother and children. The Weekly Times is now offered at $1.25 per copy when sent in clubs of twenty, and for $6 three copies together with "The Annals of the War," a volume of 800 pages, beautifully illustrated, are sent postage free to any address.

The World for 1880.
DEMOCRATS everywhere should inform themselves carefully alike of the action of their party throughout the country and of the movements of their Republican opponents. A failure to do this in 1876 contributed greatly to the loss by the Democracy of the fruits of the victory fairly won at the polls.
The year 1880 promises to be one of the most interesting and important years of this crowded and eventful century. It will witness a Presidential election which may result in re-establishing the Government of this country on the principles of its constitutional founders, or in permanently changing the relations of the States to the Federal power. No intelligent man can regard such an election with indifference. THE WORLD, as the only daily English newspaper published in the city of New York which upholds the doctrines of constitutional Democracy, will steadily represent the Democratic party in this great canvass. It will do this in no spirit of servile partisanship, but temperately and firmly. As a newspaper THE WORLD, being the organ of no man, no clique and no interest, will present the fullest and fairest picture it can make of each day's passing history in the city, the State, the country and the world. It will aim hereafter, as heretofore, at accuracy first of all things in all that it publishes. No man, however humble, shall ever be permitted truly to complain that he has been unjustly dealt with in the columns of The World. No interest, however powerful, shall ever be permitted truly to boast that it con silence the fair criticism of The World.
During the past year The World has seen its daily circulation trebled and its weekly circulation pushed far beyond that of any other weekly newspaper in the country. This great increase has been won, as The World believes, by truthfulness, enterprise, ceaseless activity in collecting news and unfaltering loyalty to itself and to its readers in dealing with the questions of the day. It it our hope and it will be our endeavor that The World's record for 1880 may be written in the approbation and the support of many thousands more of new readers in all parts of this Indissoluble Union of Indestructible States.
