"Gwitnum or Twittenham

Part formerly belonging to the "Howard family; afterwards to Martin French, and now in possession of Thom.s Somerville F.B. Beginning at a Stone, the Second boundary of "The Hermitage" (doubtless "St. William's Hermitage) and running thence, 1. N. 11¼° E. 60p.s 2. S. 89° W. 6p.s to a red oak on the south side of "Pimlicoum" 3. W. S. W. 100p.s 4. S. 27° E. 12p.s to a bound oak by the branch side, in the line of "Pimlico" 5. S. 11¼° W. 150p.s to a red oak (same as in the 5th course of the original Tract) 6. S. S. E. 10p.s 7. N. 59° E. 26p.s to a red oak on a plain, thence, by a straight line to the beginning. Cop.s from Nelson's record.

Note. Under the foregoing, on Nelson's record of Surveys, follows "N. E. say the Deed N. 5 E. to the first boundary S. 61 W." which I have transcribed literally, not being able to make it intelligible.

"Saint Oswald's"

Part conveyed, about the year 1810 to Benjamin Tippett by Zeph.h Graves. Beginning at a Stone in the 24th line of "Roundabout Resurveyed" and running thence, 1. N. 74¾° W. 129¼ p.s 2. S. 14° W. 61 23/25 p.s to a Stump at the head of a branch, 3. S. 78¾° E. 20p.s with said branch 4. N. 76° E. 6p.s with said branch. 5. S. 70½° E. 22p.s with said branch, 6. N. 63° E. 24p.s with said branch 7. N. 65° E. 15 7/5 p.s with said branch to a Poplar Tree by the North side of said branch (since struck by lightning) 8. N. 30½° E. 29p.s to a Chestnut Tree on the top of the Spring hill, thence by a straight line to the beginning containing 28¾ Ac.s More or less. Laid off by Jo. Dunbar Surv.r Cop.s from the Deed.

Note. The Stump at the end of the 2.d course, was replaced, when decayed, by a locust post, but this disappeared very soon after it was planted. The place can easily be found by continuing the course of the fence to the South side of the head of the branch. the post was fixed near the branch, but on solid land.
