Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.

WHEAT

By Mary Robertine Stokes

When its acres of rippling emerald
Sweep round the blue woodland's hazy girth,
I think no other thing seems fairer
That graces the vivid earth.

Then in a last hour of evening
The heighth of joy in color is won
When its amber waves on a hill top
Surge over the crimson sun.

DEATHS

After a lingering illness from tuberculosis, Mr. Robert Hendrix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bates Hendrix, died at the home of his parents on Maple avenue Sunday morning at about 10.30. He leaves his parents, wife and one child, one brother, Mr. Jack Hendrix, and two sisters, Mrs. William Oglesby and Mrs. Jas. Smith, to mourn his loss, besides a large circle of friends. He was 28 years of age. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. L. Ward, interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers were as follows: Alonza Sterling, Herman Blackway, Edward Blackway, Howard Reed, Frank Greenwood and Laury Hackett. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mr. Hendricks was a young man of particularly charming personality and he stood the years of his affliction with a fortitude that was heroic. He was a hard worker and it is supposed that working in the close city shops undermined his health and brought on the disease which caused his death. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Albert Godwin, a well-known farmer of Morgnec, died very suddenly last Friday afternoon of heart failure, aged 49 years. Mr. Godwin's wife suffered a slight accident and when the information was conveyed to him he ran from the home of a neighbor to his own home, the over-exertion causing the fatal attack to which he succumbed in a few minutes. Besides his wife he leaves two sons and one daughter. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon conducted by the Revs. Rowlenson, of Crumpton, and Coe, of Chesterville. The interment was at Crumpton, undertaker W. J. Sparks in charge. The deceased was a member of the Chestertown Order of Owls.

Miss Ellen Barroll, daughter of the late James E. and Henrietta J. Barroll, died in Elkton on June 14. Miss Barroll was born and during her youth lived in Chestertown. She was a devoted member and an active worker in the P. E. Church. Hope H. Barroll, Esq., of Chestertown, Mr. J. Leeds Barroll, of Philadelphia, and Col. Morris K. Barroll, of the U. S. Army, are her nephews.

Mr. George H. Moreland, a highly respected citizen of Church Hill, and a Civil War veteran, died in that town last week.

CULTIVATORS

Have you ever looked over the "I. H. C." No. 4 CULTIVATOR?

Then you have missed seeing the most complete riding cultivator. What we might say will not convince you half so quickly as what the man says who has one. We will give you the names of persons who use them, then see what they say. They can be adjusted for a wide or narrow row in only a few minutes time; will work closer to the crop being cultivated, and are long lived. Come in and look one over.

BUCKEYE RIDING CULTIVATOR

This is the independent tooth and is so well known that it is hardly necessary for us to take space to do more than tell you we have them on hand and the price is only $55.00.

We carry several styles of teeth for Buckeye Cultivators.

Binder Twine

When you go in the harvest field you want to avoid all unnecessary trouble. One to avoid is bad twine. Avoid twine trouble by placing your order now for McCormick Standard. Every ball is guaranteed or your money will be refunded. There are some twines on the market that do not run regular in size and they do cause trouble in the field. We wish to advise you against buying anything but the best STANDARD TWINE.
